

ere void

Fall

nd. Democrats
O. P. private ecline in Re-since last action against bill are chief

the poll last one of five
ship Mr. Truows Mr. Trud of all but poll shows
per cent since er of voters
ans will win

or back from
P. must find side of price
"It's hard to who remember PA that for-corn crop ages are keeposts up." He little senti-
one of G. O.

ers find com-
ty that wins
election cus-residency two ound

and another ex-tic, this win-
fare that sur-
ect. News men y officer will spatches. It's neither Adm.
en, leaders of
go along.
to learn more open water in m air along Another: To
mapping.

s will deter-ent period of last. A. F. of
I have ended
by Oct. 20
toward Taft-

pleased with point to sevements and et since early most of or-ly excepting
, will aban-
coats of nas board.

ION chiefs
sal by world
create Legion
with full-time
y, they said,
whose views
going regime,
ing with new
James P.
ded with miorment of ner general
a real estate
fighting. Mr.
acate harsh gion housing
yor O'Dwyer
in D. Roose-

ment on Mr.
mountain-
for flowers;
et orchids—

ERS

ve been provide le heat-
in a
There is

ing Model plant and tion.

ing in inish.

7,500 cu.
on nt

Labora-
d!
Biu.

Tank.

or 24 hrs.

Oil.

Ring.

116 lbs.

0

AND TORE

R-3292

U

Price-Metzger Ceremony Is Read

Wedding vows uniting Miss Mary Dale Metzger and Robert M. Price were read at 2 o'clock this afternoon by the Rev. Marcus Johnson, pastor of the First Congregational church. The ceremony was in Sweeney chapel at Butler university.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Metzger, formerly of Indianapolis and now of Cleveland, are the bride's parents. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond S. Price, 45 E. 46th st.

The bride's sister, Ann, was her maid of honor. She wore a daffodil yellow marquiset frock with a matching bonnet and mitts.

A white marquiset and Breton lace gown was worn by the bride. It was made with a sheer yoke edged with a lace bertha; front pannels, and a chapel train.

A matching lace bonnet held her fingertip illusion veil. She carried a white orchid surrounded by tuberoses and ivy.

Donald A. Baker was the best man, and the ushers were Robert M. Coyner and James W. Sale.

A reception was held in the north parlor of the Marriott hotel after the ceremony. Following a trip to Virginia Beach, Va., the couple will live at the Marriott hotel.

The bride is a graduate of DePauw university where she was a member of Alpha Phi sorority. The bridegroom, a Sigma Chi fraternity member, is attending Butler university.

Bishop to Read Nuptial Vows

The Rt. Rev. Richard A. Kirchoff, bishop of the Indianapolis diocese, will read the marriage service for Miss Elise Joanne MacDonald and Robert Ray Reim at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon in the Advent Episcopal church.

Miss MacDonald is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William T. MacDonald, 5673 N. Guilford ave. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Myrtle W. Reim, St. Charles, Ill., and Percy R. Reim, Geneva, Ill.

Mrs. Betty Reim Voorhaar, Elgin, Ill., the matron of honor, will wear an aqua satin dress. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Robert Gallenbeck, Plainfield, and Miss Patricia George Harley, Richmond Heights, Mo., will wear bronze rose frocks.

The best man will be John Harley MacDonald, brother of the bride. The ushers will be Herman Westerburg, Chicago; George Meyerat, Des Moines, Iowa; Maurice Nelson, St. Charles, Ill., and James Durka.

An ivory satin gown accented with seed pearls will be worn by the bride. Her three-tiered illusion veil will cascade from a tiara of pearls. She will carry white roses and stephanotis with an orchid center.

After a reception at the Marriott hotel, the couple will leave for a trip to New Orleans. They will be at home later this month in Aurora, Ill.

Miss MacDonald was graduated from All Saints Episcopal college.

Sorority Alumnae Book Meeting

The Indianapolis alumnae chapter of Gamma Phi Beta sorority will meet at 7:30 p. m. Monday for a dessert and business meeting. Mrs. Alfred E. Kuers, 401 W. Westfield Blvd., will be the hostess.

Mrs. Robert H. Heine, vice president, will preside in the absence of the president, Mrs. Gaylord A. Gouley.

