

Hoosier Heroes: Allee and Sutton Killed Overseas; Plane Crashes in U. S. Claim Lives of Stewart and Kauffman

Pvt. Irvin (Luka) Allee, reported missing after action in Italy on Oct. 25, was killed that day, according to word received yesterday by his father, Charles E. Allee Sr., 546 N. Sheffield ave.

Pvt. Allee was wounded May 19 in Italy and had received the purple heart. He was serving with the medical corps and was one of the first foot soldiers to enter Rome.

A graduate of Washington high school, he is 19, and entered the army in July, 1943. He had been overseas since January, 1944.

Survivors, besides his father, include four sisters, Lucille, Alberta, Barbara and Sarah, at home, and a brother, Pvt. Charles E. Allee Jr., stationed in England.

Fireman 1-c Charles William London ... missing in the Pacific.

The young flier is a graduate of the Carmel high school and attended Purdue university.

Survivors, besides his parents, include three younger brothers, Warren, Fred and Morris, all at home.

Aviation Radioman 3-c Benjamin L. Kauffman Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin L. Kauffman Sr., R. 1, Box 633, McFarland rd., was killed Friday in a plane crash near Klamath Falls, Ore., the navy department has notified his parents.

He was serving on a torpedo bomber. The Indianapolis airman was home on a 30-day furlough in September, leaving Oct. 7 for San Diego, Cal. From there he was sent to an undisclosed destination.

Radioman Kauffman entered the navy Oct. 18, 1943, and received preliminary training at Great Lakes, Ill. He received his advanced training at Memphis, Tenn., and Miami, Fla.

A graduate of Southport high school, he is 19 and formerly was employed by the Coca-Cola Bottling Co. He was a member of the Shelby Street Methodist church.

Survivors, besides his parents, are two younger brothers, Carl and Paul Eugene, and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Fox, Indianapolis.

Second Lt. John W. Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Stewart, Carmel, was killed Saturday when his P-38 fighter plane crashed into a garage at Ontario, Cal., air field authorities have announced.

Lt. Stewart was 20 and entered the air forces in February, 1943. He was home on a leave in October, reporting back to California Nov. 8.

Sgt. Cloyd F. Sutton ... killed in Italy.

overseas with a communications unit of the infantry in May.

The 22-year-old soldier was employed by the Continental Motors Corp., Muskegon, Mich., until he entered the service, Jan. 19, 1943.

He received his training at Camp Robinson, Ark.; Ft. Meade, Md.; Camp McCoy, Wis., and in Virginia.

T. Sgt. John R. Welch, whose brother, Lt. Leo F. Welch Jr., is missing in action, has been wounded a second time in France, receiving the wounds Nov. 11. He previously was wounded in August and had received the purple heart.

Sgt. Welch is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo F. Welch Sr., 4310 Broadway. He is a graduate of Cathedral high school, attended the University of Notre Dame and formerly was employed by the Celtic Federal Savings & Loan association, of which his father is secretary.

Another brother, Cpl. Thomas Welch, is serving with the infantry in France.

First Lt. Richard A. Coleman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Coleman, Newtontown, was one of eight midwest Yanks recently decorated with the bronze star medal.

Lt. Coleman, an armored engineer in France, received the medal for rallying a company under enemy fire to which he had been sent as a replacement officer. He was wounded Sept. 29 and received the purple heart. He is returning to this country for further hospitalization.

T. Sgt. Robert A. O'Neal, radio operator-gunner of a 8th army air force B-17, has been awarded an oak leaf cluster to the air medal. The sergeant is the husband of Mrs. Thelma M. O'Neal, Moline, Ill., and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray B. O'Neal, 1019 S. Roena st.

Four Indianapolis men are members of the 12th air force group which has been cited by the President for a mission over Rome Ciampino and South Airdrome in preparation for the allied landings at Anzio. They are:

T. Sgt. Donald Whittinger, 1118 W. 29th st.; Pfc. Ralph E. Hornback, 850 Buchanan st.; Sgt. Paul C. Herring, R. 10, and 24 Lt. Frank N. Jelinik, R. 4, Box 623.

Pvt. Harold E. Riley, R. 2, 2, is an electrician with the 109th engineer combat battalion, which recently was commended by Lt. Gen. Mark W. Clark, 5th army commander.

