Where DID Barnaby go? He's not in that office. I peeked in—

Yes... We've appraised your plant and analyzed the market. You'll probably make millions. But Mr. Barnaby isn't quite impressed enough to endorse that $10,000 loan. I'm sorry—

That's Mr. Boggis on the phone. A junior partner—

Mr. Barnaby must be a cautious man.

Dormant & Company is an exclusively conservative firm, Ellen.

Glad to be of service, Mr. O'Malley. But it's a hundred million ENOUGH?

It's just to tide me over, Mr. Dormant—

JANE JORDAN

Put your problems in a letter to Jane Jordan, who will answer your questions in this column daily.

DEAR JANE JORDAN—I married a 16-year-old girl six months ago. She is the beautiful, luring type who entrances all men. She always was popular with the boys and I felt lucky when she consented to marry me as she had refused a number of others. When I come home from work she is never at home and will not tell me where she has gone. Once I found her with a sailor. She admitted that she had been going with him and other men because she couldn't stand being alone. I cannot speak harshly to her because I love her so much. I love her so much she is just like a child and doesn't know what she wants. Now she tells me that she wants a divorce because she has almost promised to marry a soldier. She says she loves him and me both. She always is flirting with Jane Jordan—

With other men while with me. She is spoiled and has always had what she wants. Her mother is the same way and her father has been dead for some time. She has not always been such a "good" girl but I am madly in love with her and don't want to give her the divorce. I am 24 years old. What should I do?

CANNED GOODS—Blue stamps X5 through Z5 and A2 and B2 good through March 31; C2 through G2 good through April 28; H2 through M2 are good through June 2. N2 through S2 are valid through June 30.

A DESPERATE MAN.

Answer—Why don't you face the fact that you have married a light-weight, a pretty creature with no character, a girl who is too young to be married in the first place? Like Narcissus she fell in love with her own image years ago and has nothing left to bestow on you, the soldier or any other man who wants a wife instead of an animated toy. Well, you don't have to give her a divorce now, but in time I imagine you'll be glad to. Your tactics with her are very weak. Why don't you lay down the law and spank the girl if she won't behave? Why do
