RAIL VETERANS TO MEET HERE

Average Length of Service
Is 28 Years.

Veteran employees of Indiana Railroad (Division of Western Co.) will attend the second annual meeting of the company's Twenty-Year club tomorrow at the Claypool hotel. Honor guests at the meeting will be Ray Garrett of Chicago, who is company president.

C. J. Stanley, manager of the company's city operations in Indianapolis, is president of the club which was founded here last year. Mr. Stanley, who leads in number of years of service with the system, started with a predecessor company in 1901.

He will preside at the meeting and introduce the other 48 members of the organization. Secretary will be Wilbur A. Cook, payroll supervisor, Indianapolis.

According to club records, the average length of service per member is 28 years, and the total years of service of club members is 1381.

New members added to the roster in 1945, are Wilmer A. Harlan, Charles N. Norton, Charles C. Lentz, and Mrs. Helen E. Littlejohn, all of Indianapolis; Ralph N. Nelson, Muncie, and James L. Alyea, Richmond city lines manager.

Other Indianapolis members of the club are Richard H. Horton, Miss Mary M. Mulvihill, Walter W. Fadley, Harry V. Norford, Lewis E. Halstead, Harry E. Harbaugh, John P. Hasenstab, R. C. Burk, Grady H. Freeman, Mrs. Verna Kemper, Roy Spoon, John H. Eisenmann, Wesley M. Calk, Stewart F. Taylor, Chester R. Gardner, Hurley C. Gillum, Percy G. Boylen, John E. Trefk, William G. Toborg, John T. Martin, Charles F. Pruitt, George E. Gench and Mr. Cook.

The club roster also includes Milford A. Bell and Loren M. Brown, Richmond; Walter Fidler, Rome City; Arthur R. Thompson, Lawrence; Glen Rhodes, Ft. Wayne; John E. Heblig, Muncie; Clay Howard and Lawrence B. Giddings, Greencastle, and O. E. Cox, Brazil.

Local Veteran Is Returned to U. S.

PFC. LAWRENCE C. ENGLE has arrived in the United States after over 22 months of overseas service with the 3d marine division.

Pfc. Engle, the son of Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Engle, 244 N. Walcott st., participated in numerous island campaigns, including Saipan, Guam and Iwo Jima. He arrived in San Diego last Monday and is now home enjoying a 30-day furlough.

COIN CLUB TO SELL ITEMS AT AUCTION

Members of the Indianapolis Coin club will auction rare coins and medals at their monthly meeting in the Washington hotel tomorrow night.

New officers will also be installed. They are Wilson E. Pollard, Indianapolis, president; Mancel Roy, Muncie; vice president; Francis E. Dunn, Beech Grove, secretary, and S. G. Kasberg, Indianapolis, treasurer.

The club has members from all parts of the state and invites all coin collectors to attend their meetings.

FATHER-SON BANQUET HONORS SERVICEMEN

Between 400 and 500 men and boys are expected to attend the father-son banquet honoring servicemen at 6:30 p. m. Friday, in the Zion Evangelical and Reformed church. Dr. Frederick R. Daries is church pastor.

La. Melvin Meyer will represent the army and S. M. 3-c Carl Wolf, the navy. Dr. Purd Dietz of Webster Groves, Mo., professor in Eden seminary, will give the dinner address.

Zion's honor roll bears the names of 228 members who served with the armed forces. Of these nine will never return and 116 have been discharged. A final gold star service for those who made the supreme sacrifice will be held at the banquet.

BURNED GIRL NEAR DEATH AT HOSPITAL

Little Vickie Darlene Morrow remained near death at City hospital today when she received last night when she tumbled into a bathtub of scalding water in her home, 1157 Shelby st.

The 16-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Morrow fell over the side of the tub while Mr. Morrow was making preparations for her bath. The father had turned the water on and found that the pipes were filled with steam.

As he stepped from the room to get a cake of soap, the baby girl dropped a bottle of milk she had been drinking into the tub and toppled into the scalding water in an effort to reach the bottle.

As City hospital her condition was reported critical.

SPENDS LEAVE HOME

Maj. Leo V. Commiskey is spending his terminal leave with his family at 1046 S. Rensler st. Dr. Commiskey was graduated from the dental college of Indiana university in 1928 and practiced in Indianapolis before entering the service in August, 1942. In the army, Dr. Commiskey served at Ft. Sam Houston, Tex., and in the Philippine islands. He will resume practice at 1210 Oliver ave.

88 years at fine whiskey-making makes this whiskey good

Regular inspection of the barrels of whiskey aging at the distillery.

There's no short-cut to whiskey-wisdom—it must be learned as Hiram Walker has learned it through all the years since 1858.

But it's easy to tell the difference it makes—just taste Imperial.

IMPERIAL
Hiram Walker's Blended Whiskey

86 Proof. The straight whiskeys in this product are 4 years or more old. 30% straight whiskey. 70% neutral spirits distilled from grain.
