Statewide Gathering
Set for July 13-16

TIMES STATE SERVICE
BLOOMINGTON, Ind., July 10.—A statewide meeting of instrumental and vocal teachers and choir directors will be held at Indiana university July 13 to 16.

Prof. C. L. Kingsbury of the university's music school will serve as chairman for the conference as a whole. Sectional program chairmen will include: Dale W. Cox, Richmond, voice; Mrs. Naomi Gray, Richmond, and Mrs. Merrill F. Sneathen, Evansville, piano; John W. Shepard, Indianapolis, strings; Adele K. Long, Martinsville, wind instruments, and Harry Harthorn, Ft. Wayne, drums.

Frederick L. Black Jr., Terre Haute, is president of the Teachers of Music, an organization of the private music teachers of Indiana, formed during the 1946 music conference at I. U. Mrs. Gladys Fowler, Indianapolis, is vice president; Mr. Cox, secretary, and Mrs. Joseph Garton, Bloomington, treasurer.

OCEAN PATROLS
WASHINGTON — Weather stations maintained by the U. S. coast guard are vessels patrolling small squares of mid-ocean especially for the benefit of aircraft. They report by radio at least twice a day.
