

INDIANA CALM— SO IS CAPEHART

Senator Tells Press Crimean Conference Didn't Create Much of a Stir.

Times Special
WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—Senator Homer E. Capehart, one of the six freshman Republicans who signed the pledge of 16 new members to back formation of a united nations organization to preserve world peace, was back home in Indiana last week when the Yalta conference report came in.

Returning here he reported that this big news was received with great calm in the midlands.

"What did the home folks have to say about the Crimean conference?" a reporter asked.

"Why, I never heard it mentioned," Senator Capehart replied. Then, noting the astonishment here who have heard scarcely anything else discussed for a week, he added:

"You see the folks out there expected just what happened."

"No Time to Bother"

Besides, the legislature is meeting in Indianapolis and the Republican state committee is reorganized. So these closer-to-home factors kept the minds of the Hoosiers so busy that they didn't plicated by his age.

Make Attempt to Salvage City Personnel Director Bill

Possibility of salvaging the city's personnel director bill by removing its political "hooks" was to be discussed today by the house committee on Indianapolis affairs.

Some members of the Marion county delegation are making a last-minute attempt to avert a complete "wash-out" of city council's administration "reform" program which took a year and more than $10,000 to compile.

Out-state representatives are generally opposed to the personnel bill in its present form because they be-

DEAD FLIERS' KIN RECEIVE AWARDS

Families of three Indianapolis airmen who were killed in action received decorations awarded posthumously to the men at ceremonies held at Stout field last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard T. Quinn, 738 Elm st., received the distinguished flying cross, and the air medal with two oak leaf clusters, awarded to their son, Capt. Quentin T. Quinn. Capt. Quinn completed 30 operational sorties and 50 fighter combat missions over enemy Europe before his death.

"Back in Indiana..."

"That is where I stood then and where I stand now. But back in Indiana we don't go around talking about it all the time."

Expressing approval of the selection of his short-term predecessor, former Senator William E. Jenner, as the new chairman of the Indiana Republican state committee, Senator Capehart said he saw in it no effort to keep his senior colleague, Senator Willis, from seeking renomination on the G. O. P. ticket next year as had been reported here.

LLOYD GEORGE ILL

LONDON, Feb. 20 (U. P.)—David Lloyd George, 82-year-old British statesman and world war I prime minister, was reported in serious condition at his home in Wales tonight after a week-long illness complicated by his age.
