Article Features Indiana Trooper

A 5000-word article about the Indiana state police will appear in the Nov. 16 issue of the Saturday Evening Post.

Illustrated with color photographs, the article will relate the routine activities of Trooper Kenneth Marlin, Muncie.

Trooper Marlin was chosen by Richard Thruelsen, associate editor of the magazine, as a typical member of the state police. The story is one of the Post's "Men at Work" series.

A former army colonel, Trooper

Marlin, 32, is married and has a small son. He is assigned to the Pendleton post and patrols in Delaware county.
