Stark Urges Peace Force, U. S. Lead in World Affairs

Maintenance of peace by force if necessary was advocated by Judge Judson L. Stark, Republican nominee for 11th district congressman, in a speech at a 12th ward G. O. P. meeting last night.

"My Democratic opponent for representative in congress (Rep. Louis Ludlow) has been an isolationist. In this respect he was little different from his commander-in-chief, Mr. Roosevelt. However, Mr. Ludlow continued his isolationist tactics right up to the Jap attack on Pearl Harbor, while Mr. Roosevelt saw the folly of this course earlier and made frantic last-minute preparations to meet the enemy invasion. But Mr. Ludlow waited until after Pearl Harbor to cooperate in the vital and necessary defense program."

Judge Stark said the nation has a duty to its own citizens and to the world to take the lead in a practical program to prevent recurrence of war.

"American participation in this war—even the entire world conflict—might have been averted had we been prepared for the emergency," he said. "But our voice was too feeble to be heard. We had to stand supinely by while the Japs defenseless China, while Italy invaded Ethiopia, while Hitler marched into Austria, Czechoslovakia and Poland.

"We must have a military establishment of sufficient size and strength to maintain peace and make our voice heard in world affairs," he said.

"Any forward looking program to outlaw war on an international scale will not be effective unless it has the sinews and backbone of authority. America's investment for victory in this war, in both human life and property, staggers the imagination."

JACKSON HITS SPECIAL PLEAS

Charges Gates Addresses Specific Appeals to Various Groups.

Times Special

RICHMOND, Ind., Nov. 1 (U. P.)—Samuel D. Jackson, Democratic gubernatorial nominee, said here last night that if he were elected he would take office "with no promises to any man or any group."

He charged his Republican opponent, Ralph Gates, with making last-minute, specific appeals to various groups, and declared that his own appeals "have been made to all people alike, from the platform, over the radio and in the press."

Senator Jackson said he wanted all the voters to know what he had to say to such groups.

Cites Labor Record

"To members of the Railroad Brotherhoods, for instance, I can say that I have had many of them as my clients in the legal profession and have never accepted employment against them. All labor knows where I stand on all labor matters, and I want every one to know it," he said.

"To barbers and beauticians, I would say openly, I am a member of the subcommittee of the senate dealing with their problems. I want them treated fairly. I also want all the voters to know where I stand on those matters.

"To bankers I would say that they form the backbone of our local economic life; and I would add that there is a field and a need for small loan companies too and that justice can and will be achieved where their fields seem to overlap. But I say these things openly and not one thing to the bankers and something else to the small loan operators.

Church Elder 20 Years

"To clergymen who have received letters from their brothers of the cloth in behalf of my opponent, I can say that I have been a Presbyterian elder for 20 years.

"To the farmers I recall the work I have done in their behalf as shown in the printed records of the U. S. senate.... To veterans I refer to my senate record on the G. I. Bill of Rights and I am more than willing to help them.

BOY HELPS TO TRAP SUSPECT IN THEFT

A Muncie woman lost her purse to a pickpocket while she slept in a terminal station waiting room early this morning.

Five-year-old Tommy Bronson, Paris, Ill., awakened his aunt, Ernestine Giles, 20, when he saw a man grab her pocketbook and run into the men's lavatory.

Police recovered the purse there. Nothing was missing, they said.

John Murray, 33, Ft. Wayne, was arrested and is being held on a vagrancy charge.

ing that all citizens know of my action in this."

Schricker Speaks Up For Farm Profits

BEDFORD, Ind., Nov. 1 (U. P.)—In an address aimed at the farm vote, Governor Schricker told a Lawrence county Democratic rally last night that agriculture must be assured a fair profit if there is to be real prosperity in America after the war.

Campaigning for election to the U. S. senate Mr. Schricker said that Republicans had made many promises to the farmer during the campaign, "but they have failed to mention those dark days of 1932 when the farmers were broke and the bankers helpless to come to their rescue."

The Governor said that Indiana farmers and their wives merited a "badge of excellence" for their contributions to the war effort.

RICHMOND, Ind., Nov. 1 (U. P.)—Hubert E. Wickens, Democratic candidate for attorney general, said in a broadcast speech last night that Democratic nominees offer the best promise for a permanent peace. Mr. Wickens said that his party has made a "forthright declaration for international co-operation."

COX TO ADDRESS YOUNG DEMOCRATS

Circuit Judge Earl R. Cox, Democratic nominee for re-election, will address the annual campaign rally of the Young Democrats of Marion county at 8 p. m. Friday in the Chateau room of the Claypool hotel.

RAIL GROUP SESSION

The Association of Retired Railway Employees will hear Dr. Rebecca Parrish, Indianapolis physician, world traveler and lecturer, at a meeting at 2 p. m. Monday at the Big Four building.

GOP MAKES HAY AT CEREMONIES

Sees Event as Opportunity

To Cut Into N. W. Side Democratic Vote.

City hall Republicans won the battle of the Indiana ave. bridge yesterday.

Any doubt that the bridge opening was considered anything short of a political coup was dispelled by the appearance of a huge, but slightly used, elephant, which lumbered across the span shortly after Mayor Tyndall had snipped a red, red ribbon.

Fanfare almost auspicious enough to rededicate the Golden Gate bridge in San Francisco accompanied the ceremony and indeed, the local G. O. P. thought it detected in the event a golden opportunity to cut into the Northwest Side Democratic vote.

A Political Comeback

With hundreds of beaming public officials milling jubilantly around and shaking each others hands, the spectacle took on the aspect of a first-class political clamor.

Thousands of others, including members of the Crispus Attucks high school band and R. O. T. C. unit also cheered, and one-wide eyed grade school pupil toted a sign reading, "Thank You Mayor Tyndall."

There were scores of police, too, plus a full-dress exhibition of the police emergency hospital truck.

Speaking over the public address system after he had sheared the ribbon in two, Mayor Tyndall stated, "Well, it's not a big bridge, but it's something to cross over."

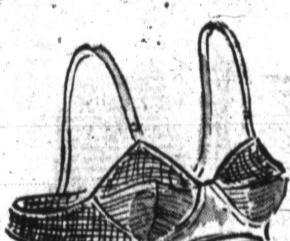

Others taking a bow on the program were City Engineer Arthur B. Henry; Works Board President Sherle Deming; City Councilman Lucien B. Meriwether and Council President John Schumacher. Closed since 1938, the span was reinforced through the efforts of Mr. Henry and Mr. Deming.

Mr. Deming climaxed the ceremony by announcing a bang-up Republican rally and concert to be given Friday night by city employees at Sunset Terrace, 873 Indiana ave.
