

Park Head Agrees to Waive Fees for Community Houses

Park Superintendent Paul V. Brown today said his department will not charge civic and non-profit organizations for use of community houses.

He also asserted that should fees be charged on other city recreation facilities be considered in the future, the issue will be "taken up with every community group in town."

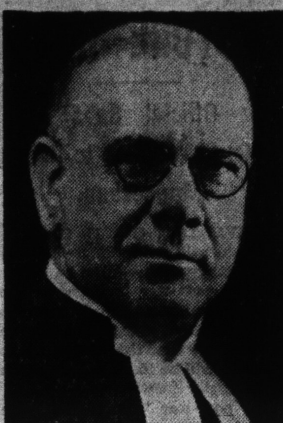

His statement followed the mass protest last night at city council of a large delegation of Brookside Civic League members against rental fees on the use of community houses.

Council Delays Vote

A civic league ordinance proposing to exempt from community house fees all "charitable, civic, social or recreational" groups, was postponed by council on the theory that the measure's generalities might have the legal effect of eliminating present charges on golf courses and swimming pools.

Complaints registered by civic league spokesmen emphasized that additional charges for recreational facilities is a "double tax" abuse, since the municipal play program

Mourning Here Dr. Dunkel's Rites Set for Thursday; Burial in Ohio

Dr. J. A. Dunkel

DEAD HERE AT 70

Fred W. Dunkel, who founded the Superior Bearings Corp. in 1921, died today in St. Vincent's hospital. He was 70.

Mr. Dunkel, who was born in Indianapolis, had not been active in the business in recent years. His home was at 5315 N. Delaware st. His wife, Elizabeth, survives him.

Services will be held at 1:30 p. m. Thursday at Napoleon, O., for Dr. Joel Ambrose Dunkel, former pastor of the Tabernacle Presbyterian church here 22 years. Burial will be at Tiffin, O.

Dr. Dunkel, who was 73, died yesterday at Chicago. He had been ill several weeks.

He came to the Tabernacle church in 1918 and during his stay here won a national reputation through his administration of the affairs of the church. He was a former moderator of the Indiana synod and later was considered for moderator of the national assembly of the Presbyterian church in 1938.

Stars Building Fund

Dr. Dunkel was a member of the general council of the church and also was a trustee of Princeton university's theological seminary. Shortly after coming here, he began collection of a building fund that resulted in erection of the Tabernacle structure, one of the finest in the Midwest. At the time of his death, Dr. Dunkel was pastor of the Napoleon (O.) church.

A former member of the Indianapolis Ministerial association he also had been a member of Myrtle The Masonic lodge, Keystone chapter No. 8, F. & M. C., past eminent commander of Raper Commandery No. 1 and served as Indiana state prelate of the Knights Templar. He was an honorary 33d degree member of the Scottish Rite and also was chaplain of the Indiana Masonic grand lodge.

He also was a member of the Sons of the American Revolution, Society of the War of 1812, Odd Fellows, K. of P., Kiwanis club and the Highland Golf and Country club.

Survivors are two sons, Harold B. Dunkel, Chicago, and Dr. Wilbur D. Dunkel, Rochester, N. Y., and two grandchildren.

MINISTER'S MOTHER DIES AT HER HOME

Mrs. Wilma M. Malsbary, native of Indiana, wife of Frank R. Malsbary and mother of Rev. Roger Malsbary, died this morning in her home, 5232 Winthrop ave.

Mrs. Malsbary, who had been ill for many weeks, moved here from Muncie a month ago. She was 58, had been very active in church work, a Sunday school teacher and a friend of youth. During the years the family lived in Florida, Mrs. Malsbary was president of the W. C. T. U. and the Parent-Teacher association in Tampa.

Additional survivors include a son, Dean, chief petty officer U. S. N. R., stationed at Sampson, N. Y.; a daughter, Mrs. Gail Stein, wife of the Rev. Howard Stein, Saginaw, Mich., and two grandchildren, Robert E. and Ronald D. Malsbary, children of the Rev. Mr. Malsbary, director of Youth for Christ.

