49 WATER CO. AIDS HONORED

Indianapolis Workers Get Dr. Hurty Awards.

Forty-nine veteran employees of the Indianapolis Water Co. were among state workers honored at the district meeting of the Indiana section of the American Water Works Association in Anderson yesterday.

The Indianapolis workers received the John N. Hurty service awards, inaugurated this year by the state board of health in honor of the late Dr. John N. Hurty.

Pioneer crusader and public health worker, Dr. Hurty won international recognition for his contribution to sanitation progress. The awards will be given annually to workers employed 25 or more years in the water works industry.

Fifty-five Years

T. C. Mauch, pumping superintendent for the Indianapolis utility for 38 years, received the awards presented to Indianapolis workers.

A record of 55 years of service, the longest in the state, won the award for Bailey Yowiee, purification department. Also past the half-century mark in service is Melvin Johnson, general foreman of the distribution system maintenance, who has worked 51 years.

Four employees with records of 40 or more years were Miss Blanche Tullis, secretary to the manager, 44 years; Andrew Bell, pipe fitter, 44 years; Ernest Summers, yard man, 43 years, and Benjamin Humphrey, laboratory assistant, 40 years.

Other Service Records

Other recipients and their service records were H. F. Wanamaker and Norman Johnson, 39; Mr. Mauch, 38; George Rus, Alva Payne and J. A. Workman, 37; Edward Clemons, 35; J. T. Turner, Eugene Marshall and E. G. McCreery, 34; J. H. Coleman and G. C. Staley, 33; Albert Jones, Nathan Foreman, Harvey Harrison, R. K. Bowers and Isaac Campbell, 32; E. C. Schwier, C. D. Doane and Harry F. Hobart, 31; H. C. Boffis and James Flippins, 30.

H. H. Fagin, 29; J. W. Comfort, B. F. Patterson, G. W. Barker and F. G. Armstrong, 28; J. B. Campbell, E. R. Austin and Thomas Cummings, 27; Palo Stone, C. F. Lyles, J. W. Dunn and H. W. Pendergast, 26; O. C. Blue, G. T. Leedle, G. T. Berry, E. C. Smith, A. G. Guion, M. M. Blair, Lee Birl, Hezekiah Ludy and F. L. Ewing, 25.

SCOUTS STUDY ASTRONOMY

"The Solar System" will be discussed at the Boy Scout astronomy class at 7:30 p. m. today at Rauh Memorial library.

In Charge of Army Recruiting

First Lt. Ben J. Fromkin (left), commanding officer of the new army recruiting station, and 2d Lt. Elizabeth I. Johnston took over this month's recruiting job for Indiana.

INDIANA once again is recruiting men for the army and WACs to release men for the fighting front.

The new recruiting office and headquarters for the five Hoosier army recruiting stations are in Rooms 431 and 133 in the federal building.

The recruiting program, which began last week, is open to WACs for general assignment and to 17-year-old boys in the army specialized training reserve program.

Only those who qualified in April under the A. S. T. R. P. examinations, given in all high schools, will be eligible for recruitment. They must make arrangements for their physical examinations by Aug. 31.

Heading the office here is 1st Lt. Ben J. Fromkin, formerly executive officer of army recruiting at Charleston, W. Va. He is assisted by 2d Lt. Elizabeth I. Johnson, WAC enlistment officer for the state.

Other recruiting stations in Indiana are in Gary, South Bend, Ft. Wayne and Evansville.

CAMP OUTING FOR CRIPPLED TO END

A week of outdoor life for crippled children whose handicaps keep them in confinement will come to an end tomorrow.

The second annual camp outing for crippled children of the county has been in progress this week, at the Salvation Army Fresh Air camp on Indian creek.

Twenty-seven children between 9 and 19 participated in a rest, nature study and recreation program. Miss Mabel Cox, executive secretary of the Marion County Society for the Crippled, directed the project.

Other members of the staff were Mrs. Richard Helmuth, Miss Marie Parks, Mrs. Alvey Pittman, Mrs. Clifford Sweeney, Mrs. Hattie Ramsey, Mrs. Bessie Kohler, Miss Mary Belle Parks and Mrs. Florence Bourn. The Red Cross motor corps also assisted.

