Nuptial Vows Will Be Read In Howe

Times Special
HOWE, Ind., Nov. 22.—An altar banked with palms, candelabra and bouquets of chrysanthemums will form the setting this afternoon for the marriage of Miss Eloise Kelly and William L. Small. The double-ring ceremony will be in the Howe Methodist church. Dr. R. H. Miller, North Manchester, and Mrs. Guy G. Gerton, Anderson, will officiate. The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kelly of this city. Mr. Small is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Small, Knightstown. The bride, to be given in marriage by her father, will wear white brocade satin. The gown has a fitted bodice, round neckline, three-quarter length sleeves and a bouffant skirt which extends into a slight train. Her fingertip illusion veil will be attached to a tiara of seed pearls and she will carry a shower bouquet of white chrysanthemums and pompons. Miss Mary Greenawalt, Hunters-town, maid of honor, will wear pastel green taffeta. The frock has a fitted bodice, a round neckline and a bouffant skirt. She will wear a headpiece of bronze baby chrysanthemums and will carry bronze pompons and chrysanthemums. Miss Kelly will be her sister's junior bridesmaid. She will have a printed rose and white taffeta frock styled like the bride's. She is to carry a tiny colonial bouquet of baby pink and white chrysanthemums.
