

Local Deaths—

Mrs. Annie Dawson
Rites TomorrowBurial in Crown Hill
For Musician

Services for Mrs. Annie S. Dawson, 3338 Washington Blvd., who died yesterday in Methodist hospital, will be at 10 a. m. tomorrow in Plummer & Buchanan mortuary. Burial will be in Crown Hill.

Mrs. Dawson was formerly piano accompanist for her daughter, Mrs. Marie Dawson Morrell, Indianapolis violinist, and played throughout the country. She attended schools in Indianapolis and obtained her musical education here.

A lifelong resident of Indianapolis she had been associated with the John Heron Art Institute for the past 20 years. She did membership promotion work for the institute.

The only survivor besides Mrs. Morrell is a nephew, Armond Roach, Indianapolis.

Albert T. Isensee
Dies in West at 81

Albert T. Isensee, former locksmith here, died Saturday at his home in San Diego, Cal., where he had lived for several years. He was 81.

Former operator of Oliver W. Isensee, Inc., locksmith business, Mr. Isensee left Indianapolis in 1900 after residing here 34 years. He had operated automobile businesses in other parts of the country.

He was a member of Oriental lodge, F. & A. M. for 55 years, and was a first lieutenant with Indianapolis division in the Spanish-American war.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Minnie Isensee, San Diego; a sister, Miss Clara Isensee; a nephew, Oliver Lewis Isensee, present operator of the lock business; a cousin, Miss Ada Matthe, all of Indianapolis; and a nephew, Carroll Isensee, Houston, Tex.

Richard Johnston
Funeral Tomorrow

Services for Richard Johnston, retired railroad employee, will be at 9 a. m. tomorrow in St. Patrick Catholic church. Burial will be in Holy Cross cemetery.

Mr. Johnston, who was 80, died Sunday at City hospital. He was a retired foreman of the New York Central railroad roundhouse and had been employed by the company for 33 years. He was born at Adams, Decatur county, and was a member of St. Patrick church. He resided at 1628 Spann ave.

Surviving is a sister, Mrs. Edna Johnson, Orlando, Fla.

TWO KILLED—A private plane piloted by Perry Robinson Jr., Wheaton, Ill., crashed into the top of this radio tower near Chicago, then plunged to the ground; Mr. Robinson and his passenger, Searn L. Rodgers, Wheaton, were both killed in the crash.

Rites Tomorrow
For Ben Miller

Services for Ben H. Miller, who died Sunday in his home, 1236 Nordyke ave., will be at 2 p. m. tomorrow in the Lauck funeral home. Burial will be in Crown Hill.

Mr. Miller, who was 64, was a native of St. Joseph, Mo., but had lived in Indianapolis most of his life. He operated a live bait business at his home until retirement three years ago.

Survivors are his wife, Mrs. Minnie Miller; four daughters, Mrs. Estella Fuller, Mrs. Minnie Atkinson, Miss Barbara Miller and Miss Martha Miller; four sons, Ben H. Miller Jr., Fred Miller, Frank Miller and Edward Miller, all of Indianapolis; a sister, Mrs. Viola Limpert, St. Louis, Mo., and six grandchildren.

Herman E. Schwandt
Dies in Hotel Room

Herman Ernest Schwandt, Indianapolis resident, died yesterday in a downtown hotel room. He was 66.

Deputy Coroner William M. Kelly said death was apparently due to natural causes. Police were unable to obtain Mr. Schwandt's home address.

Charles R. Howe
Rites TomorrowGreensburg Mortician
Dies at Age of 62

Rites for Charles R. Howe, Greensburg mortician, will be at 2:30 p. m. tomorrow in Greensburg Presbyterian church with burial in South Park cemetery there.

Mr. Howe, who is a brother of Lloyd Howe, dean of Indiana College of Mortuary Science here, died yesterday at Methodist hospital. He was 62.

Born in Bartholomew county, Mr. Howe had resided in Greensburg for the past 40 years and had been a mortician for the last 25 years. He was a member of the state and national Funeral Directors' associations, the Presbyterian church, Masonic lodge, Knights of Pythias and Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

Surviving, besides his brother, are two daughters, Mrs. Beulah Mae Gulland and Mrs. Carol Nell Clifton; a sister, Mrs. Glen B. Elliott, all of Greensburg, and two stepsons, Carlos M. Minor, Wabash, and Robert Minor, Greensburg.

Otto E. Wente

Services for Otto E. Wente, who died Sunday in his home, 4709 N. Capitol ave., will be held at 1 p. m. tomorrow in the Plummer & Buchanan mortuary. He was 54. Burial will be at Seymour.

An Indianapolis resident for the past 43 years, Mr. Wente was founder and president of the Wente-Kreis Trucking Co. He was a member of St. Paul's Lutheran church.

