

Miss Susan Rouse, Former School Secretary Here, Dies

Miss Susan H. Rouse, retired stenographer and former secretary of the office of the superintendent of Indianapolis public schools, died yesterday in her home at 408 Massachusetts ave. She was 77.

A native of Lafayette, Miss Rouse was a member of the Episcopal church here for 40 years.

Rites will be conducted at 10 a.m. tomorrow in the Moore Mortuaries Northeast chapel. Burial will be in the Greenbush cemetery at Lafayette.

Survivors include four nephews, the Rev. Raymond Rouse O'Haver, Evansville; Paul Rouse, Los Angeles; Charles L. Rouse and Wallace Rouse, Indianapolis, and a niece, Miss Dorothy Rouse, Indianapolis.

CARLYLE GUNN

Carlyle Gunn, associate owner of the D & C Novelty Co., 618 Massachusetts ave., died yesterday in Methodist hospital. The 50-year-old novelty dealer had been a resident here for the past five years.

Born in Maysville, Mich., Mr. Gunn resided in London, Ontario, Canada, for some time. He moved here from Detroit in 1940.

Survivors include his wife, Kathleen V. Gunn; a daughter, Mrs. Ruth Sarle, Freeland, Mich., and two sons, Richard W. Gunn and John Francis Gunn.

Services will be conducted at 4:30 p.m. tomorrow in the Planner & Buchanan mortuary. The body will be taken to London, Ontario, for burial.

MRS. FRIEDA CRAWFORD

Mrs. Frieda Crawford, former Indianapolis resident, died Monday in a Chicago hospital of burns received in a fire in her apartment a few hours earlier.

The daughter of the late Ora Hunt who resided at 300 E. Washington st., Mrs. Crawford moved to Chicago some 20 years ago and was employed as a switchboard operator. She was 49.

Services will be held at 2 p.m.

FORMER LUMBER EXECUTIVE DIES

Rites for Clyde J. Roach to Be Tomorrow.

Services for Clyde J. Roach, former vice president and general manager of the National Veneer & Lumber company, will be held at 2:30 p.m. tomorrow in the Planner & Buchanan mortuary. Burial will be in Crown Hill cemetery.

Dr. Jean S. Milner, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church, will officiate.

Mrs. Sargent was the widow of Lynn Sargent, an owner of the original Sargent Paint and Color Co. and had been an Indianapolis resident many years. She was 85.

Three grandchildren, Mrs. Anna M. Thlesing, Mrs. Lillian McKay and John T. Neubling of Chicago, and four great-grandchildren, one of whom, Joseph E. Neubling, was serving overseas, survive her.

MRS. GEORGIA BLACO

Services for Mrs. Georgia Blaco, who died Monday in Methodist hospital, will be held at 2 p.m. tomorrow in the Second Free Methodist church. Burial will be in Crown Hill cemetery.

Surviving are her husband, William Blaco; three daughters, Mrs. Helen Malott, Mrs. Lela Norris and Mrs. Ruby Stewart, and a sister, Mrs. Lillie D. Toney, all of Indianapolis.

MARY COSAND HADLEY

Services for Mrs. Mary Cosand Hadley of New London, Ind., who died yesterday in West Hartford, Conn., will be conducted tomorrow at New London. She was 78.

Active in missionary activities of the western yearly meetings of the Friends church, Mrs. Hadley was a director of the Bertha Ballard home in Indianapolis.

Surviving her is her daughter, Mrs. Eldon H. Mills, wife of the Rev. Mills, former pastor of the First Friends church in Indianapolis.

Survivors include her two daughters.

WORLD TRADE SEEN BY INSURANCE MEN

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2 (U.P.)—Western hemisphere insurance executives have been invited to a conference in New York City May 14-17 to discuss ways of serving an expanded world trade.

The meeting was called by the Inter-American council of commerce and production in co-operation with U. S. Chamber of Commerce.

Lemcke Building Manager Here for 29 Years Is Dead

Services for Victor Allen Swain, former manager of the Lemcke building, who died Monday, will be held at 2 p.m. tomorrow in the Planner & Buchanan mortuary. Burial will be in Crown Hill cemetery.