Thirteen other Indiana men are serving with the honored battalion. They are:

Pfc. Gordon V. Cochran, Anderson; Cpl. Earl S. Allen, Attica; Cpl. Frank N. Hansen, Elkhart; Pfc. Jack Broe, Greentown; Cpl. John E. Horn, Jeffersonville; Cpl. Robert T. Christian, Lebanon; Sgt. George R. Tintus, New Albany; Pfc. Delmer L. McWhorter, New Castle; Sgt. George B. Allen, Oxford; Pfc. Noel Gastineau, Rensselaer; Pfc. Norville V. Chamberlain, South Bend, and Cpl. Meredith P. Helms, Warren.

S. Sgt. Robert L. Crump, son of Mrs. Thelma Crump, 1241 N. Euclid st., is a member of a signal corps unit which has received a commendation for its exceptionally fine performance of duty in providing communications for American personnel and the Chinese army in India during operations in northern Burma from August, 1943, to June, 1944.

Two more Indiana marines have been killed in action. They are:

Pfc. Edwin F. Burris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy M. Burris, Avilla, and Pfc. Joseph S. Jagla, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Jagla, South Bend.

The war department today confirmed the deaths of four Indianapolis men. They are:

Pfc. William E. Hall, son of Charles F. Hall, 6410 E. Washington st.; Pfc. Herbert R. Buck, son of Mrs. Alice A. Buck, 3312 E. 9th st.; Pfc. Clarence E. Pinnick, son of Mrs. Lawrence Pinnick, 1917 Union st.; and Pfc. Herbert J. Sanders, husband of Mrs. Mary T. Sanders, 1427 E. Raymond st.

The navy department today confirmed the report that Pfc. Robert W. Miller, son of Mrs. Eunice Miller, 2008 S. Meridian st., has been wounded.

Aviation Radioman 3-c Benjamin L. Kauffman Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin L. Kauffman Sr., R. 1, Box 633, McFarland rd., was killed Friday in a plane crash near Klamath Falls, Ore., the navy department has notified his parents.

He was serving on a torpedo bomber. The Indianapolis airman was home on a 30-day furlough in September, leaving Oct. 7 for San Diego, Cal. From there he was sent to an undisclosed destination.

Radioman Kauffman entered the navy Oct. 18, 1943, and received preliminary training at Great Lakes, Ill. He received his advanced training at Memphis, Tenn., and Miami, Fla.

A graduate of Southport high school, he is 19 and formerly was employed by the Coca-Cola Bottling Co. He was a member of the Shelby Street Methodist church.

Survivors, besides his parents, are two younger brothers, Carl and Paul Eugene, and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Fox, Indianapolis.

Second Lt. John W. Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Stewart, Carmel, was killed Saturday when his P-38 fighter plane crashed into a garage at Ontario, Cal., air field authorities have announced.

Lt. Stewart was 20 and entered the air forces in February, 1943. He was home on a leave in October, reporting back to California Nov. 8.

Aviation Radioman 3-c Benjamin L. Kauffman Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin L. Kauffman Sr., R. 1, Box 633, McFarland rd., was killed Friday in a plane crash near Klamath Falls, Ore., the navy department has notified his parents.

He was serving on a torpedo bomber. The Indianapolis airman was home on a 30-day furlough in September, leaving Oct. 7 for San Diego, Cal. From there he was sent to an undisclosed destination.

Radioman Kauffman entered the navy Oct. 18, 1943, and received preliminary training at Great Lakes, Ill. He received his advanced training at Memphis, Tenn., and Miami, Fla.

A graduate of Southport high school, he is 19 and formerly was employed by the Coca-Cola Bottling Co. He was a member of the Shelby Street Methodist church.

Survivors, besides his parents, are two younger brothers, Carl and Paul Eugene, and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Fox, Indianapolis.

Second Lt. John W. Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Stewart, Carmel, was killed Saturday when his P-38 fighter plane crashed into a garage at Ontario, Cal., air field authorities have announced.

Lt. Stewart was 20 and entered the air forces in February, 1943. He was home on a leave in October, reporting back to California Nov. 8.

Aviation Radioman 3-c Benjamin L. Kauffman Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin L. Kauffman Sr., R. 1, Box 633, McFarland rd., was killed Friday in a plane crash near Klamath Falls, Ore., the navy department has notified his parents.