The date and hour of the funeral services depend upon the arrival of Chief Malsbary. The Rev. T. E. Thompson, pastor of the Christian and Missionary Alliance church, 10th st. and Park ave., will conduct the services in the church assisted by the Rev. J. R. Swain of Muncie. Burial will be in Crown Hill. Friends are expected to call at the Hisey & Titus Funeral Home beginning tomorrow.

CLIFFORD ASKIN

Services will be held at 2 p. m. Thursday in the Royster & Askin mortuary for Clifford G. Askin, a member of the firm 42 years. Burial will be at Crown Hill. He died Sunday in Methodist hospital. His home was at 2501 E. 10th st.

Mr. Askin retired in 1941 as head of the Indiana College of Mortuary Science for 35 years. He founded the college seven years after organizing the mortuary firm.

Mr. Askin became nationally recognized as an authority on the embalming science and mortuary practices. He had lectured many times before morticians and had written a number of articles for trade magazines.

A native of Decatur county, he was a member of the Moose, Scottish Rite, Shrine, Optimist club and Gyro club.

Survivors are a sister, Mrs. Elsie Barbour, Lawrence; a nephew and two nieces, Miss Edith Barbour and Walter Barbour, both of Lawrence, and Mrs. Alice Rhoades, Homestead.

SAMUEL MILLAR

Samuel Todd Millar, a retired packing firm employee here, died today in the home of a son, John T. Millar, 5432 Julian ave. He was 71. Mr. Millar came here in 1890 and was a member of Pentecostal Masonic lodge.

Survivors besides the son at whose home Mr. Millar died are another son, Robert D., and three grandchildren.

Services will be held at 3 p. m. Thursday in Shirley Bros. Irving Hill chapel. Burial will be at Crown Hill.

MRS. CARRIE KUSSEL

Funeral services and burial for Mrs. Carrie Strauss Kussel, 3967 Carrollton ave., will be at 10:30 a. m. tomorrow in Terre Haute. The body will be at the Aaron-Ruben funeral home here until tomorrow morning.

Mrs. Kussel, who was 77, died yesterday in her home after a long illness. She had lived in Terre Haute 20 years before moving here four years ago.

Survivors are two daughters, Mrs. Leon Levin and Mrs. Harry Levin, both of Indianapolis.

ALBERT SHANE

Albert Shane, 244 S. Parker ave., a former Indiana highway commission employee, died yesterday at 1034 Virginia ave. He was 76.

Mr. Shane had driven into a filling station when he became ill. A police emergency squad was called, but he died before he could be taken to the hospital. Mr. Shane was a native of Greensburg, but had lived here 50 years.

Survivors are the wife, Mattie; a daughter, Mrs. Madge Rice; two sisters, Mrs. Dora McCune, Greensburg, and Mrs. Mollie Pollard, Indianapolis; a brother, Arthur Shane, Greensburg; two grandchildren, and five great-grandchildren.

EARL H. WILSON

Wilbur A. Zobbe, Christian Science reader, will conduct funeral services for Earl H. Wilson, former Indianapolis resident, at 11 a. m. Thursday in Flanner & Buchanan mortuary. Burial will be in Crown Hill.

Mr. Wilson, who was 48, died Saturday night of a heart attack while driving to his home in Hingham, Mass., where he had lived the last three years. He was assistant general manager of the National Fire Works defense plant in West Haverhill, Mass.

Survivors are his wife, Alice; two children, Georganna and Harry, both of Hingham, Mass., and his mother, Mrs. Harry Wilson of

GEORGE YORGER

Services for George Yorgier, a life resident of Marion county, who died yesterday on his farm, R. R. 10, Box 245, will be held at 8:30 a. m. Thursday in the Grinstead funeral home and at 9 a. m. in St.

Mary's Catholic church. Burial will be in St. Joseph's.

Mr. Yorgier had been a farmer the greater part of his life.

A sister, Amelia, Indianapolis, is the only immediate survivor.