Born in Mechanicsburg, Mr. Swain, who was 72, had lived here since 1887. Manager of the Lemcke building for 28 years, he was also treasurer of the Indianapolis Building Managers association, a member of the Fairview Presbyterian church and the Scottish Rite. He was living at the home of his son, Earl Swain, 4825 Carrollton ave., at the time of his death, but formerly resided at 4047 N. Capitol ave.

Other survivors are a brother, Harry Swain of Anderson; two nieces, Mrs. Zelma Bell and Mrs. Viola Grossman, both of Anderson, and one grandchild.

MISS ALICE M. WILSON

Services for Mrs. Alice M. Wilson, chief operator of the Bell Telephone system in Auburn and formerly of Beech Grove, died yesterday in her home at Auburn.

Mr. Roach had also served as chairman of the company's board of directors. He was a member of the Second Presbyterian church.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Maude M. Roach; a daughter, Mrs. Charles Rockwood of Indianapolis and Washington, D. C., and a sister, Mrs. John Carmon of San Fernando, Cal.

MARY COSAND HADLEY

Services for Mrs. Mary Cosand Hadley of New London, Ind., who died yesterday in West Hartford, Conn., will be conducted tomorrow at New London. She was 78.

Active in missionary activities of the western yearly meetings of the Friends church, Mrs. Hadley was a director of the Bertha Ballard home in Indianapolis.

Surviving her is her daughter, Mrs. Eldon H. Mills, wife of the Rev. Mills, former pastor of the First Friends church in Indianapolis.

Survivors include her two daughters.

Services for Miss Eleanor Kingston and Mrs. James Sparks; a son, Robert Kingston, and five grandchildren, Indianapolis.

ESTELLA GREMELSPACHER

Services for Mrs. Estella Gremelspacher, who died yesterday in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harry J. Baker, 4172 Broadway, will be held at 10 a.m. Friday in St. Vincent's Catholic church in Logansport. Burial will be in St. Vincent's cemetery.

The body will be at the Blackwell Funeral home, 1503 N. Meridian st., where friends may call between 7 and 10 p.m. tonight.

LOUIS A. MITCHELL

Louis A. Mitchell, 1102 N. Grant ave., a civil engineer for the state highway department, died yesterday in Methodist hospital.

A resident of Anderson for 25 years, Mr. Mitchell, who was 68, moved here in 1941.

A native of Logansport, Mrs. Gremelspacher had spent her winters with her daughter for the last 11 years. She attended St. Joan of Arc Catholic church.

Besides her daughter, Mrs. Harry J. Baker, 4172 Broadway, will be held at 10 a.m. Friday in St. Vincent's Catholic church in Logansport. Burial will be in St. Vincent's cemetery.

LOUIS A. MITCHELL

Louis A. Mitchell, 1102 N. Grant ave., a civil engineer for the state highway department, died yesterday in Methodist hospital.

A resident of Anderson for 25 years, Mr. Mitchell, who was 68, moved here in 1941.

The body will be at the Blackwell Funeral home, 1503 N. Meridian st., where friends may call between 7 and 10 p.m. tonight.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Ruth Mitchell; two sons, Louis A. Mitchell Jr. of Indianapolis and George N. Mitchell of Camp Klimber, N. J.; a sister, Miss Julia R. Mitchell of Utica, N. Y., and two granddaughters.

Mr. Mitchell was employed in the engineering department at Allison's during the war.

Mr. Mitchell was a life member of the American Society of Civil Engineers, a member of the Indiana section of professional engineers, the Columbia club and the Presbyterian church in Anderson.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Ruth Mitchell; two sons, Louis A. Mitchell Jr. of Indianapolis and George N. Mitchell of Camp Klimber, N. J.; a sister, Miss Julia R. Mitchell of Utica, N. Y., and two granddaughters.

Conceding the Big Three failure to reach any decision regarding Iran, a foreign office spokesman said:

"We favored a three-power commission, but the reaction of the Soviet government was not favorable. We still feel that if it could be brought about, it would be a very good idea."

