

DUKE OF GLOUCESTER ARRIVES AT SYDNEY

SYDNEY, Australia, Jan. 29 (U. P.).—The Duke of Gloucester, new governor general of Australia, arrived yesterday to assume his post, to which he was appointed in November, 1943, and will proceed today to Canberra, the capital.

The duke, King George's second brother, was accompanied by the duchess and their two children, Prince William, 3, and Prince Richard, 5 months.

A national holiday was declared today in honor of the duke's arrival, long delayed by the war.

VARIETY SLATED AT ICE-O-RAMA

Will Share Spotlight
With Coronation.

Included among the features on the "Ice-O-Rama" program at 7 p. m. tomorrow in the Coliseum will be two exhibitions by members of local figure skating clubs and a military drill by 32 girls on skates.

Appearing in the exhibition numbers will be Mrs. Mildred Gould, Rex Cook and Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Hunter of the Indianapolis Figure Skating club, and Mrs. Mary McClean, Bus Reedy, Mrs. Elizabeth Todd and Wayne Hackleman of the Winter club.

Ann Bond will lead the girls' drill team and Betsy Todd will entertain with a novelty number.

To Crown Monarchs

The program will be completed by an hour of band music, coronation ceremonies for the king and queen, a Mardi Gras parade, final events of the speed-skating championships for the George J. Marott trophies, a hockey clinic and a brief hockey exhibition by members of the local American league professional team.

The following bands will participate: Technical high school, Fred-eric A. Barker, director; Crispus Attucks high school, Russell W. Brown, director; Indianapolis Boy Scouts, Roger Riley, commissioner of Music; Howe high school, Robert H. Burford, director; and Cathedral high school, Brother Paul, C. S. C., director.

WHALE FLOATS ASHORE.
NORTH HAMPTON, N. H., Jan. 29 (U. P.).—A five-ton whale floated ashore here with a fatal wound in its side. Shore residents believed it had been killed by a depth-bomb.

Hoover Gets New War Finance Post

CHARLES E. HOOVER today was appointed state field director of the Indiana war finance committee, Eugene C. Pulliam, state chairman, has announced.

Formerly executive manager of the payroll savings division, Mr. Hoover will continue to direct this phase of the work under Eber M. Spence, state chairman of the division.

Mr. Hoover's appointment was made as part of a general plan to co-ordinate all phases of war bond sales work in the state.

He formerly was publisher, editor and advertising director for newspapers in Wabash, Lagro, Michigan City and Rochester.

Mr. Hoover

HITLER IS LEAVING QUISLING TO DOOM

LONDON, Jan. 29 (U. P.).—Adolf Hitler was believed today to have informed Vidkun Quisling, puppet premier of Norway, that Germany must abandon Norway and its Nazi rulers to their fate—almost certain death.

An official German DNB agency dispatch from the fuhrer's headquarters said Hitler and Quisling had concluded a "cordial talk" in which "full and sincere agreement was achieved concerning all problems of common interest to Germany and Norway."

The "agreement," informed London circles asserted, was on the necessity for the withdrawal of German forces from Norway to bolster the faltering Wehrmacht for a desperate attempt to stall the onrushing Red army and the impending allied offensive in the west.

There also appeared little doubt that Quisling had expected bad news when he received the summons to Hitler's headquarters, and had hoped only to retain enough German troops to prevent a spontaneous uprising or one incited by allied parachutists in which his own life would be forfeited.

SHOCK BRINGS DEATH TO VETERAN EDITOR

NEW YORK, Jan. 29 (U. P.).—Carr V. Van Anda, 80, former managing editor of the New York Times, died in his Park avenue apartment late last night one hour after learning of the death of Blanche Van Anda, his only daughter, at her New York hotel residence. He had been in poor health for some time.

Hailed by his newspaper and its publisher as a master news man and "a tower of strength" to the organization he served as managing editor for 21 years, Van Anda was one of the great New York editors.

Mr. Anda earned a reputation for presenting major news with speed and thoroughness. He sent one edition of the Times to press with 14 pages of news and feature material on the sinking of the Titanic when an opposition paper was out with a one-paragraph story saying the Titanic was unsinkable.

GAMBLING CRUSADER IS SLAIN IN BUFFALO

BUFFALO, Jan. 29 (U. P.).—Scores of persons suspected of connection with Buffalo's underworld were questioned today by police seeking the slayer of Edward C. Pospischal, 32, self-styled "lone wolf" crusader against gambling, whose bullet-ridden, frozen body was discovered yesterday near the waterfront.

More than 100 policemen were assigned to the investigation as Detective Chief Thomas V. Meegan declared there was "no doubt in my mind that Pospischal was killed because of his crusading activities" which two months ago led to indictments on gambling charges against 11 persons, including a police captain.

Medical Examiner Harold J. Welch said his preliminary examination of the body indicated Pospischal had been beaten about the face and then shot five times.

TRUMAN SPEEDS TO PENDERGAST RITES

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 29 (U. P.).—Vice President Harry S. Truman landed at the Kansas City municipal airport at 9:50 o'clock this morning, hurried to a waiting car and raced behind the screaming sirens of a police escort to attend funeral services of Thomas J. Pendergast.

The services for the one-time political leader who sent Truman to the U. S. senate in 1934 started 10 minutes later at the Visitation Catholic church, across the city from the airport.

Truman flew to Kansas City in an airplane. He expected to fly back to the east, leaving shortly after the services, and stop for a speech tonight in Philadelphia.

TAX DEADLINE SET; OFFICE STAYS OPEN

The Indiana gross income tax division, 141 S. Meridian st., will be open until 8 p. m. today, Gilbert K. Hewitt, division director, announced today.

Deadline for payment of 1944 gross income taxes is Wednesday, after which date taxes are considered delinquent and are subject to penalties of 10 to 50 per cent in addition to interest at 1 per cent per month.
