

Ask Prayers For Nations

Christians and Jews to Join In Conference Vigil.

By EMMA RIVERS MILNER
Times Church Editor

Indianapolis laymen and ministers of various faiths will ask divine guidance for the United Nations conference which opens Wednesday in San Francisco.

Christians and Jews will meet for prayer, without a sermon, tomorrow from 3:30 to 4 p. m. in the World War Memorial building. Pastors will dedicate Sunday morning worship to the success of the conference deliberations. And Protestants of all denominations will keep a prayer vigil Tuesday through Friday in the Second Presbyterian church.

The Most Rev. Joseph E. Ritter, archbishop of Indianapolis, has designated tomorrow a day of prayer and given permission for the Blessed Sacrament to be exposed for adoration for the entire day or part of it.

Says Now Is the Time

Public devotion for the conference will be held in all churches and chapels of the archdiocese. Archbishop Ritter said of the coming conference:

"This is a matter of tremendous importance for the future peace of the world. As Catholics, we owe it to our country and to the Holy Father, as well as to ourselves, to extend every effort to bring about a lasting peace in the world. However, now is the time to do this while plans are being formulated and decided upon; later on it will be too late."

Dr. Howard J. Baumgartel, executive secretary of the Indianapolis Church federation, will open the meeting of prayer in the War Memorial building. Rabbi Israel Chodos, spiritual director of the Temple Beth-El Zedek, will participate in the service as will the Rev. Almon Coble, chairman of the committee on international justice and goodwill of the church federation.

21 Leaders to Assist

The vigil of prayer in the Second Presbyterian church will be in session from 10 a. m. until 5 p. m. Tuesday through Thursday and from 10 a. m. to 1 p. m. Friday. During the week, leaders from 21 different churches will assist.

For more than two years, Indianapolis churches have been conducting study classes and presenting lectures on "The Churches and a Just and Durable Peace." Their efforts to plan for peace came to a climax last week in seminars led by Dr. Harold E. Fey of Chicago. Then they formulated their ideas on peace and voted to ask God's direction of the United Nations conference.

World Security Body

"The iron is hot," says Dr. Robert M. Hopkins, president of the UNITED CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY, speaking of the coming conference. "The way is now open to establish the worldwide security body, united nations, if you please, that may do for the world what the United States has so admirably done in the maintenance of peace and security on the North American continent."

"Let us therefore, accept the Dumbarton Oaks proposals for just what they are—the beginnings of the new world order for which the whole world longs. Let us magnify these strong points and commend them for what they actually propose to achieve."

"Then in the years ahead, beginning at San Francisco, Wednesday, let us patiently and constructively work for the achievement of that which ultimately should be likened to the kingdom of God proclaimed by our Lord, himself."

"The iron is hot—now is the time to strike."

CADLE CHOIR TO SING TOMORROW

Prof. Floyd Jones will direct the cadet choir in the first monthly program of the season tomorrow at 3 p. m. in the Cadle tabernacle.

Derrick Aliwyn, boy soprano, will give solos and the Kings Ambassadors, a male quartet, will sing. Among the compositions selected for tomorrow are "The Lord's Prayer" by Melotti and "The Hallelujah Chorus" from Handel's "The Messiah." The concert will present a different artist each month and no admission will be charged.

TOLEDO MINISTER TO PREACH HERE

The Rev. Arthur W. Olsen, minister of the First Unitarian church, Toledo, O., will preach at 11 a. m. tomorrow in All Souls Unitarian church. At the same time, Dr. E. Burdette Backus, minister of All Souls, will occupy the Rev. Mr. Olsen's Toledo pulpit.

The Rev. Mr. Olsen will speak on "If I Were a Christian," in the church and on "Daring to Call Your Soul Your Own," at 10 a. m. over station WIRE.

Woman, 92, Elected Church Official

Mrs. Harriett J. Hearne (seated, left), who is 92, is the newly elected vice president of the mission circle of the Garden Baptist church. Other officers are Mrs. O. C. Burnett (also seated), Miss Myrtle Peak (standing, left) and Mrs. Ruby Hooper.

MRS. HARRIETT J. HEARNE, the recently elected vice president of the mission circle of the Garden Baptist church, is the oldest member of the congregation. She is 92.

Mrs. Hearne understands well the present state of mind of the American people. For she remembers the day of victory when the Civil war ended as well as the armistice of 1918. Just three years after the close of the Civil war, she was teaching a Sunday school class in the Garden church.

That same year, she joined the W. C. T. U. at a meeting addressed by Frances Willard, founder of the temperance union.

City's Churches Will Hear Peace Conference Sermons

The Olive Branch Christian church will present the Rev. Joseph B. Hunter, national director of peace and international relations for the Disciples of Christ, at the youth meeting tomorrow night.

In the morning, the church will give special emphasis and recognition to the United Nations conference beginning Wednesday in San Francisco. The Rev. Benton B. Miller, pastor, will speak on "Christ's Call to the Highest." The service is one of many scheduled by churches and synagogues.

Sermon Understanding

The Rev. Herbert Huffman, pastor of the "Friends church, will preach at 10:45 a. m. on "Dumbarton Oaks and the Christian Hope."

The Rev. I. D. Leatherman will speak tomorrow morning at the Church of the Brethren on the matter of understanding between the nations.

"The Message of the Church to the United Nations Conference" will be discussed in an address by Dr. S. Grundy Fisher at 10:35 a. m. tomorrow at the UNIVERSITY PARK CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

At CHRIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH on the circle, the Rev. E. Almer Powell, rector, will preach on "Planning Wisely for the Peace," and offer intercessions for the peace conference at 10:45 a. m. The men and boys' choir will sing.

Prayers for Conference

Rabbi Samuel A. Katz and Cantor Abraham Portnoy will officiate at a special convocation called by the SHARAH TEFILLA CONGREGATION for tomorrow at 3:30 p. m. There will be prayers for the San Francisco conference and for the President and the administration.

At the IMMANUEL EVANGELICAL AND REFORMED CHURCH, the Rev. C. E. Sittler will ask the congregation to give thanks for the opportunity to make a new beginning for a world community, to confess that we have all been guilty, and to pray for the conference.

Prayers for peace will be offered tomorrow from 9:30 to 10 a. m. at the temple of the INDIANAPOLIS HEBREW CONGREGATION as part of the regular daily forenoon service. Rabbis Morris M. Foner and Maurice Goldblatt will be in charge.

The Rev. C. G. Brooks will give the sermon and lead the prayers tomorrow morning at the THIRD CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

Revival Services Planned Nightly

Howard Hutto and Robert McKeithan, youth evangelists and musicians of Louisiana, will conduct revival services daily at 8 p. m., except Monday, next week in the South Side temple of the Apostolic faith. The Rev. Ola Crail is pastor.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH GETS NEW PASTOR

The Rev. G. Lavon Fisher of Noblesville will assume the pastorate of the Centenary Christian church June 1.

The Rev. Mr. Fisher has been minister of the Noblesville First Christian church for the last six years. He is a Butler university graduate and has done work at the Butler School of Religion. He succeeds the late Rev. Russell Gayton.
