

Byrnes To Make Radio Report On Russia At 9 Tonight

FIRM, PATIENT STAND TOWARD USSR FAVORED

Expected to Declare U. S. Won't Compromise on Fair Play.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18 (U. P.).—Secretary of State James F. Byrnes will tell the American people tonight the United States must deal with a policy of firmness tempered with patience.

This, he believes, is necessary if the world is to live in peace. It was learned his nationwide broadcast also will make clear to Moscow and the world that the United States cannot compromise her principles of fair play to all nations—large and small—in writing peace terms.

Wire, WLW on Outlets
Mr. Byrnes will speak from 9 to 9:30 p. m. (Indianapolis time). His address will be broadcast by NBC and some Mutual and independent stations. (WIRE and WLW are scheduled to carry the address.) His 30-minute speech was planned originally as a report on the recent 78-day Paris peace conference. But, as though to underline overriding importance of Russian relations, Mr. Byrnes will devote the major portion of his speech to that topic, diplomatic sources said.

The secretary arrived here by plane yesterday from Paris.

FINDS 3 GUILTY IN ATTACK CASE

Paragon Youths May Face Prison Terms.

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Oct. 18.—After deliberating for nine hours, a Monroe county jury returned a verdict last night finding three youths from Paragon guilty of assault and battery with intent to rape Mrs. Ann Dunigan, 25-year-old divorcee and mother of five children.

The defendants were Kenneth Young, 25; his brother, William Young, 23, and Emmitt Goss Jr., 18. Mrs. Dunigan charged that she was assaulted by the three after they forced entrance to her four-room cottage in northwest Monroe county March 21. She also accused the defendants of torturing her with lighted cigarettes held to her arms and hands.

Judge Grant Rogers of the Johnson-Brown circuit court, who sat as special judge in the case, said sentence would be pronounced next Tuesday. The charge on which the three were convicted carries a possible penalty of one to 10 years imprisonment.

VA CHECKS TO BE ON TIME THIS YEAR

The Veterans Administration said today that ex-servicemen students at Indiana colleges should receive their G. I. educational allotment checks on time this year.

The VA sent special crews to Indiana university and, earlier, to Purdue university, to register new veteran-students as they reported on the campus.

W. E. Tolliver, registration and research head of the VA's rehabilitation department, said the new plan promised to eliminate much red tape and bookkeeping. Last year this delayed subsistence checks to many college G. I.'s.

Mr. Tolliver said the "payroll" crew returned yesterday from Indiana university after signing up some 4500 veterans of world war II. The same plan was used at Purdue some weeks ago and also at Notre Dame.

Registration of G. I.'s at secondary Indiana colleges was handled in the same way, he said. But the advantage gained at the larger universities should enable all veterans to "receive their subsistence checks on schedule," Mr. Tolliver said.

He urged studying veterans to advise the VA of any change of address.

UN Military Chiefs Hunt Without License, Law Winks

MINOT, N. D., Oct. 18 (U. P.).—On orders from the governor's office the game warden looked the other way today.

Military chiefs of the United Nations, meanwhile, hunted pheasants without a hunting license. The hunt began shortly after dawn.

Worried townsfolk had telephoned the state capitol at the last minute. It was learned, to gain special permission for the expedition. They pointed out that a state law prohibits aliens from obtaining licenses. They feared that the state's "honor" was at stake.

State officials already had indicated they would wink at the law. But the north woods folk wanted official assurance that the distinguished guests would be spared embarrassment.

Garter Gat

Heaven didn't have to protect the working girl—at least as long as she wore a garter belt like the century-old derring-dog modeled by actress Marian Carr. The garter gat was an exhibit at Pacific coast antiques show, Los Angeles.

Publicity Failed, Lobbyist Admits

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18 (U. P.).—Benjamin C. Marsh is a forthright man.

Mr. Marsh, long-time legislative representative of the "people's lobby," today summed up his quarterly activities as follows: "I have spent and distributed material to hundreds of newspapers, magazines and so forth, but have not caused any to be published. It was intelligence on their part."

Mr. Marsh was the first of 115 persons who have registered thus far as congressional lobbyists. Registration is required by the new congressional streamlining act.

ANONYMOUS LETTER STIRS METER STUDY

The works board today was studying the contents of an anonymous letter circulated widely and criticizing the Mark-Time parking meter, latest make to be chosen for purchase.

The letter was distributed as city council was to consider Monday a measure authorizing purchase of this make of meter.

Charges that the meter is inferior and that in the past it has been sold by "paying-off" city officials in other cities were referred to the works board by Mayor Tyndall.

Prospects were that there would be further delay in authorization of meters here, already the cause of bickering and name-calling during the two years the subject has been under consideration.

FM PERMIT GRANTED AT TERRE HAUTE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18 (U. P.).—The federal communications commission granted a final FM construction permit today to the Wabash Valley Broadcasting Corp., Terre Haute, Ind.

President of the corporation Raymond J. Kearns and vice president, Walter J. Rierden.

TROOPSHIP ARRIVES FROM BREMERHAVEN

NEW YORK, Oct. 18 (U. P.).—Ship movements scheduled in New York harbor today:

Arriving—President Tyler, Bremerhaven (troops).

Departing—Drottningholm, Gothenburg.