He was serving on a torpedo bomber. The Indianapolis airman was home on a 30-day furlough in September, leaving Oct. 7 for San Diego, Cal. From there he was sent to an undisclosed destination.

Radioman Kauffman entered the navy Oct. 18, 1943, and received preliminary training at Great Lakes, Ill. He received his advanced training at Memphis, Tenn., and Miami, Fla.

Sgt. Cloyd F. Sutton ... killed in Italy.

overseas with a communications unit of the infantry in May.

The 22-year-old soldier was employed by the Continental Motors Corp., Muskegon, Mich., until he entered the service, Jan. 19, 1943.

He received his training at Camp Robinson, Ark.; Ft. Meade, Md.; Camp McCoy, Wis., and in Virginia.

T. Sgt. John R. Welch, whose brother, Lt. Leo F. Welch Jr., is missing in action, has been wounded a second time in France, receiving the wounds Nov. 11. He previously was wounded in August and had received the purple heart.

Sgt. Welch is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo F. Welch Sr., 4310 Broadway. He is a graduate of Cathedral high school, attended the University of Notre Dame and formerly was employed by the Celtic Federal Savings & Loan association, of which his father is secretary.

Another brother, Cpl. Thomas Welch, is serving with the infantry in France.

First Lt. Richard A. Coleman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Coleman, Newtontown, was one of eight midwest Yanks recently decorated with the bronze star medal.

Lt. Coleman, an armored engineer in France, received the medal for rallying a company under enemy fire to which he had been sent as a replacement officer. He was wounded Sept. 29 and received the purple heart. He is returning to this country for further hospitalization.

T. Sgt. Robert A. O'Neal, radio operator-gunner of a 8th army air force B-17, has been awarded an oak leaf cluster to the air medal. The sergeant is the husband of Mrs. Thelma M. O'Neal, Moline, Ill., and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray B. O'Neal, 1019 S. Roena st.

Four Indianapolis men are members of the 12th air force group which has been cited by the President for a mission over Rome Ciampino and South Airdrome in preparation for the allied landings at Anzio. They are:

T. Sgt. Donald Whittinger, 1118 W. 29th st.; Pfc. Ralph E. Hornback, 850 Buchanan st.; Sgt. Paul C. Herring, R. 10, and 24 Lt. Frank N. Jelinik, R. 4, Box 623.

Pvt. Harold E. Riley, R. 2, 2, is an electrician with the 109th engineer combat battalion, which recently was commended by Lt. Gen. Mark W. Clark, 5th army commander.

Thirteen other Indiana men are serving with the honored battalion. They are:

Pfc. Gordon V. Cochran, Anderson; Cpl. Earl S. Allen, Attica; Cpl. Frank N. Hansen, Elkhart; Pfc. Jack Broe, Greentown; Cpl. John E. Horn, Jeffersonville; Cpl. Robert T. Christian, Lebanon; Sgt. George R. Tintus, New Albany; Pfc. Delmer L. McWhorter, New Castle; Sgt. George B. Allen, Oxford; Pfc. Noel Gastineau, Rensselaer; Pfc. Norville V. Chamberlain, South Bend, and Cpl. Meredith P. Helms, Warren.

S. Sgt. Robert L. Crump, son of Mrs. Thelma Crump, 1241 N. Euclid st., is a member of a signal corps unit which has received a commendation for its exceptionally fine performance of duty in providing communications for American personnel and the Chinese army in India during operations in northern Burma from August, 1943, to June, 1944.

Two more Indiana marines have been killed in action. They are:

Pfc. Edwin F. Burris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy M. Burris, Avilla, and Pfc. Joseph S. Jagla, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Jagla, South Bend.

The war department today confirmed the deaths of four Indianapolis men. They are:

Pfc. William E. Hall, son of Charles F. Hall, 6410 E. Washington st.; Pfc. Herbert R. Buck, son of Mrs. Alice A. Buck, 3312 E. 9th st.; Pfc. Clarence E. Pinnick, son of Mrs. Lawrence Pinnick, 1917 Union st.; and Pfc. Herbert J. Sanders, husband of Mrs. Mary T. Sanders, 1427 E. Raymond st.

The navy department today confirmed the report that Pfc. Robert W. Miller, son of Mrs. Eunice Miller, 2008 S. Meridian st., has been wounded.

