By Eddie Ash

Look who is boasting. . . The Louisville Colonels evidently tapped the Promised Land for baseball timber and have so many players crowding the Parkway field training camp premises that Manager Harry Leibold faces utter confusion in trying to skim the cream off the huge squad.

He is loaded up with 14 pitchers, seven infielders, eight outfielders and six catchers. . . Six of the fly chasers bat left-handed and two right. . . The southpaw swingers are Chick Genovese, Como Cotte, Bill Howerton, Lindsay Deal, Hank Novak and Art Parks, a service dischargee and a Colonel regular before the war. . . The right-handers are Vic Males and Alex Korponay.

The Louisville catchers are George Savino, Gerald Lipscomb, Jack Atkinson, Roy Holt, Buddy Kern and Dave Bealer. . . For pitchers, Skipper Leibold has a young arm to look over and comb out. . . Listed are Al Widmar, Dwight Simmonds, Randy Hefflin, Dick Callahan, Ray Patton, George Diehl, Dave Ferris, Fred Chumley, Jim McDonald, Don McDonald, Ed Hopke, Jake Lawson, Tony Mistano and Mary Samuel. . . But one, Samuel, is unsigned.

Colonels Strong at First and Short

ON the infield the Colonels have two standouts in Earle Browne at first base and Frank Shofner at short stop, both regulars from last year. . . The former batted .312 and the latter .317. . . Trying out for the other positions on the innerworks are Chuck Koney, Byron LaForest, Bob Rossel, Eddie Zipay and Bob Sperry. . . Males, an outfielder, also has had experience at second base.

IT ALL adds up to 35 players in the Louisville squad. . . The Colonels finished third last year, defeated the Milwaukee pennant winners in the first round playoff, four games to two, and then bumped off St. Paul in the finals, four games to none, after the Saints eliminated Toledo, four games to three in the semi-finals. In the 1944 title world series, Baltimore defeated Louisville, four games to two. . . And now Derbytown baseball addicts believe the Colonels have the 1945 A. A. pennant in the bag, with or without mint juleps.

Night Ball Right Off the Bat in A. A.

THE Indianapolis Indians open the American association campaign on the road, playing at Columbus, Wednesday, April 18, in a night game. . . The Tribesters' home opener also will be a moonlight affair, Wednesday, April 25, and again against Columbus.

The Red Birds were tough for the Indians to beat last year but are unlikely to be as formidable this season. . . The military draft and the St. Louis Cardinals, parent club, rattled the A. A. Birds since the 1944 baseball curtain dropped.

ALL of the Chicago Cubs' week-day games at Wrigley field this year will start at 1:30 p. m. . . Previously the Cubs' week-day games have started at 3 p. m., except on Saturdays and Sundays, when the time has been 2 o'clock. . . The 1:30 starting time will be for both single games and double-headers. . . The Cubs do not play night games at home as their park is not equipped for after-dark pastime.

They were Pitchers Clyde Shoun of Cincinnati and Johnny Gorsica of Detroit, Third Baseman Pinky Higgins of Detroit and Outfielder Max Marshall of Cincinnati.

The transfer is in line with the navy's new policy of breaking up all-star teams in the United States and sending players overseas to provide entertainment for servicemen.

Pirates Win In Exhibition At Fort, 16-0

By BOB STRANAHAN

Truett (Rip) Sewell, master of the "bloop ball," gave up only six hits in six innings yesterday as the Pittsburgh Pirates won an exhibition game at Ft. Harrison, 16-0. The game was called after seven frames.

Two of the Fort hits came off the stick of Cpl. John Steele, outfielder. The Bucs, stamped as one of the favorites in the National League pennant chase this year, banded out 12 blows off three Fort pitchers and took advantage of seven misuses. Three costly errors came when outfielders lost drives in the sun.

Pittsburgh chased over six runs in the first inning against the jittery soldiers and coasted in after that.

Frankie Gustine crashed a long triple to left in the fifth which drove in two tallies.

Coach Virgil (Spud) Davis, acting manager in the absence of the ailing Frankie Frisch, said that the club had enjoyed unusually fine training weather at Muncie except for the last few days and was in "pretty good shape" to start the season. Score by innings:

Pittsburgh 6 13 10 16 12 6
Ft. Harrison 0 0 0 0 0 0

Sewell, Strinevich (7) and Lopez, Sealed (6); Seay, Link (4) Couchman (3) and Seay.

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo.—Spring training for the St. Louis Browns in this southeast Missouri town was just a muddy mess.

