STOKES LEADS SCRIBES' POLL

Times Columnist Chosen 'Best All-Around Washington Correspondent.'

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12 (U. P.).—Thomas L. Stokes, Indianapolis Times columnist, was chosen by a group of Washington newspapermen as the capital correspondent who "does the best all-around job measured in terms of reliability, fairness and ability to analyze news," it was announced today.

Mr. Stokes received 25 votes while Marquis Childs, United Feature syndicate columnist, was second with 23. Bert Andrews, New York Herald Tribune, and Roscoe Drummond, Christian Science Monitor, tied for third place with eight votes each.

The New York Times was selected as the newspaper maintaining the best all-around Washington news service as measured by reliability, comprehensiveness and fairness.

The selection was made in a poll conducted by the Saturday Review of Literature. Questionnaires were sent to 696 members of the congressional press gallery and 160 answers were received.

The New York Times received 85 votes for the best Washington news service. The Washington Post with 16 votes was second, followed by the New York Herald Tribune with 14 and the Baltimore Sun with 9.

Pearson Tops Vote

Arthur Krock, chief of the New York Times Washington bureau, was selected by 51 voters as "the Washington correspondent who exerts through his writings the greatest influence on Washington." Drew Pearson, author of the United Feature syndicate's Washington Merry-Go-Round, was second with 32 votes and Walter Lippmann, New York Herald Tribune columnist, was third with 19 votes.

Pearson received 56 votes as the Washington columnist exerting through his writings the greatest influence on the nation. Lippmann was second with 28 votes and Krock third with 13.

The Chicago Tribune, with 65 votes, was chosen as "the newspaper which is the most significant in angling or weighing the news to suit its own editorial opinions." The Washington Times-Herald received 34 votes to take second place in the category, and the New York newspaper PM was third with 29 votes.

YOUNG DEMOCRATS MEET TOMORROW

Seven Students at Butler University Have Parents on Faculty Staff

It's father's day every day for seven Butler university students as they literally follow in their father's footsteps from their homes to the Fairview school.

Dr. Charles C. Josey, head of the department of psychology, has a son, Charles Jr., majoring in freshman psychology, and a daughter, Elizabeth, a junior home economics student attending the university.

Mary Eleanor Kershner, a graduate student specializing in English, is the daughter of Dr. Frederick D. Kershner, dean emeritus of the school of religion.

Dr. A. Dale Beeler, professor of political science and history, has a son, James A. Beeler, beginning a four-year pre-law study, and Dr. Karl S. Means, professor of chemistry, is represented by a son, Allan P. Means, senior English and history major.

Dr. C. R. Maxam, registrar, enrolled his son, Beverly, for a second year pre-medical course, and Hervey A. Henderson, instructor in the evening division education department, has a daughter, Beth Henderson Elliott, a senior education major.

Get Coffee that's...

5 Ways Better!

- PICK OF PLANTATION
High-flavored coffees are worth getting excited about! To get first choice of the finest crop—pick of plantation—A&P buyers go right to the plantations. Result: You get sparkling, full flavor in every pound!
- "FLAVOR-SAVER" ROASTED
No flavor lost, thanks to A&P's "flavor-saver" roasting. This exclusive process literally "boards" coffee flavor for you. At flavor peak—off goes the heat, out comes the beans cream-packed with flavor.
- FRESHER... IN THE BEAN
It's still in the freshly roasted bean when you buy! Its naturally mellow flavor tightly locked in by Mother Nature's own protective seal! For finer, fresher flavor... and more of it!... buy your coffee in the bean.
- "FITS" YOUR COFFEEPOT
Freshly ground the moment you buy... precisely right for your coffee maker. You get the full benefit no matter what type coffee pot you use! The fragrant aroma of freshly ground A&P Coffee is your promise of coffee at its best!
- RICHER IN YOUR CUP
Superb quality coffee that is really fresh... and correctly ground—will give you more flavor—richer flavor every time!