Dives Into Sea To Win WAC Kiss

BOSTON, June 23 ((U. P.).—A tugload of WACs went out to meeting an incoming troopship and the girls screamed over a loudspeaker system: "First one over gets kissed."

Taking the invitation literally T. Sgt. Tommy Carpenter, 24, of Hamburg, Ky., leaped from the transport Howard A. Kelly and swam to the tug, where he was soundly bussed by the 10 WACs on the boat.

Carpenter had been overseas two and one-half years.

PATRIARCHS ELECT

New officers of the Patriarchs Militant Association, of Ladies auxiliaries are Gladys Dunkle, Kokomo, president; Hazel Sense, Indianapolis, vice president, and Pearl Adams, Lafayette, treasurer. The officers were elected at the annual convention in Marion this week.

MAY TEST LAW ON WOMEN AT BARS

The new 1945 liquor law, the object of severe criticism from Democratic beer wholesalers, may now be attacked from another quarter.

A Gary tavern owner, S. H. Stevens, has filed a brief with the alcoholic beverages commission charging the act is unconstitutional because it prohibits women from sitting at bars. His establishment was recently handed a 30-day suspension for serving female trade at the bar.

Mr. Stevens believes the law discriminates between sexes.

His brief was construed by A. B. C. members as possibly presaging a court test of his suspension.

Stricken Actress Now Able to Walk

HOLLYWOOD, June 23 (U. P.).—Actress Susan Peters walked today for the first time in six months and said she planned to resume her career despite fears of doctors that she would never leave her wheelchair.

The dark-eyed young actress was paralyzed from the waist down when she accidentally shot herself during a New Year's hunting trip with her husband, Coast Guard Lt. Richard Quine. Walking with the aid of braces, today she boasted she had stood erect for 10 minutes.

"I think I ought to be walking pretty well in three months," the tiny brunette said. "It's only a week since I had my braces on the first time and I have already taken three steps."

HAROLD LLOYD TO MAKE 2 PICTURES

HOLLYWOOD, June 23 (U. P.).—Silent film star Harold Lloyd announced today he would appear in two movies to be released early next year. They will be his first pictures in eight years.

The be-spectacled actor was signed for the films by Preston Sturges Productions. Lloyd's last picture was "Professor Beware," made in 1938.

Allen Movie Laugh Spree

Swarm of Famed Comics Lend Him Aid.

A Hollywood individual named Jack Skirball produced "It's In the Bag," now showing at the Circle. Consequently, it's a Skirball picture. It's a riot.

Imagine Fred Allen and Robert Benchley co-starring in the same film. Then imagine Jack Benny, Jerry Colonna and William Bendix. Then go to the Circle and quit imagining. They're all intermingled mirthfully on the screen there.

"It's In the Bag" has that priceless Allen touch, the Allen originality, the Allen spontaneity.

"It's In the Bag" concerns Allen's chase for five overstuffed chairs. In one of them is concealed $30,000 left Allen by a wealthy uncle who met foul play at the hands of swindlers. Naturally, Allen's busy little son has already sold the chairs before their hidden cash value is discovered.

Jerry Colonna is a psychiatrist, William Bendix is a swindler and Don Ameche, Victor Moore and Rudy Vallee are "Gay Nineties" singers. Allen joins up to make it a quartet.

BROTHERS REUNITED BY THREE-DAY PASS

Separated by war for two and a half years, Pfc. Maynard Thompson flew to Leyte recently to meet his brother, Pvt. Kenneth Thompson.

Pfc. Thompson is stationed in Manila and saw his brother on a three-day pass. He is the husband of Mrs. Pauline Thompson, 1122 Medford st., and a graduate of Washington high school.

Pvt. Thompson, who is with a combat amphibious division, is the brother of Mrs. Frederick Lookebill. Her husband, Cpl. Frederick Lookebill, is in England.

