

PLAN PARADE FOR ARMY DAY

Martial Display to Mark Observance Here.

Indianapolis streets will echo tomorrow to marching footsteps in the first peacetime Army Day celebration since 1941.

Highlights of the program, announced today by Mayor Robert H. Tyndall and Col. Charles A. Beaumont, commander of Indiana military affairs, includes a radio address by Governor Gates and a parade staged by the Indiana state guard, armored force troops from Ft. Knox and other military organizations.

Downtown stores and offices will feature window displays of German weapons and equipment and U. S. air corps equipment.

Plaza Exhibition

The program will get underway at 10 a. m. with the exhibition in the War Memorial Plaza of an armored-car troop from Ft. Knox, a German HE162 jet-propelled plane and a German FX radio controlled glide bomb.

The parade, starting at 2 p. m. will form at St. Clair st. and march south on Pennsylvania st. to Market st., turning south on Market st., it will swing north on Monument Circle and march up N. Meridian st. past the reviewing stand, located at the federal building. It will disperse at St. Clair and Meridian sts.

An address by President Truman at 3 p. m. will be broadcast through an amplifier at the reviewing stand.

Governor to Speak

Governor Gates will speak over radio station WFBM at 3:30 p. m., and Mayor Tyndall will give an Army Day address at 9:15 over radio station WIBC.

Brig. Gen. Ben H. Watts, state adjutant general, will lead the parade.

Organizations participating in the order in which they will march, are the state guard band; armored troops from Ft. Knox; a contingent of reserve officers; state guard troops; Order of the Purple Heart; Veterans of Foreign Wars; Butler university band; American Legion; Disabled American Veterans; army nurses; Red Cross; Boy Scout band, Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts.

BEN DAVIS PLANS 'SUNSHINE DANCE'

Ben Davis high school will sponsor its annual "Sunshine Dance" April 13 in the school auditorium. Members of the committee in charge are Miss Easter Williams and Miss Dorcas Harger.

The Ben Davis band will participate in the third annual R. O. T. C. inspection, school officials announced today. The band and chorus classes also are scheduled to take part in an operetta "Jerry of Jericho" now to be presented at the school.

Shorthand certificates have been awarded to Anna Hasson, 120-word certificate, and Mary Ann Hittle, Jean Myers, Louise Costelow, Loretta Hicks, Malora Kent, June Thorp, Waneta Jordan, Alice Jean Truax, Phyllis Sockler, Marilyn Grimes, Maxine Heritier and Pauline Brown, 100-word certificates.

LISLE L. WALLACE GETS PATRONAGE JOB

Lisle L. Wallace of Sheridan, member of the state conservation commission, took over his new duties today as patronage secretary to the Republican state committee.

A close affiliate of William E. Jenner, candidate for G. O. P. senatorial nomination, Mr. Wallace will pick up the patronage job where H. Clark Springer, new state chairman, left off. He managed Mr. Jenner's campaign for short term senator in 1944 and his unsuccessful bid for the gubernatorial nomination in 1940.

In private life, Mr. Wallace is a feed merchant. He will retain his post on the conservation commission, handling the patronage job on a part-time basis.