The American League champions packed up early to head for St. Louis where they meet the world champion Cardinals today in the opener of the spring "world series." They closed their training yesterday with a 7-to-6 victory over the Toledo farm club.

TERRE HAUTE—Two left-handers, veteran Thornton Lee, and rookie Johnny Johnson, were slated to pitch today for the Chicago White Sox in their second exhibition contest against the Detroit Tigers. The White Sox won the first game, 8-10-0.

LAFAYETTE—The hitting of Cleveland rookie Bob Rothel, seeking to get the third base job this season, was the talk of the training camp today. Rothel hit a triple and two singles to pace his side to a 6-to-2 victory yesterday in a camp game.

FT. KNOX, Ky.—Dick Sipek, 22-year-old deaf mute outfielder, enhanced his prospects for a berth as a regular for the Cincinnati Reds today because of his timely homer which produced a 5-to-4 victory over the Chicago Cubs. Playing before 7000 soldiers fans yesterday, Sipek hit the homer in the last half of the ninth to break up the game and even the series with the Cubs at a game apiece.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.—George (Tuck) Stainback, 32-year-old New York Yankee outfielder, revealed today he had been ordered to report to his Chicago draft board for pre-induction physical on April 17. The Yankees dropped a 13-to-7 game to the Boston Red Sox yesterday that ended their series at three games.

With their 1030, 890, 1062-3082, in the Fox-Hunt matches.

The first spring game to get under way was the Moon-Lite mixed 1000, which was scheduled last night.

Opponents were the out-of-control opponents with 236, 181, 191-608.

Bert Garland led the men with 582. Bert Northern failed to connect for a 600-series in any of her regular season appearances.

The Kernel Optical Ladies' league, which wound up its season last week, staged a head-pin tournament at Pritchett's. Mickey Rotert was winner with 318; Judy Hindle was second with 311 and Pauline Richey followed with 310. A field of 26 participated.

A doubles match that should bring out some real scoring is on the menu tomorrow at Pritchett's. Ted Wesco, popular second floor manager at the akeys, will team with Gertrude Bradley in a five-game clash with Bill Bilsky and Judy Hindle at 5 p. m. A second block will be rolled at West side the following Sunday.

Cubs' Doctor Dies
CHICAGO, April 7 (U. P.).—Dr. John F. Davis, physician for the Chicago Cubs for more than 25 years, died yesterday of a heart attack. He was 69.

Bulldog Nine Launches Schedule With 26-1 Victory Over Anderson

Coach Frank (Pop) Hedden's Bulldog Nine steamrollered to victory over a hapless visiting Anderson baseball club, 26-1, in a seven-inning contest yesterday.

Catcher Jim Yike paced the Bulldog attack with four safeties. The Butler avalanche started with a four-run barrage that gained momentum and reached its peak in the fourth when the hosts pounded 13 runs across.

Anderson's lone tally came in the sixth frame when the Ravens scored on Relief Pitcher Pat Hogan's wildness that permitted a trio of batters to reach base as a result of three consecutive men being hit by pitched balls. Score:

Anderson 0 0 1 0 1 2 7
Bulldog 13 10 0 0 0 0 0

Bulldog: Anger and Land; Cook, Hogan and Yike.

Redskin Roundup on Here Tomorrow When Indians Oppose Indians at Victory Field

Gil English, Indianapolis Veteran

The curtain goes up on league exhibition baseball in Indianapolis tomorrow afternoon when the Indianapolis Indians and the Cleveland Indians square off at Victory field at 2:30 in the first of a three-game series. Second of the series is to be played Monday afternoon and the third on Wednesday, with Tuesday open.

The Hoosier Indians will be fresh up from their Hoosier spring training camp at Bloomington and the American leaguers will be fresh down from their camp at Lafayette.

The Hoosiers' hot house at Bloomington was the Indiana university fieldhouse and at Lafayette the Clevelanders got a lot of out-of-drilling in the Purdue university fieldhouse. But there will be no Old Oaken Bucket at stake.

Manager Lou Boudreau of Cleveland has assembled a fairly strong squad and the Indianapolis Indians are growing in quantity day by day as absentees take off the wraps and report for duty. Cleveland's leading spring slugger is Pat Seery, outfielder.

Four to Report
Four local Indians are scheduled to report in Indianapolis this weekend, namely Outfielder Ed Morgan and Pitchers Stanley Klopff, Glen Fletcher and Dave Odom. Joining the Cleveland club here will be Outfielder Jeff Heath, who did not show up for the team's Lafayette training period.

