'Help-B-29's Speed Blasting of Tokyo,' Slogan for 2d Week of Bond Drive Here

"Buy that extra war bond now to help our B-29 pilots speed the blasting of Tokyo!" is the appeal being made by war bond solicitors today as Marion county plunges into its second week of the sixth war loan campaign.

"If every person realizes that the purchase of extra war bonds will speed the day of victory and the return of our fighting men," William H. Trimble, county chairman of the war finance committee, said, "there will be no question about making and exceeding the county goal of $67,250,000."

Praising the efforts of solicitors to the Boy Scouts and Cubs, Robert McQueen, 541 Dayton st., a newly initiated Scout, reported sales of four war bonds, including one $1000 bond, within less than two hours after he left the meeting at which he became a tenderfoot.

Another Scout, Cyrus Jordan, 5759 Rolling Ridge, has made 45 sales to date. He is a member of troop 133.

Meanwhile, a total of 82,905 employees of the 339 employee groups in Marion county has accepted an aggregate quota of $6,297,425 in the sixth war loan bonds. This is an average of $75.95 per employee.

The employee groups who have accepted quotas are:
