

MANY MEDALS TO BE AWARDED

All Service Members, Some Civilians to Get Them.

By Scripps-Howard Newspapers
WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—There'll soon be medals galore for fighting men and for civilians with overseas war service.

All members of the armed forces will receive the Medal of Service recently authorized by congress. Civilians with distinguished overseas records will get the Medal of Freedom created by an order of President Truman.

The secretaries of war, navy and state are empowered to bestow the Medal of Freedom on any person "who has performed a meritorious act of (overseas) service which has aided the United States in the prosecution of the war . . . and for which an award of another United States medal or decoration is considered inappropriate."

Design Awaited

The civilian medal also may be given any person who "has similarly aided any nation engaged with the United States" in the war. Only one such decoration may be given to an individual but the President's order provides for "a suitable device to be worn with the medal" for subsequent acts of distinction.

The Medal of Service for the entire military has not yet been designed. It will go to "all persons who have served on active duty in the armed forces of the United States or of the government of the Philippine Islands at any time during the period beginning Dec. 7, 1941, and ending with the date of the termination of hostilities."

HISTORY TEACHERS TO SEE VINCENNES

Times Special

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Aug. 2.—Hoosier historical spots, centering about Vincennes, will be seen and studied by 40 public school history teachers this week-end during a tour conducted by Ross F. Lockridge, Bloomington.

The tour of historical sights, known as the Wabash Historical Institute, will include trips to Ft. Sackville, Clark memorial, the Harrison mansion and a boat ride to the site of old Ft. Knox.

Sponsoring the institute are President Ralph N. Tiley of Indiana State Teachers college; H. B. Allman, superintendent of schools, Muncie, and Mrs. Grace Granger, supervisor of instruction, Indianapolis city schools.