Indianapolis fans always enjoy watching major league clubs perform and if the weather is right tomorrow it's a safe guess that a large crowd will be on hand to watch Boudreau's pastimes and also size up the new players that new Manager Bill Burwell of the Hoosiers has under his wing.

Logan Slated to Pitch
Bob Logan, the Indianapolis club's veteran and mainstay southpaw, is slated to open on the mound against Cleveland. Steve Gromek, one of Cleveland's aces, is scheduled to open for the major leaguers and work five innings. He is tagged to pitch Cleveland's opening regular season game against the Chicago White Sox at Cleveland, April 17. Manager Boudreau's other hurling aces are Jim Bagby and Alie Reynolds.

Exclusive of pitchers, only 1944 regulars who worked out at the Hoosiers' camp were Gil English, outfielder; Kerby Farrell, first baseman; and Russ Lyon, catcher. Most promising of Burwell's new players are Norm Wallen, third sacker; Tom Davis, outfielder, and the veteran George Detore, catcher.

Gastineau Third In A. A. U. Event
NEW YORK, April 7 (U. P.).—The Bainbridge (Md.) naval training team, swimming on "borrowed time," was favored today to win the national Amateur Athletic Union aquatic championship before disbarring its great squad because of new official regulations.

The swimming sailors took a 10-point lead over the Ohio State Buckeyes in the first night of finals competition last night, amassing a total of 25 points in the five events.

The late decision to compete on the part of the naval team probably cost Gastineau of Indianapolis a title in the 300-yard riveria club race finished behind two Bainbridge stars in the medley.

Ens. Adolph Kiefer won the 300 in 3:30.4, while Joe Verdeur of the Bainbridge team was second. Then came Gastineau, the first civilian finisher.

Byrd Takes Second Spot Behind Nelson
ATLANTA, Ga., April 7 (U. P.).—Sammy Byrd, who traded in his baseball bat for a bag of golf clubs, moved into runner-up position today in the $10,000 Iron lung tournament by Byron Nelson, the winter champion, still was the man to beat.

Nelson's two-day 36-hole total was 133, five strokes under par and six strokes less than Byrd's second place total of 139. The Toledo sharpshooter had an even par 69 yesterday to go with his 64 of the opening day. He is trying for his eighth victory of the season.

Retired Trainer Dies at Lexington
LEXINGTON, Ky., April 7 (U. P.).—"Doting" trainer today mourned the death of Richard McMahon, retired trainer, who was a colorful figure for many years in Grand Circuit racing. He died yesterday after an illness of more than a year. He was 78 years old.

In 1931 McMahon won the Hambletonian stake at Goshen, N. Y., with Calumet Butler.

AMATEUR NOTES
The Winkler Brothers of Lebanon again will field a baseball team and are booking Sunday home games and weeknight games away from home. Rudy Heath is managing the club and games are booked through James M. Darnell, U. S. Machine Corp., Lebanon. An opponent is wanted for the opener April 29.

The newly organized Bee Hive Tavern softball team will practice tomorrow at 7:30 p. m. at Garfield park. Tryouts are being held at Ernest Young, MA-6939, or Luther Worley, PE-0666.

Leonard Clemons, member of the Municipal league, will hold their first workout tomorrow at Riverside No. 2 at 2:30 p. m.

Wings Lose To Leafs, 1-0

DETROIT, April 7 (U. P.).—Dave (Sweeney) Schriner, one of hockey's most capable veterans and Frankie (Finn) McCool, the sport's top rookie, sent the Toronto Maple Leafs out in front today with an important first victory in the Stanley cup hockey play-offs with the Detroit Wings. Attendance was 13,000.

Toronto's 1-to-0 triumph, more significant because it came on Detroit's ice, was brought about by Schriner's unassisted goal in the first period and McCool's brilliant goal-tending from start to finish.

He made 24 saves, some of them coming at almost impossible angles, to gain his first Stanley cup series shut-out and his fifth of the season.

Both teams played a cautious waiting game, resorting to defensive tactics instead of the usual wide-open style of play that has characterized most of their meetings this year. They waited for the breaks and Toronto got the one that spelled victory 14 minutes after the start. Schriner caught the Detroit defense out of position and although Hal Jackson hung on to him all the way toward the net, he plummeted the puck past Goalie Harry Lumley.

The teams play here again Sunday night.

Date for Links Tourney Changed
SPOKANE, Wash., April 7 (U. P.).—The $19,600 national women's open tournament will be held the week of Aug. 6, a week earlier than had been announced previously.

The switch in dates was made necessary because of a conflict with the dates of the women's amateur championships to be played at Chicago.
