

DAUGHTERS OF NILE PLAN SOCIAL AFFAIR

Several social affairs have been planned by the Indianapolis Koran temple, Daughters of the Nile, in honor of Mrs. Ralph Cost, Sacramento, Cal., the group's national head. A luncheon sponsored by the women's Shrine organization was scheduled for today in the Columbia club. Arranging the affair were Mesdames Clarence R. Greene, Flora Mae Kretsch, Ray Reynolds, Homer Anderson, Mayne Derosette, Mark Wiles, Omer E. McKee and Francine Fletcher.

Tonight, Mrs. William C. Kirk, past queen of the local temple, will be hostess at a dinner to be given for members and their families in the Broad Ripple Methodist church. A special initiation ceremony will be held for 20 prospective members tomorrow night in the Severin hotel, climaxing the two-day observance.

NEW PAINT ELEMENT RETARDS FIRE, HEAT

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 9.—A colorless liquid mixed with pigments promises new paints which resist heat, retard fire and do not darken with age.

The liquid is ethyl silicate, use of which was reported to the American Chemical Society by H. D. Cogan and C. A. Setterstrom of the Mellon Institute of Industrial Research here. The new paints are expected to be particularly useful in decorating and protecting theatrical scenery.

Industrial fabrics, furnace castings and walls and chimneys. Pigments to be used with ethyl silicate include ochre, sienna, chromium oxide, iron oxide, titanium oxide for white and carbon black for black. Ethyl silicate previously has been used in protecting stone statues and private dwellings from weathering.

REVOLUTION GROUP MEETS WEDNESDAY

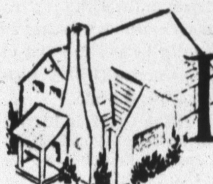

The Indiana Society of the American Revolution will observe dedication day at a Wednesday luncheon meeting in the Columbia club. It is the anniversary of Abraham Lincoln's Gettysburg address. Thomas A. Daily, past president of the Indiana society, will speak on "Abraham Lincoln." A business session will follow. President Jesse C. Moore will preside.