Aviation Radioman 3-c Benjamin L. Kauffman Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin L. Kauffman Sr., R. 1, Box 633, McFarland rd., was killed Friday in a plane crash near Klamath Falls, Ore., the navy department has notified his parents.

He was serving on a torpedo bomber. The Indianapolis airman was home on a 30-day furlough in September, leaving Oct. 7 for San Diego, Cal. From there he was sent to an undisclosed destination.

Radioman Kauffman entered the navy Oct. 18, 1943, and received preliminary training at Great Lakes, Ill. He received his advanced training at Memphis, Tenn., and Miami, Fla.

A graduate of Southport high school, he is 19 and formerly was employed by the Coca-Cola Bottling Co. He was a member of the Shelby Street Methodist church.

Survivors, besides his parents, are two younger brothers, Carl and Paul Eugene, and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Fox, Indianapolis.

Second Lt. John W. Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Stewart, Carmel, was killed Saturday when his P-38 fighter plane crashed into a garage at Ontario, Cal., air field authorities have announced.

Lt. Stewart was 20 and entered the air forces in February, 1943. He was home on a leave in October, reporting back to California Nov. 8.

Aviation Radioman 3-c Benjamin L. Kauffman Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin L. Kauffman Sr., R. 1, Box 633, McFarland rd., was killed Friday in a plane crash near Klamath Falls, Ore., the navy department has notified his parents.

He was serving on a torpedo bomber. The Indianapolis airman was home on a 30-day furlough in September, leaving Oct. 7 for San Diego, Cal. From there he was sent to an undisclosed destination.

Radioman Kauffman entered the navy Oct. 18, 1943, and received preliminary training at Great Lakes, Ill. He received his advanced training at Memphis, Tenn., and Miami, Fla.

A graduate of Southport high school, he is 19 and formerly was employed by the Coca-Cola Bottling Co. He was a member of the Shelby Street Methodist church.

Survivors, besides his parents, are two younger brothers, Carl and Paul Eugene, and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Fox, Indianapolis.

Second Lt. John W. Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Stewart, Carmel, was killed Saturday when his P-38 fighter plane crashed into a garage at Ontario, Cal., air field authorities have announced.

Lt. Stewart was 20 and entered the air forces in February, 1943. He was home on a leave in October, reporting back to California Nov. 8.

Aviation Radioman 3-c Benjamin L. Kauffman Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin L. Kauffman Sr., R. 1, Box 633, McFarland rd., was killed Friday in a plane crash near Klamath Falls, Ore., the navy department has notified his parents.

He was serving on a torpedo bomber. The Indianapolis airman was home on a 30-day furlough in September, leaving Oct. 7 for San Diego, Cal. From there he was sent to an undisclosed destination.

Radioman Kauffman entered the navy Oct. 18, 1943, and received preliminary training at Great Lakes, Ill. He received his advanced training at Memphis, Tenn., and Miami, Fla.

Sgt. Cloyd F. Sutton ... killed in Italy.

overseas with a communications unit of the infantry in May.

The 22-year-old soldier was employed by the Continental Motors Corp., Muskegon, Mich., until he entered the service, Jan. 19, 1943.

He received his training at Camp Robinson, Ark.; Ft. Meade, Md.; Camp McCoy, Wis., and in Virginia.

T. Sgt. John R. Welch, whose brother, Lt. Leo F. Welch Jr., is missing in action, has been wounded a second time in France, receiving the wounds Nov. 11. He previously was wounded in August and had received the purple heart.

Sgt. Welch is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo F. Welch Sr., 4310 Broadway. He is a graduate of Cathedral high school, attended the University of Notre Dame and formerly was employed by the Celtic Federal Savings & Loan association, of which his father is secretary.

Another brother, Cpl. Thomas Welch, is serving with the infantry in France.

First Lt. Richard A. Coleman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Coleman, Newtontown, was one of eight midwest Yanks recently decorated with the bronze star medal.

Lt. Coleman, an armored engineer in France, received the medal for rallying a company under enemy fire to which he had been sent as a replacement officer. He was wounded Sept. 29 and received the purple heart. He is returning to this country for further hospitalization.

T. Sgt. Robert A. O'Neal, radio operator-gunner of a 8th army air force B-17, has been awarded an oak leaf cluster to the air medal. The sergeant is the husband of Mrs. Thelma M. O'Neal, Moline, Ill., and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray B. O'Neal, 1019 S. Roena st.