Survivors are a brother, Theodore H. Wente, four sisters, Miss Clara Wente, Miss Lila Wente and Mrs. Walter Campbell, all of Indianapolis, and Mrs. John Schaub, Tampa, Fla.

Steward Glenn

Services for Steward Glenn will be tomorrow at 10 a. m. at Jacobus Brothers West Side chapel. Burial will be in Woodhaven.

Mr. Glenn, a native of Tennessee, died Saturday. He was 75. He was an Indianapolis resident for 34 years and lived at 1114 N. Belmont ave. His only surviving relative is a cousin, Mrs. Anna D. Rocks, Indianapolis.

Nursing Scholarships
Set Up for Local Girls

Two nursing school $200 scholarships exclusively for Indianapolis girls have been established by Mr. and Mrs. Herman C. Krannert of Traders Point.

The scholarships are being financed through the scholarship committee of Indiana State Medical association. The association itself recently voted $1200 a year for six scholarships for nursing students.

Charles Glasson,
Carpenter, Dies

Charles Glasson, a carpenter, 1928 N. Pennsylvania st., died yesterday in Flower Mission hospital. He was 80.

He had been retired for the past 10 years, but formerly was employed nine years by the city schools, and 12 years by the Buford Printing Co.

Mr. Glasson was a native of Seymour and a member of the Knights of Pythias lodge.

Survivors are two daughters, Mrs. Katherine Burris and Mrs. Margaret Hankins, and two sons, Irvin Glasson and Charles Glasson Jr., all of Indianapolis; a brother, Tipton Glasson, Seymour; two grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Services will be held at 10 a. m. tomorrow in Shibley Brothers Irving Hill chapel. Burial will be at Redding, Jackson county.

Dock H. Lee Sr.
Rites Tomorrow

Services for Dock H. Lee Sr., employee of the Polar Ice and Fuel Co. for the past 30 years, will be held at 1 p. m. tomorrow in the New Baptist church. Burial will be in New Crown.

Mr. Lee, born in Harding county, Ky., in 1880, lived at 1014 Roache st. and had been a local resident for 45 years.

He is survived by his wife, Louise; two sons, Dock Jr. and William; his daughters, Mrs. Alice Roberts and Mrs. Ida Rouse, and three brothers, Harvey, Daniel and Arthur, all of Indianapolis.

Another daughter, Miss Arbell Lee, and his sister, Mrs. Eva Watts, live in Detroit.

Miss Mae Mills
Dies in Hospital

Miss Mae Mills, 247 E. Raymond st., died yesterday in St. Francis hospital. She was 68.

Born in Johnson county, Miss Mills lived here 40 years and was employed in the alteration department at H. P. Wasson & Co. 17 years. She was a member of the Christian church at Nineveh.

Services will be at 2 p. m. Thursday in Nineveh Christian church followed by burial there.

Survivors are a brother, Thomas A. Mills, Franklin, two nieces and two nephews.

Ben Elmann

Services for Ben Elmann, retired tailor who died here last night while visiting his step-son, will be held at his home in Vero Beach, Fla.

Mr. Elmann, who was 72, died at the home of Vernon LeMann, 4616 E. 17th st.

Mrs. Minnie Peek
Dies at HomeFuneral Thursday
For Jeweler's Widow

Mrs. Minnie Peek, widow of Charles C. Peek, jeweler, died Sunday in her home, 2112 N. Delaware st. She was 88.

A life resident of Indianapolis, Mrs. Peek was a member of the Zion Evangelical and Reformed church.

Survivors are a daughter, Mrs. William Gambill, Indianapolis; two sisters, Mrs. C. F. Hoefler, Indianapolis, and Mrs. Martha Kallach, Germany, and a brother, Carl F. Gierke, Indianapolis.

Services will be held at 1:30 p. m. Thursday in the Plummer & Buchanan mortuary. Burial will be in Crown Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Clara Burge

Services and burial for Mrs. Clara Burge will be this week in Forrest, Miss., but the time has not been set.

Mrs. Burge, an Indianapolis resident for the past two years, died Sunday. She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Maggie Beaman, and one granddaughter, Indianapolis. She lived at 858 W. 29th st.

Clark Funeral
At Clarksburg

Services for Edward O. Clark, retired farmer, who died yesterday in his home near Clarksburg in DeWitt county, will be at 2 p. m. tomorrow in the Clarksburg Christian church. Burial will be at East Hill cemetery in Rushville.

Mr. Clark, who was 73, was a long time resident of southern Rush county. He was the father of Mrs. Isabelle Tarplee and Mrs. Bessie Kincaid of Indianapolis.

Survivors besides the two daughters are another daughter, Mrs. Florence Lishy, Rush county, and three grandchildren.

