C. L. BIELER RITES SUNDAY

Former American Foundry Owner Retired 10 Years Ago.

Services for Charles L. Bieler, Marott hotel, who died Sunday in St. Vincent's hospital, will be held at 2:30 p. m. tomorrow at Flanner & Buchanan Mortuary. Private burial will follow.

Mr. Bieler at one time owned the American Foundry Co. and later managed the Indiana Dental college. He was a member of the German Lutheran church and the Columbia club and was 77. He retired 10 years ago because of ill health.

Survivors are his wife, Maria; one son, Louis H., Philadelphia, Pa.; two grandsons, Charles L. Bieler and Louis H. Bieler Jr., of Philadelphia, and a stepdaughter, Mrs. Charles A. Jones, Birmingham, Ala.

JESSE L. LAYTON

Rites for Jesse L. Layton, who died Sunday in his home, 1010 Collier st., were to be held at 2 p. m. today in the Conkle Funeral Home. Burial was to be at Floral Park.

A carpenter, he was born in Madison, where he was a member of the Disciples of Christ church. He lived in Indianapolis 30 years. He was 79.

Survivors include his wife, Mabel; two daughters, Mrs. Gladys Hildebrand and Mrs. Olive Gilchrist, and two sons, Carl C. and Norman D., all of Indianapolis.

Mrs. Effie Hendricks Dies 4 Days After Her Husband

Mrs. Effie M. Hendricks, whose husband, William E. Hendricks, was to have been buried this afternoon, died today in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Oia R. Graham, 1204 S. Emerson ave.

Mr. Hendricks, a retired road contractor, died Friday in his daughter's home. Yesterday, when his wife's condition grew worse, his funeral was postponed.

Double services will be conducted for the couple by the Rev. Roy Davis of the Southeastern Union church at 2 p. m. Thursday in the Moore & Kirk Irvington mortuary, 5342 E. Washington st., with burial in Washington Park cemetery.

Mrs. Hendricks, who observed her 74th birthday yesterday, had been ill for nine weeks, a week longer than her husband. Natives of Lawrence county, Bedford, they had been married 53 years and came to Indianapolis from Bedford to live with Mrs. Graham 13 years ago. They belonged to the Christian church in Bedford, and Mr. Hendricks, who was 72, was a member of the Modern Woodmen of America.

Although the two were in the same sick room, Mrs. Hendricks did not know of her husband's death. Survivors besides Mrs. Graham are a son, Dee R., and a grandson, Kenneth Graham, both of Indianapolis. Mrs. Hendricks also is survived by three brothers, John B.

RESUME FRENCH MAIL

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28 (U. P.).—Registered mail and special delivery service will be resumed between the United States and liberated France on Dec. 1, Postmaster General Frank C. Walker announced today.

REQUEST FOR LEGION BUILDING FUND SEEN

The general assembly probably will be asked to provide funds when it convenes in January for erection of three buildings on the Indiana World War Memorial plaza to house the expanding program of the American Legion.

This was disclosed yesterday by Legion officials who said the plaza trustees would consider the plan at a meeting Thursday.

While no estimate was given regarding cost of the new structures, it was recalled that the present Legion national headquarters building was built in 1924 at a cost of $460,000. Each of the new buildings will be built on a similar scale, it was said.

QUINTS' GRANDSIRE DIES

SUDBURY, Ont., Nov. 28 (U. P.).—The paternal grandfather of the Dionne quintuplets, Oliva Dionne Sr., 77, died yesterday after a year's illness.

Survivors are his wife, Blanche C.; a son, John III, Camp Hood, Tex.; a daughter, Mrs. Catherine Mulbarger, Indianapolis; a grandson, Albert E. Mulbarger, and three brothers and three sisters, Fred, Joseph and Harry Sechrist, and Mrs. Jennie Winkelman, Mrs. Nellie Hedrick and Mrs. Blanche Warner, all of Indianapolis.

MRS. ANNA C. COOPER

Dr. F. S. C. Wicks, pastor-emeritus, and Dr. E. Burdette Backus, pastor of the All Souls Unitarian church, will conduct rites for Mrs. Anna C. Cooper, 2143 Broadway, who died yesterday, at 2 p. m. tomorrow in the Kreglio & Bailey funeral home, 2233 N. Meridian st. Burial will be in Crown Hill.

Member of a pioneer family here, she was born June 2, 1872. Her husband, W. K. Cooper, is her only immediate survivor.

HALL-NEAL
FURNACE VICTOR COMPANY
1324 N. CAPITOL LINCOLN 4576

WE ARE still old-fashioned in zealously guarding the quality of our service. For 54 years we have built our business on the cardinal principle that a job well done is our best advertising. Many of our Victor service men, who so efficiently repaired and serviced your heating equipment, are now serving our country on the fighting fronts. We wish we could have taken care of every service call this year as promptly as we have in the past. We have been short-handed. There are not enough experienced service men available... and, for your protection we never hire untanned men. With Victory... with the return of our fighting men... we can again swell our personnel of factory-trained experts to handle all jobs with our traditional high standard of service. We do thank you for your understanding and patience.