Four Indianapolis men are members of the 12th air force group which has been cited by the President for a mission over Rome Ciampino and South Airdrome in preparation for the allied landings at Anzio. They are:

T. Sgt. Donald Whittinger, 1118 W. 29th st.; Pfc. Ralph E. Hornback, 850 Buchanan st.; Sgt. Paul C. Herring, R. 10, and 24 Lt. Frank N. Jelinik, R. 4, Box 623.

Pvt. Harold E. Riley, R. 2, 2, is an electrician with the 109th engineer combat battalion, which recently was commended by Lt. Gen. Mark W. Clark, 5th army commander.

Thirteen other Indiana men are serving with the honored battalion. They are:

Pfc. Gordon V. Cochran, Anderson; Cpl. Earl S. Allen, Attica; Cpl. Frank N. Hansen, Elkhart; Pfc. Jack Broe, Greentown; Cpl. John E. Horn, Jeffersonville; Cpl. Robert T. Christian, Lebanon; Sgt. George R. Tintus, New Albany; Pfc. Delmer L. McWhorter, New Castle; Sgt. George B. Allen, Oxford; Pfc. Noel Gastineau, Rensselaer; Pfc. Norville V. Chamberlain, South Bend, and Cpl. Meredith P. Helms, Warren.

S. Sgt. Robert L. Crump, son of Mrs. Thelma Crump, 1241 N. Euclid st., is a member of a signal corps unit which has received a commendation for its exceptionally fine performance of duty in providing communications for American personnel and the Chinese army in India during operations in northern Burma from August, 1943, to June, 1944.

Two more Indiana marines have been killed in action. They are:

Pfc. Edwin F. Burris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy M. Burris, Avilla, and Pfc. Joseph S. Jagla, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Jagla, South Bend.

The war department today confirmed the deaths of four Indianapolis men. They are:

Pfc. William E. Hall, son of Charles F. Hall, 6410 E. Washington st.; Pfc. Herbert R. Buck, son of Mrs. Alice A. Buck, 3312 E. 9th st.; Pfc. Clarence E. Pinnick, son of Mrs. Lawrence Pinnick, 1917 Union st.; and Pfc. Herbert J. Sanders, husband of Mrs. Mary T. Sanders, 1427 E. Raymond st.

The navy department today confirmed the report that Pfc. Robert W. Miller, son of Mrs. Eunice Miller, 2008 S. Meridian st., has been wounded.

Aviation Radioman 3-c Benjamin L. Kauffman Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin L. Kauffman Sr., R. 1, Box 633, McFarland rd., was killed Friday in a plane crash near Klamath Falls, Ore., the navy department has notified his parents.

He was serving on a torpedo bomber. The Indianapolis airman was home on a 30-day furlough in September, leaving Oct. 7 for San Diego, Cal. From there he was sent to an undisclosed destination.

Radioman Kauffman entered the navy Oct. 18, 1943, and received preliminary training at Great Lakes, Ill. He received his advanced training at Memphis, Tenn., and Miami, Fla.

A graduate of Southport high school, he is 19 and formerly was employed by the Coca-Cola Bottling Co. He was a member of the Shelby Street Methodist church.

Survivors, besides his parents, are two younger brothers, Carl and Paul Eugene, and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Fox, Indianapolis.

Second Lt. John W. Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Stewart, Carmel, was killed Saturday when his P-38 fighter plane crashed into a garage at Ontario, Cal., air field authorities have announced.

Lt. Stewart was 20 and entered the air forces in February, 1943. He was home on a leave in October, reporting back to California Nov. 8.

Aviation Radioman 3-c Benjamin L. Kauffman Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin L. Kauffman Sr., R. 1, Box 633, McFarland rd., was killed Friday in a plane crash near Klamath Falls, Ore., the navy department has notified his parents.

He was serving on a torpedo bomber. The Indianapolis airman was home on a 30-day furlough in September, leaving Oct. 7 for San Diego, Cal. From there he was sent to an undisclosed destination.

Radioman Kauffman entered the navy Oct. 18, 1943, and received preliminary training at Great Lakes, Ill. He received his advanced training at Memphis, Tenn., and Miami, Fla.

A graduate of Southport high school, he is 19 and formerly was employed by the Coca-Cola Bottling Co. He was a member of the Shelby Street Methodist church.

Survivors, besides his parents, are two younger brothers, Carl and Paul Eugene, and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Fox, Indianapolis.