RUSSIA BALKS AT PROPOSAL FOR IRAN

LONDON, Jan. 2 (U.P.)—The foreign office revealed today that Russia reacted unfavorably to a British proposal at the Moscow conference to set up a three-power commission to handle the problem of Iran.

Conceding the Big Three failure to reach any decision regarding Iran, a foreign office spokesman said:

"We favored a three-power commission, but the reaction of the Soviet government was not favorable. We still feel that if it could be brought about, it would be a very good idea."

"Why Do That Before?"

If your nose is up with sufficient congestion, take this time to use Va-tro-nol. Quick suggestion is reliable. Follow directions.

VICKS

Fly to ST. L.
KAN.
SAN F.

RI

Qua

You don't quality g the very and FIRS . . . and good. Eye GLASS NO EX

Dr. J.

OF 11 YEAR
A KRV
127 W.

W
MA
401 S.

24 Hou
Include
"The Mea

VOC

Mr. Chas.

AN

Kirb

MERIDIA

AYRES A DOWNSTAIRS A STORE

The "BUY WAY" of Indianapolis

Fit-for-the-Queen of Any Home!

A Half-Size Sheer to Bloom Beautifully Beneath Your Winter Coat . . .

$10.95

Sizes 18 1/2 to 24 1/2

New life for your wardrobe. A lovely dress designed in youthful looking half-sizes by Fit For A Queen. Scalloped button front coat style in rib sheer with shining nailhead trim on the many, many buttons. Beautiful in navy, grey, aqua and rose.

FIT FOR A QUEEN SHOP—Downstairs at AYRES'

There's a New Soft Look to This Lovely All-Wool

Half-Size Chesterfield

$29.95

"Ann Stuart" . . . Exclusive in AYRES' Downstairs Store

All wool suede Chesterfield designed by the famous "Ann Stuart" with new soft draped, flanged shoulders and beautiful flowing lines. Black only in women's half-sizes.

Use Our Convenient Layaway Plan!

WOMEN'S COATS—Downstairs at AYRES'

FORMER LUMBER EXECUTIVE DIES

Rites for Clyde J. Roach to Be Tomorrow.

Services for Clyde J. Roach, former vice president and general manager of the National Veneer & Lumber company, will be held at 2:30 p.m. tomorrow in the Planner & Buchanan mortuary. Burial will be in Crown Hill cemetery.

Born in Mechanicsburg, Mr. Swain, who was 72, had lived here since 1887. Manager of the Lemcke building for 28 years, he was also treasurer of the Indianapolis Building Managers association, a member of the Fairview Presbyterian church and the Scottish Rite. He was living at the home of his son, Earl Swain, 4825 Carrollton ave., at the time of his death, but formerly resided at 4047 N. Capitol ave.

Other survivors are a brother, Harry Swain of Anderson; two nieces, Mrs. Zelma Bell and Mrs. Viola Grossman, both of Anderson, and one grandchild.

LOUIS A. MITCHELL

Louis A. Mitchell, 1102 N. Grant ave., a civil engineer for the state highway department, died yesterday in Methodist hospital.

A resident of Anderson for 25 years, Mr. Mitchell, who was 68, moved here in 1941.

The body will be at the Blackwell Funeral home, 1503 N. Meridian st., where friends may call between 7 and 10 p.m. tonight.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Ruth Mitchell; two sons, Louis A. Mitchell Jr. of Indianapolis and George N. Mitchell of Camp Klimber, N. J.; a sister, Miss Julia R. Mitchell of Utica, N. Y., and two granddaughters.

Mr. Mitchell was employed in the engineering department at Allison's during the war.

Mr. Mitchell was a life member of the American Society of Civil Engineers, a member of the Indiana section of professional engineers,

the Columbia club and the Presby terian church in Anderson.

Conceding the Big Three failure to reach any decision regarding

Iran, a foreign office spokesman said:

"We favored a three-power com mission, but the reaction of the Soviet government was not favor able. We still feel that if it could be brought about, it would be a very good idea."

L. S. Ayres & Co.

