Homeless Families Take Over London Apartment Houses

LONDON, Sept. 9 (U. P.)—Comunist-organized "squatters" quietly but firmly set up housekeeping today in two fashionable London apartment houses and as Mrs. Mary Kalamakis put it: "I intend to stay. I won't get out without a fight."

The "squatters" moved in yesterday, exhibiting precise military efficiency as they took over unoccupied apartments at the exclusive Duchess of Bedford house in Kensington, and another building formerly occupied by U. S. military personnel.

Scotland Yard estimated about 1500 persons were involved. Approximately 900 settled in the various apartments.

The others left, apparently after finding there weren't enough apartments to go around. No incidents of violence were reported.

Leads Homeless Workers

Alfred Daley, a blond young man who belongs to the Kensington Communist committee, led the army of homeless workers to the buildings.

Mr. Daley said many of the homeless people had waited as long as eight years for the authorities to provide housing and that these were "the worst cases on the Communist party lists."

Alfred Victory, a former gunner with the 8th army who spent two years in a German prison camp, took over one of the apartments. He had been living with his wife and two children in one room.

FINISHES COURSE

T. 4th Gr. Joseph T. Johnson, 112 N. Illinois st., is one of a group of 148 enlisted men which was graduated Friday from the recruiting course at the adjutant general's school, Ft. Oglethorpe, Ga. Before the war, Technician Johnson attended Hanover college. He served in Panama.

TAKE PART IN MASS

LOURDES, France, Sept. 9 (U. P.)—An estimated 90,000 former French prisoners of war—Slave laborers and political deportees who made a pilgrimage to the Shrine of Lourdes to thank the Virgin for their freedom—took part today in a mass around a giant altar set on the esplanade of the basilica.