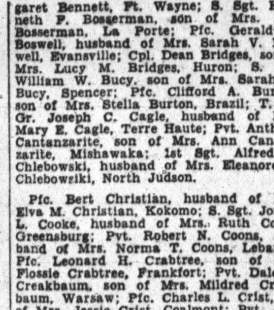

Second Lt. John W. Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Stewart, Carmel, was killed Saturday when his P-38 fighter plane crashed into a garage at Ontario, Cal., air field authorities have announced.

Lt. Stewart was 20 and entered the air forces in February, 1943. He was home on a leave in October, reporting back to California Nov. 8.

Aviation Radioman 3-c Benjamin L. Kauffman Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin L. Kauffman Sr., R. 1, Box 633, McFarland rd., was killed Friday in a plane crash near Klamath Falls, Ore., the navy department has notified his parents.

He was serving on a torpedo bomber. The Indianapolis airman was home on a 30-day furlough in September, leaving Oct. 7 for San Diego, Cal. From there he was sent to an undisclosed destination.

Radioman Kauffman entered the navy Oct. 18, 1943, and received preliminary training at Great Lakes, Ill. He received his advanced training at Memphis, Tenn., and Miami, Fla.

Sgt. Cloyd F. Sutton ... killed in Italy.

overseas with a communications unit of the infantry in May.

The 22-year-old soldier was employed by the Continental Motors Corp., Muskegon, Mich., until he entered the service, Jan. 19, 1943.

He received his training at Camp Robinson, Ark.; Ft. Meade, Md.; Camp McCoy, Wis., and in Virginia.

T. Sgt. John R. Welch, whose brother, Lt. Leo F. Welch Jr., is missing in action, has been wounded a second time in France, receiving the wounds Nov. 11. He previously was wounded in August and had received the purple heart.

Sgt. Welch is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo F. Welch Sr., 4310 Broadway. He is a graduate of Cathedral high school, attended the University of Notre Dame and formerly was employed by the Celtic Federal Savings & Loan association, of which his father is secretary.

Another brother, Cpl. Thomas Welch, is serving with the infantry in France.

First Lt. Richard A. Coleman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Coleman, Newtontown, was one of eight midwest Yanks recently decorated with the bronze star medal.

Lt. Coleman, an armored engineer in France, received the medal for rallying a company under enemy fire to which he had been sent as a replacement officer. He was wounded Sept. 29 and received the purple heart. He is returning to this country for further hospitalization.

T. Sgt. Robert A. O'Neal, radio operator-gunner of a 8th army air force B-17, has been awarded an oak leaf cluster to the air medal. The sergeant is the husband of Mrs. Thelma M. O'Neal, Moline, Ill., and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray B. O'Neal, 1019 S. Roena st.

Four Indianapolis men are members of the 12th air force group which has been cited by the President for a mission over Rome Ciampino and South Airdrome in preparation for the allied landings at Anzio. They are:

T. Sgt. Donald Whittinger, 1118 W. 29th st.; Pfc. Ralph E. Hornback, 850 Buchanan st.; Sgt. Paul C. Herring, R. 10, and 24 Lt. Frank N. Jelinik, R. 4, Box 623.

Pvt. Harold E. Riley, R. 2, 2, is an electrician with the 109th engineer combat battalion, which recently was commended by Lt. Gen. Mark W. Clark, 5th army commander.

Thirteen other Indiana men are serving with the honored battalion. They are:

Pfc. Gordon V. Cochran, Anderson; Cpl. Earl S. Allen, Attica; Cpl. Frank N. Hansen, Elkhart; Pfc. Jack Broe, Greentown; Cpl. John E. Horn, Jeffersonville; Cpl. Robert T. Christian, Lebanon; Sgt. George R. Tintus, New Albany; Pfc. Delmer L. McWhorter, New Castle; Sgt. George B. Allen, Oxford; Pfc. Noel Gastineau, Rensselaer; Pfc. Norville V. Chamberlain, South Bend, and Cpl. Meredith P. Helms, Warren.

S. Sgt. Robert L. Crump, son of Mrs. Thelma Crump, 1241 N. Euclid st., is a member of a signal corps unit which has received a commendation for its exceptionally fine performance of duty in providing communications for American personnel and the Chinese army in India during operations in northern Burma from August, 1943,