PAN-AMERICAN EXPERT BOOKED

Correspondent Allen Haden On Town Hall Program Here Tomorrow.

Allen Haden, South American correspondent for the Chicago Daily News, will speak on "The United States and Its American Neighbors" at 11 a. m. tomorrow in the Town Hall series at English's.

Mr. Haden, born in Kiangyin, China, of missionary parents, has lived in several foreign countries. At the time of world war I he lived with his family in Switzerland. After the death of his father he and his mother went to France, where he first learned English from the American expeditionary forces.

He went to school in Spain three years and then went back to Switzerland. His education was completed in the United States.

Mr. Haden

In Foreign Service
He took examinations for foreign service and held posts in Genoa, Italy; Madrid, Singapore and Buenos Aires. He was made secretary of the American delegation to the Chaco peace conference during his work at Buenos Aires.

Resigning from the government service in 1940 to organize the Diplomatic News Service, Mr. Haden covered the Havana consultative conference of American foreign ministers for El Mundo, a Buenos Aires newspaper. Since 1940 he has been Latin American correspondent for the Chicago Daily News.

Alvin E. Orton, head of the Associated Press here, will introduce Mr. Haden tomorrow and will preside at the luncheon following the lecture in the Columbia club.

Finance, Judge Dan V. White, Judge Ralph Hamill, Don E. Warrick, Duke E. Hanna and John T. Linegar; reception, George A. Newton, William A. Hart, Wm. H. Wolfard, Homer Lewis, Glenn W. Funk, B. F. Frouser and Edward J. Becker; refreshments, Joseph Gudone, Homer G. Meek, H. H. Rinehart, Paul Schneider and George K. Vostal.

House committee, Arthur G. Renick, John T. Pope and Sam Campbell; legislative, Bernard L. Curry, Merrill J. Woods, Judge White, Harvey B. Hartsock, Mr. Warrick and Mr. Oglesby.

Club officers besides Mr. Oglesby are Mr. Campbell, first vice president; Mr. Kettelhut, second vice president; Mr. Rawlings, secretary, and Mr. Linegar, treasurer.

6 BOYS FLEE FROM DETENTION HOME

Six Indianapolis boys ran away from the juvenile detention home, 25th st. and Keystone ave., yesterday afternoon while they were shoveling snow from walks around the home.

The youths, whose ages range from 14 to 17, live in the southwest section of the city. Two of them had been sentenced to the boys' school in Plainfield on charges of burglary and larceny.