SCREEN BECKONS LOCAL SWIMMER

A chance for a Hollywood movie contract may come to Miss Joan Fogle, present national champion swimmer in the 100-meter backstroke and 300-meter individual medley event.

RKO studio movie talent scouts and directors will be at the National Women's A. A. U. swimming meet at Los Angeles, Cal., in August, when Miss Fogle trys to retain her two championships, Charles L. (Bud) Sawin, her coach, has been notified.

The movie officials will offer contracts to several of the champion swimmers.

Miss Fogle, a 1945 graduate of Shortridge high school, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Bruce Fogle, 5145 N. Pennsylvania st.

Riot at County Jail—

LOTS OF EXCITEMENT at the county jail last Saturday. . . . Four tough former convicts who had hopes of breaking jail instigated a riot among the 50 or 60 prisoners in the bullpen. . . . They gave five deputies quite a time, attacking one of them. . . . Scores of police from headquarters across the street from the jail, and in squad cars from all sections of town, rushed to the rescue, surrounding the jail. . . . Finally enough tear gas was poured into the hoosegow to make the weeping prisoners promise to be good boys. . . . Police Chief McMurtry says the city's crime wave isn't as black as it's been painted. . . . Many of the reports, he says, are exaggerated. . . . He named "careless drunks" his No. 1 problem, calling them "crime bait." . . . Many such persons, including some service men, have been slugged and robbed.

Lt. Gen. Smith Here—

THOUSANDS OF proud home towners turned out Wednesday to give a rousing welcome to Lt. Gen. Walter Bedell Smith, chief of staff to General Eisenhower. . . .

General Smith, who signed the Germans' unconditional surrender for the allies, spent his early years in Indianapolis. . . . A parade through flag-bedecked downtown streets preceded a luncheon at the Claypool at which the general spoke. . . . Among those greeting him was his former high school principal, E. H. Kemper McComb of Manual. . . . Although he had a busy schedule, General Smith took time out to phone an old friend, Mrs. Elizabeth Spahr, 202 E. 33d st. . . . Grandma Spahr, now 102, is the city's oldest resident. . . . Another military high point of the week was the return of some 300 Hoosiers of the 86th division, first combat division back from Europe for redeployment to the Pacific war. . . . Local newspapermen met the troops in New York and rode their 28-car train back to Camp Atterbury, where the men were released on furlough. . . . More than 50 were from Indianapolis.

What's Cookin' in Sports—

THE INDIANS nave been engaged in a neck and neck race with Milwaukee and Louisville for the A. A. lead. . . . The Tribe has been in and out of first place during the week. . . . They had a bit of bad luck, losing four straight to St. Paul. . . . But they broke the jinx with three straight wins over Minneapolis, including a double-header. . . . The fishing season got off to a wet start but plenty of fish were caught. . . . A lucky angler reported landing an 8-pound bass in Yellowwood lake in Brown county the first day. . . . How's that for a catch? . . . The Women's Western Open Golf Championship tournament went into the finals today. . . . The semi-finals contestants were Mrs. George Zaharias vs. Mrs. Marge Becker, and Dorothy Germain vs. Carol Freese. . . . The Kentucky All-Star high school netters defeated the Indiana All-Stars here last night, 45-40.

Tags for Pedestrians—

IT LOOKS LIKE the hometown pedestrians are going to have to become reconverted, or else! . . . At the request of the C. of C., city officials dug up and dusted off a proposed ordinance which would permit police to issue stickers to jaywalkers and other violators of pedestrian traffic rules. . . . Violators would pay fines in cafeteria court. . . . It's a politically "hot" subject, and city officials aren't any too happy to have it resurrected. . . . Another revived subject is parking meters. . . . The safety board ordered Purchasing Agent Edward Hereth to sound out parking meter companies as to prices and ability to provide meters. . . . Two former servicemen have been reinstated to the police force. . . . They are Laurence C. McLaughlin, a discharged marine sergeant, and G. Dean Schwartz, of the navy. . . . Maxwell Droke, who runs an advertising specialty agency here, has published a book entitled: "Goodby to G. I.—How to Be a Successful Civilian."
