300 Salvationists In Music Festival

More than 300 Indiana musicians will participate in the first annual Salvation army music festival tomorrow at 2 and 7:15 p. m. at the Athenaeum.

The festival will be conducted by Lt. Col. and Mrs. Herbert Pugmire, divisional commanders. Brig. Harold Zealley, Cincinnati, will speak in the afternoon on "The Values of Salvation Army Music."

Twelve bands and five choral groups will present a total of 29 selections tomorrow night.

The 7:15 p. m. session will be preceded by a downtown parade of bands, choral groups and other Salvationists.

Schricker Named Relief Treasurer

The Rt. Rev. R. A. Kirchhoff, chairman of Indianapolis chapter, Greek Relief association, has appointed Henry F. Schricker, former governor, treasurer of Greek war relief in Indianapolis.

Bishop Kirchhoff of the Episcopal diocese made the appointment to fill the vacancy left by the death of Hugh McK. Landon, former treasurer.

Mr. Landon had served as treasurer of Greek war relief from the time of its inception in 1942 until his death. Wednesday he took an active interest in the present campaign to raise funds for sick and starving Greek people, the bishop said.

Mr. Schricker is a director of the local Greek War Relief chapter.