APPEAL IS MADE FOR EUROPEAN REFUGEES

Representatives of the Indianapolis Church federation today addressed an appeal to President Truman, Secretary of State Byrnes, Rep. Louis Ludlow and Senator Homer Capehart, on behalf of homeless European.

"We are sure," the letter stated, "that if, for the time being, we (the United States) could open up some kind of opportunity to admit selectively some of these people, many of them would prove to be loyal and effective citizens in the future, as have practically all foreign refugees."

Signers of the appeal include Mrs. Walter Givens, Miss Anna Stout, Julian E. Coleman, C. Oliver Holmes, Russell W. Galloway, Almon J. Coble, F. W. Wiegmann, James A. Crain and Howard J. Baumgartel.

Crippled Children's School Presented Station Wagon

Marion county chapter, National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, today presented a station wagon to James E. Roberts School for Crippled Children.

Carl F. Brandt, president of the board of school commissioners, accepted the gift from Evan Walker, secretary of the local chapter on behalf of the board and gave it to the school.

Lloyd Burkhardt, high school pupil at the school, received the station wagon for the pupils. It will be used to convey pupils between the school and Riley hospital.

Devotional and patriotic music provided a background for the ceremony which was attended by William A. Hacker, assistant superintendent in charge of social service; Miss Jeanette Riker, director of special education; Maxwell V. Bailey, business director; Mrs. W. D. Keen-

30 YEARS SERVICE WITH BELL NOTED

Andrew M. Taylor, general traffic manager of Indiana Bell Telephone Co., today received the Bell system award for 30 years of service.

Mr. Taylor started his career with the company in Chicago in 1916. He was transferred to Indianapolis in 1917 as a member of the traffic department of the former Central Union Telephone Co.

After working for the company in Chicago again and then in South Bend, Mr. Taylor came back to Indianapolis in 1923 as traffic superintendent. In 1933 he was promoted to general traffic engineer and has been general traffic manager since 1943.

He lives at 5032 Park ave. and became a Telephone Pioneer in 1937. He is now president of the local chapter.

Uncover $600,000 Hoard Of Chicago Political Boss

CHICAGO, Oct. 18 (U. P.).—Authorities speculated today that little Michael (Hinky Dink) Kenna's cash hoard may exceed the $1,300,000 the late William H. (Big Bill) Thompson left in his safety deposit boxes.

Officials were tabulating assets in the last three safety deposit boxes of Mr. Kenna, once the most powerful of Chicago political figures, who died Oct. 9 at the age of 58.

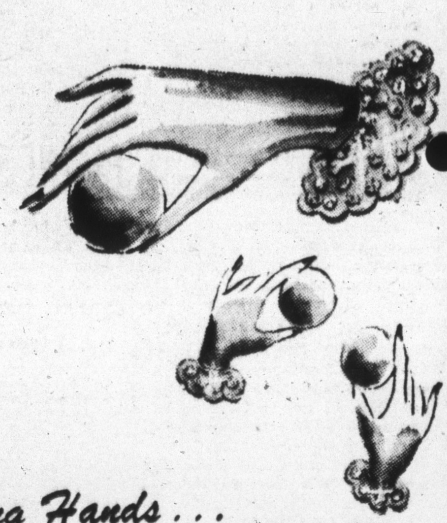

Yesterday in the first three boxes opened, investigators found $600,313—$287,313 in cash, and $313,000 in Chicago municipal securities.

Mr. Kenna's estate has been estimated between $2 million and $9 million. Authorities said they might find more cash in other boxes. More than 70 relatives, politicians, gamblers, and friends were named in Mr. Kenna's will, which found yesterday. The will disposed of all but $270,500 of the estate. A court battle between 11 nephews and nieces for the rest was shaping up. Mr. Kenna kept an old money belt stuffed with $87,000 in old-fashioned bills in denominations up to $1,000. Six diamond stickpins were tossed down beside the belt in a deposit box.

Organizations

Banner Temple of Pythian Sisters will celebrate a fall open house with a pie social, 7:30 p. m. Monday, in the hall at 5420 E. Washington st. A contest for the best Halloween costume worn by a child will be held.

Helping Hands...
Earrings, 2.00* pr.
Pin, 2.00* ea.

Definitely conversation-making... these delicate little old-fashioned hands... daintily holding huge make-believe pearls to ornament your ears and dress. In a shining gold finish with a sparkling rhinestone cuff.

*Plus 20% tax
Costume Jewelry, Street Floor

SHOP EARLY AT AYRES'
9:00 TO 5:25
TUESDAY THRU SATURDAY
CLOSED MONDAYS

Churchill Handwoven Scarfs
3.00 each

To knot at your throat, to tie at your waist, to wrap around your head... in the delicate pastels and sheer soft wools for which they are famous. In a delightful assortment of styles and patterns.

Neckwear, Street Floor

Such a pretty pocketbook! - 5.00*

Fashioned of Botany all-wool broadcloth in the soft pouchy style that looks so pretty with all your afternoon dresses... that is so good and roomy inside. Black only.

*Plus 20% tax
Handbags, Street Floor

Pure Silk Stockings by Majed, 3.35 pr.

In the famous non-run lockstitch that looks so sheer and pretty on your leg... pamper yourself now with a pair or two and tuck some away for gifts. You'll really feel like Santa Claus, come Christmas!

Hosiery, Street Floor

L. S. Ayres & Co.