Kathleen Nolan Will Be an Attendant When Her Brother, Alan, Is Married

MISS KATHLEEN NOLAN WILL BE THE MAID OF HONOR at the marriage of her brother, Alan, and Miss Elizabeth Titsworth of Rushville. The wedding is to be at 11 o'clock Tuesday morning, Aug. 26, in St. Mary's Catholic church in Rushville.

Thomas Titsworth, Rushville, will give his sister in marriage. The vows will be read by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Henry F. Dugan, chancellor of the archdiocese of Indianapolis.

Val Nolan Jr. will be his brother's best man. Ushers are to include Henry B. Veach, Bloomington; Lain Tetrick, Greensburg, and John P. Nolan, Evansville.

The engagement of Miss Ruth Elizabeth Armstrong to Ralph M. Burns is announced by her mother, Mrs. G. P. Armstrong. The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Wayne M. Burns.

The future bride attended Butler university, where she was a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. Mr. Burns is a graduate of Texas university and a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity.

The couple is to be married Oct. 4 in the Fairview Presbyterian church, with the Rev. Virgil D. Ragan officiating.

Miss Jeanne Davis will be the maid of honor, and Wayne M. Jr. will attend his brother.

Bernadette Sweeney, William L. Hurt Wed

MISS BERNADETTE SWEENEY and William Lewis Hurt were married at 3:30 p.m. today in the palm room of the Indianapolis Athletic club. The vows were read by the Rev. Fr. John Lynch, St. Joan of Arc Catholic church.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. White, 2145 E. Riverside dr., are the parents of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Tasie G. Popchess, 2153 E. Riverside dr., are the bridegroom's parents.

Mr. Frederick Lee Ashley will be the matron of honor, and the bride's sister, Miss Margaret Audrey White, will be the maid of honor.

The bridesmaids will include Mrs. Jack L. Dailey, Miss Kathryn Popchess, a sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Mary Johnson, Maria Louis Popchess will be the flower girl.

Mrs. Ashley will wear a lavender marquise dress, and Miss White will be dressed in yellow marquise. Mrs. Dailey will wear a blue frock; Miss Johnson will be dressed in pink and Miss Popchess will wear aqua. The flower girl will wear a yellow nylon net frock.

Couple Will Take Trip To Canada and East

A white satin gown will be worn by the bride. Her finger-illusion veil will fall from a satin tulle and a tiara of floral applique held her full-length veil. She carried an orchid surrounded by white roses.

Mrs. Russell C. Lilly, Detroit, was her sister's matron of honor and wore a bustle-back frock of blue marquise.

Miss Doris Hurt, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Theresa Keach were the bridesmaids. Their dresses were of pink organdy.

Joseph B. Schreiner, Kokomo, was the best man, and ushers included Frank P. Iannino, New York; James R. Sweeney III, brother of the bride; John R. Miller Jr. and John R. Padden Jr.

A reception in the I. A. C. green room was to follow the ceremony.

The couple will take a trip north and will be at home here after Sept. 1.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell T. Sweeney. She attended Butler university and is a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority.

The reception will be held in the church parlors after the ceremony. Another reception will follow in the Municipal Gardens clubhouse. The couple will go to the Great Lakes, Canada and New York for a trip.

The bridegroom attended Butler university where he was a member of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity.

Mrs. Ruth L. Rhode To Speak Friday

Mrs. Ruth L. Rhode, Ayres' publication editor, will be guest speaker when Beta Pi chapter, Beta Sigma Phi sorority meets Friday.

Mrs. Frederick Sinclair, Michigan and Cold Spring rds., will entertain. The speaker's topic will be "Seeing New York City."

Rite Tomorrow in Westfield

Times State Service WESTFIELD, Ind., Aug. 2.—A motor trip south will bring the marriage of Miss Mary E. Stahl and Jack H. Kerkhoff at 3:30 p.m. tomorrow. The rite will be read here in the Methodist church by the Rev. George Lee.

The bride's white lace and net gown will be worn over an ivory satin underskirt. A Mary Queen of Scots cap will hold her finger-illusion veil. She will carry white gladioli, stephanotis and ivy.

Mrs. Charles Genet, New Albany, will be the matron of honor, and Miss Barbara Barnard, Knightstown, will be maid of honor. Miss Diana Bailey and Miss Donna Blue will be the junior bridesmaids, and Gretchen Stahl will be the ring bearer.

Their program will include conferences, lectures and examinations along with recreational events.

They will be taken on a tour of the schools and hospitals at the center and will tour the city by chartered bus. The present freshman class will give a party for them Friday night at Ball residence.

Nursing Study In 'Preview'

A sample of student nurse life will be given next week to more than 40 state girls at the Indiana university medical center here.

The girls, applicants for admission to the university's School of Nursing, will arrive tomorrow for orientation week. The week, according to Miss Mary L. Peacock, school director, permits additional checking of applicants' qualifications and aptitude for nursing, and gives prospective students opportunity to see and experience student nurse life.

The girls passing orientation-week test will join more than 30 already accepted for the fall freshman class starting Aug. 25. All of those arriving tomorrow ranked in the upper third of their high school graduating classes.

Circus Party

MID-SUMMER FUN—Warm summer evenings offer the chance for al fresco entertaining and Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Myers, 4000 Cooper rd., seized the opportunity last weekend to give a "circus party" at their home. Guests, arriving on a mule-drawn hay wagon (upper left), were welcomed by Mrs. Myers (standing behind the hitching post at left). They came in an assortment of costumes—the more informal the better. Right in the party spirit (center above) were George Stark (left) and Paul Richard. Even "Flippy," the pup, got into costume for the occasion. He appears in the photo at upper right with (left to right) Mr. and Mrs. Nick Connor, Bill Kraft and Mrs. Emory Crawford. As dusk fell, the "chow line" formed under the "big top" (lower left). Nuptial Ceremonies to Be Read In North Methodist Church

Two wedding ceremonies will be read by Dr. Dallas L. Browning tomorrow in North Methodist church where he is pastor.

Miss Virginia Rosalind Selig will become the bride of Charles W. Small at 2:30 p.m. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond H. Selig, 56th st. and Pendleton lake, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Small, Pemberly, O.

Miss Dorothy Carder Derrett, the Hillside Christian church, will read the ceremony in the Olive Branch Christian church.

Mrs. William S. Larmore, the bride's sister, will be the matron of honor. She will wear a turquoise crepe frock.

Mrs. Dorothy Carder Derrett, Mrs. Eva Mae Gaston and Mrs. Frederick Martin, the bridesmaids, will be dressed in yellow, blue and pink taffeta frocks. All the attendants will wear mitts to match their dresses.

The bride's satin gown is fashioned with short sleeves, a flared skirt and a train. A tiara of pearls will hold her finger-illusion veil.