Dies After Retirement

PETERBORO, N. H., Sept. 2 (U. P.).—Dr. William E. Wickenden, 64, died of heart disease at a hospital yesterday, less than 24 hours after his retirement as president of Case Institute of Technology at Cleveland, O., became effective.

MAIN SPRING ARCH
SHOES
WALK-OVER

25 N. PENN.
"Across from Low's Theater"

Brake Service Wheel Balancing Shock Absorbers Steering Service

Wheel Aligning

KING PINS INSTALLED FRONT END REBUILDING

EARL GREEN

CAPITOL 0682 35 N. ALABAMA

36 HURT NEAR ROME

ROME, Sept. 2 (U. P.).—Thirty-six persons were injured yesterday when an electric passenger train and a freight train collided head-on nine miles from Rome.

Ship Movements

Scheduled ship movements today: Arriving at New York—Gripsholm from Goteborg; Borinquen from San Juan. Leaving New York: Henry Gibbons to Bremerhaven; Mark Hanna to Oslo; Vendem to Rotterdam; Esso Raleigh to Aruba.

SAWDUST PLASTIC NORMAN (U. P.).—Sawdust and sulphuric acid are among the simple ingredients of a plastic developed by Dr. Robert A. Hardin, professor of industrial education at University of Oklahoma.

DOWNSTAIRS STORE VALUE

SOLID OAK—white or natural finish

★ TABLE is 30x42 inches in size, equipped with 10-inch leaf that permits it to open to 52 inches. Substantial, nicely proportioned. Rounded corners, modern trim.

★ CHAIRS have comfortable wide seats, one-piece back posts, well braced thruout. Nicely finished and also carefully trimmed.

★ Deferred Payments
If Desired!

Banner Whitehill
DOWNSTAIRS STORE

AYRES' DOWNSTAIRS STORE

BRINGS RARE HOME BEAUTY . . . TO THRIFTY HOMEMAKERS . . . INEXPENSIVELY!

JUST ARRIVED IN TIME FOR FALL SEWING!

"Hi Tyme" Serge $1.69 yd.
Lovely 54" serge (20% wool and 80% rayon) in a tremendous assortment of beautiful colors for fall! Comes in white, black, navy, hunter green, red, brown, powder, wine, aqua and gold.

54-Inch Gabardine $2.79 yd.
Just in time for your fall wardrobe! Fine quality 20% wool, 80% rayon gabardine in six gorgeous colors: green, navy, wine, brown, royal and black.

"Hi Lassie" Plaids $2.50 yd.
Grand for back to school sewing . . . this 54" soft crepe plaid (32% wool 68% rayon) in pretty colors of grey, red, navy, black and brown.

"Hi-Ho" Shepherd Checks $1.98 yd.
Put this on your list of "musts" for Fall! -Shepherd checks (40% wool, 60%-rayon) in smart combinations of black and white, or blue and white.

DRESS-MAKING NEWS

"E. Z. Make"

54" Tubular WOOL JERSEY Dress Lengths

$4.95 each

The new nail-head trimmed creation that's so easy to make, so smart to wear! Comes in 1 3/4-yard lengths of tubular all wool worsted jersey with nail-head trim. In grey, wine, kelly green, aqua, copen, brown, royal, black and forest green. You'll want several of these easily made dresses . . . and note the tiny price!

SHOP EARLY AT AYRES
9:00 TO 5:25
TUESDAY THRU SATURDAY
CLOSED MONDAYS

Rayon-Wool Crepe $1.98 yd.
Be sure to include this in your fall wardrobe plans! -Lovely, soft-crepe (47 1/2% rayon, 32% wool, 20 1/2% acetate) in new fall shades of blue, green, grey, black, aqua; white and brown.

36-Inch Striped Chambray 69c yd.
Beautiful light and dark shades for dresses and blouses, in this wonderful, washable striped chambray. Comes in a variety of popular fast colors.

39" Plaid Rayon Taffeta $1.19 and $1.59 yd.
Everyone is asking for these bright, rustling taffeta plaids! They come in various color combinations that are ideal for skirts, dresses and formals.

YARD GOODS—Downstairs at AYRES'

Printed Broadcloth
Remnants 39c yd.

Attractive patterns in wonderful broadcloth, 36-inches wide, in a variety of fast colors. All in usable lengths.

Percal Prints 80x80 Count 49c yd.

Slight seconds of 80-square percale prints in a large variety of color combinations and patterns.

36-Inch Checked
GINGHAM 59c yd.

Colorful gingham checks in green, lavender, yellow, rose, blue and black.

SEWING ACCESSORIES

Smart Buttons, card . . . 10c and 25c
ONT Mercerized Thread 5c
ONT Sewing Thread 10c ea. 3 for 25c
Lace and Embroidered Edgings 10c to 39c yd.
Talon Zippers 25c to 45c ea.
Simplicity Patterns 15c to 25c ea.
McCall Patterns 25c to 75c ea.