

Turn To Jury Trials Snags Drunk Driving 'Crack Down'

JUDGE BAIN SEES RUINOUS DELAY AHEAD

Fears Court Program of Jail Sentences Must Be Dropped.

By NOBLE REED

The "crack down" campaign designed to impose jail terms on motorists convicted of driving while drunk has struck a snag in Criminal court.

Several weeks ago the safety committee of the Chamber of Commerce urged Judge W. D. Bain of Criminal court to adopt a stricter policy in handling drunken drivers.

Call for Jury Trial

After a conference with Dr. R. N. Harger, safety committee chairman and other leaders in safety work, Judge Bain agreed to follow their recommendations and impose jail sentences in all such cases without suspending terms.

One of the first drunken driving cases brought into Criminal court after the conference was that of John B. Courin, 3514 Winthrop ave., charged with being intoxicated when his car was involved in an accident recently.

Future Delays Seen

Instead of trying the case before Judge Bain, Courin asked for a jury trial which is his constitutional right.

The jury of four men and eight women yesterday returned a verdict of guilty against Courin but imposed no jail sentence. The jury docket because a jury trial sometimes takes two or three days, Judge Bain pointed out.

Wins Title of 'America's Wheatheart'

Symbolizing the success of America's wheat conservation program on behalf of bakers and farmers is comely 18-year-old Charlene Nichols of Wichita, Kan., who recently won the title of "America's Wheatheart." She's pictured during visit to Washington, part of the trip that went with the title.

"The only solution I can see now is to go back to my former policy in that comes through Criminal court would hopelessly congest the court docket because a jury trial sometimes takes two or three days," Judge Bain pointed out.

Report of the nominating committee and election of officers is scheduled Saturday afternoon.

HOTELMEN HERE FOR CONCLAVE

52d Annual Convention Opens Officially Tomorrow.

The 52d annual convention of the Indiana hotel association will open at 8 p. m. today with a "get together" for early arrivals at the Claypool hotel.

The two-day convention will officially open tomorrow, with registration at 9 a. m. in the Claypool lobby. The business session will convene at 10:30 a. m., presided over by E. C. Kirkpatrick, president.

Mayor Tyndall will welcome the delegates. Reports of committees will be followed by a luncheon with Scott Hardy, executive secretary of the Texas Hotel association, as guest speaker.

Business Meeting at 2 P. M.

Another business meeting is scheduled at 2 p. m. Speakers will include John H. Hewitt, who will give a report of the protective association; Paul M. Ross, executive director of the state department of commerce and public relations who will give a report on the state publicity committee, and A. C. Thornberg, report of legislative committee.

Sessions will be held all day Saturday. Scheduled to speak are R. W. Akin, of Associated Employers of Indiana; Kenneth Qualey, of South Bend; George Saas, director of public relations of the Citizens Gas & Coke utility, and Howard Sanders, chief of detectives of the Indianapolis Police department.

It is not atom bombs and germ warfare which threaten destruction of mankind, but forces within each human being, Dr. Williams charges.

Two obstacles have prevented us from advancing beyond the "ox-cart days" in applying science to human relations, he believes. One of these is the strong tendency in universities and elsewhere to study human beings piecemeal.

Mr. Krueger said 22 Hoosiers will participate in this tour. The group,

Husbands, Wives Included In Doctor's Science of Peace

By Science Service

AUSTIN, Tex., Nov. 21.—A new science of peace is proposed by Dr. Roger J. Williams, University of Texas biochemistry professor.

He is discoverer of one of the B vitamins.

Dr. Williams says his science would achieve peace not only between nations and between labor and management, but between husbands and wives as well.

"Humanics" is the name Dr. Williams gives the new science. Webster defines humanics as "the study of human nature," parallel to mechanics, dynamics, acoustics and statistics.

"The science of human beings" is Dr. Williams' definition of it.

Learn Basic Truths

"Only by learning its basic truths, teaching them to our youth, and by extending greatly the boundaries of our knowledge," he states, "can we cope with numerous social problems: Education, marriage, health, employment, charlatanism in politics and elsewhere, crime, alcoholism, group bigotry, and war."

It is not atom bombs and germ warfare which threaten destruction of mankind, but forces within each human being, Dr. Williams charges.

Two obstacles have prevented us from advancing beyond the "ox-cart days" in applying science to human relations, he believes. One of these is the strong tendency in universities and elsewhere to study human beings piecemeal.

Mr. Krueger said 22 Hoosiers will participate in this tour. The group, to be selected by Dec. 1, will go from here to Mexico City, then through Central America to South America.

Survivors include the husband and a son, Robert, a student in Crawfordsville high school.

Doggy Bonnet

SHORTRIDGE HIGH TO PRESENT PLAY

The Shortridge high school all-school play, "The Life of the Party," will be presented tomorrow at the school.

Members of the cast are Janet Polson, Richard Buell, Jewell Lain, Janet Brucker, Diane Harvey, Dorothy Gorman, Betty Ann Lewis, Joan Harris, Shirley Kruger, Pat Locke, Jean Ann Bates, Richard MacGill, Richard Russel, Larry Noling, Eugene Millison, Warner Haas and Jack Forbes.

The play was written by Marjane and Joseph Hayes, both of Indianapolis. Music will be provided by the school orchestra, directed by Will F. Wise.

Dr. J. Dan Hull, principal of Shortridge, has been elected to membership in the Headmasters' association.

Shortridge high school will hold a square dance session at 2:30 p. m. tomorrow in the girls' gym. Mrs. Norma Koster, of the Indianapolis Recreation department, will lead the session.

POSTMASTER PLANS FOR YULETIME RUSH

Times State Service
ANDERSON, Ind., Nov. 21.—Postmaster Mr. G. Davis said today a force of 80 extra workers will be employed at the Anderson postoffice for the holiday rush.

Preference is being given veterans in applications for employment. Five army trucks will be used to supplement postoffice mobile equipment about Dec. 15 when the Christmas mailing rush gets underway, Mr. Davis said.

Tailored by Rosenblum!

Our new city-wise suit . . . raglan-sleeved, side-pleated, clean-cut and crisply tailored in Forstmann's butter-soft

"Doebara" wool. Aqua, brown, grey and purple in

Misses' sizes, 49.95

Sportswear, Third Floor

SHOP EARLY AT AYRES
9:00 TO 5:30
TUESDAY THRU SATURDAY
CLOSED MONDAYS

L. S. Ayres & Co.

SHOP AT THE CLOCK

9:00 to 5:25 Tuesday thru Saturday

For as always

A Gift from Ayres Means More

If You're the Tiptoe Type . . .

(5'4" or under), Leslie Fay has skillfully proportioned this dress to fit your very own figure! Rayon crepe; sizes 10-20, 9.00

Brown with beige
Black with aqua

Budget Shop, Third Floor

L. S. Ayres & Co.