300 Physicians To Meet Sunday

Indiana Medical Group
Holds Annual Session

Three hundred officers of county medical societies and the Indiana State Medical association will hold an annual meeting Sunday in the Claypool hotel.

Highlighting the program will be two out-of-town speakers. Dr. George F. Lull, Chicago, secretary-general manager of the American Medical association, and Dr. J. S. DeTar, Milan, Mich., public relations committee chairman, Michigan State Medical society.

Look Into the Future

Dr. Lull, deputy surgeon-general of the army during World War II, will speak on "American Medicine Looks to the Future."

Dr. DeTar will explain the Michigan group's public relations program.

Others on Program

Others who will speak are Drs. Cleon A. Nafe, H. G. Hamer, L. E. Burney, Norman M. Beatty, J. William Wright and Charles F. Thompson, all of Indianapolis; Walter U. Kennedy, New Castle; E. M. Shanklin, Hammond; H. N. Smith, Brookville, and Mrs. S. J. Petronella, East Chicago, and Miss E. Nancy Scramlin, Munice.

Presiding will be Dr. A. M. Mitchell, Terre Haute, chairman of the committee in charge. Other members are Drs. O. E. Wilson, Elkhart; E. F. Huckleberry, Salem; A. M. Owen, Bloomington, and W. A. Kuris, Tipton.

3 State Officers Will Go To Traffic Institute

Three Indiana police officers will be included in the group of 35 policemen selected to attend the 1947 spring course in traffic police administration at Northwestern University traffic institute.

They are: Sgt. William Garrett Hague, Indianapolis; Patrolman John Mahoney, Hammond, and Cpl. Elmer C. Paul, of the state police.

CAPEHART OK'S RENT CONTROL

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—Senator Homer E. Capehart (R., Ind.) has agreed with President Truman on rent control extension, but says he will insist on a proviso raising rents by a flat 15 per cent.
