Unfortunate Young Mothers Find Comfort And Medical Care at St. Elizabeth's Home

Nurses with new sterilizing equipment recently acquired at St. Elizabeth's, home for unmarried mothers.

By ED SOVOLO

"YOU ARE going to have a baby." The doctor's words shattered her last bit of composure. Not that she didn't want to be a mother. She wanted a home, a family, a husband. But this sort of situation happened to other people—not to her.

An illegitimate child—what was she going to do? Who would believe her story? What does the average person think of when he thinks of illegitimacy? Besides, her story was unbelievably tragic. A story for many persons to laugh at over a beer—or over a garden fence. In the months prior to the day when her child would be born, she calmly made arrangements with a case worker from a service agency. As the day came closer, the knowledge that her problem would not be food for loose, cruel tongues was a great comfort.

THE YOUNG mother entered St. Elizabeth's home. Pre-natal care, room and board were provided. There were 12 other women in the home. There were 31 children.

A pediatrician, obstetrician, four registered nurses were on the staff. Her baby was born in a pleasant atmosphere and both mother and child received all the care that science, equipment, and knowledge could provide.

The baby was in a nursery with 11 other new-born babes. She was on the third floor in her quarters. Her baby was brought to her daily. Clinical care was provided.

EVEN THOUGH she ate with the staff, when she was able to move about, no one knew who she was except by the name, Dorothy. Her real identity was known only to the case worker from the Catholic Charities Central bureau. Her child was known only by the first name. After six weeks, she and her tragic secret would leave. In this case she could take her child with her.

The St. Elizabeth's home provided a haven for a mother in the hour of her greatest need. Had the mother been unable to care for the child, the home would have provided care until the age of three. The home also arranges adoptive proceedings.

LOCATED AT 2500 Churchman ave., near Beech Grove, the spacious grounds afford an opportunity for mothers and youngsters the benefit of fresh air and sunshine. The spacious dorms for mothers, nurseries for three age groups up to the age of three, isolation wards, delivery room, playhouse for the toddlers, kitchen, and 24-hour nurses' care make St. Elizabeth's home a credit to society.

A member agency of the Community Fund. St. Elizabeth's home received $14,850 in 1945. The home was self-supporting to the amount of $14,850.

FIRST 'FIANCEE VISA' GRANTED TO GERMAN

FRANKFURT, Oct. 24 (U. P.).—Otto A. Heinkel Jr., an ex-G. I. and Hildegard Wagner, his German-born sweetheart, prepared to leave by plane for the United States today with the first American "fiancee visa" to be granted since the war.

Heinkel obtained the visa after a six-months campaign. He met Hildegard more than a year ago while he was employed as an army depot near Kassel. The "fiancee visa" was granted Oct. 22.

The couple will be married Dec. 23 in Hollywood, Cal., where Heinkel plans to work in his father's factory.

Heinkel took a civilian job with the army in order to stay in Germany to arrange for Hildegard's trip. His parents have been writing to the German girl for several months—and they told Otto he had "better not come home without her."

Departing—Ft. Amherst, Bermuda.
