GLENDORA, Cal., Jan. 1—(U.P.)—A three-star service flag hangs in the window at the home of George T. Bettin, infantry lieutenant in World War I, and the neighbors think maybe it should have a lace border.

Bettin didn't have any sons to give to the service, but his three daughters are filling the gap.

Bettin is a lieutenant in the Marines. Peggy is a member of the cadre nurse corps, and Helen Louise is in the WAVES.