Textbook Trek

Society—

Students Prepare for Their Annual September Journey Back to Colleges and Universities After Summer Holiday

By JEAN TABBERT

THE TRECK BACK TO TEXTBOOKS is about to get underway as it does at this time each year. And scores of Indianapolis girls will be heading for colleges and universities all over the country. Ann Huesmann, who will be a freshman at Mount Holyoke this year, will visit her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Pearce, in East Orange, N. J., before she goes to South Hadley, Mass. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis M. Huesmann. Mrs. Huesmann will go east with her daughter, Nancy Judy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Judy, who will leave Sept. 14 for Vassar college. Before she leaves, she'll attend the debut dance of her roommate, Ann Jeffris, Winnetka, Ill., on Friday. The girls, sophomores, will return to college together.

JOAN MINNEMAN, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Minneman, will go to Wheaton College for Women, Norton, Mass., for her freshman year. Leaving Sept. 16 for Finch Junior college in New York will be Alex Thomson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Thomson. Jody Thomas will enroll in Mt. Vernon Junior college in Washington for her first year. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis R. Thomas. Betsy Arensman is planning to return to Briarcliff Junior college, Briarcliff Manor, N. Y., as a senior this year. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Arensman.

Peggy Short, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Short, will visit her aunt, Mrs. Eugene Ward, in Gainesville, Ga., before she returns to school there at Brenau college. Mary Caroline Goodwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John K. Goodwin, will enroll at Lindenwood college, St. Charles, Mo., as a freshman. She will leave for school Sept. 17. Her sister, Betsy, will be a junior at Wellesley college.

A large group of girls leaving Wednesday for William Woods college in Fulton, Mo., will include Juanita Trotter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Trotter. Also in the group will be Helen Hodges, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale H. Hodges; Caroline Hummel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin J. Hummel; Pat Fricke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Fricke; Mary Massa, Mr. and Mrs. Don Massa's daughter and Betty Reel, daughter of Leonard O. Reel. Gloria Tuerk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Tuerk, will go to Fulton on Monday to assist with plans for welcoming students at the school. She is a senior.

Suzanne Bray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walker M. Bray, will leave for Colorado college at Colorado Springs, where she will be a junior. Sydney Sullivan, Mrs. S. A. Sullivan's daughter, will return to Charleston college, Northfield, Minn., Sept. 16. Nancy Sewell will spend a week with her roommate, Jane Murray of Bluehill, Me., before they return to Vassar college. Nancy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm C. Sewell, left yesterday for Maine. All set to be a freshman at Vassar, Joan Spitznagel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Spitznagel, will leave Sept. 15 for Poughkeepsie, N. Y. Entering her senior year at Vassar will be Joan Warvel, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John H. Warvel.

A trio of Pine Manor Junior college students will return to Wellesley, Mass., Sept. 23. Traveling together will be Sally Stokely, daughter of Mrs. John B. Stokely; Macy Glendening, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Glendening, and Georgia White, granddaughter of Mrs. Paul H. White. Also heading east—to Radcliffe college in Cambridge, Mass.—will be Emily Flickinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan W. Flickinger; Flo Mary Foreman, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Harry L. Foreman, and Anne Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Clark's daughter.

Leaving together Sept. 16 for Wellesley will be Lucinda Kryter, daughter of the Harry C. Kryters, and Portia Hurd, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McMurray. Another to be there this year is Mary Jean Milner, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Joan S. Milner. She will be a freshman. Sophomores at the school will include Helen Rogers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Rogers, and Jo Ann Summers, Mr. and Mrs. Paul R. Summers' daughter. Returnees juniors will be Ann Lindstaedt, daughter of Mr. Mrs. Arthur O. Lindstaedt; Elizabeth Insley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Insley, and Mary Elizabeth Ancker, Capt. and Mrs. Clinton J. Ancker's daughter. Joan Sherwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer W. Sherwood, will be a senior.

Joan Foltz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard F. Foltz, will matriculate at Western college, Oxford, O., this year. Many girls have selected their home state as background for college training. Leaving for DePauw university at Greencastle will be Marcia and Elizabeth Finley, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Finley. They will be a junior and a senior, respectively. Ann Keeney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George O. Lehman Jr., will be a freshman. Others who will attend DePauw are Beverly Potts, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil W. Potts' daughter; Adeline Kadel, daughter of George W. Kadel, and Jean Swaim, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Nathan Swaim.

ENTERING BUTLER UNIVERSITY will be Harriet Margaret Fisher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell S. Fisher, and Patia Anne Hosea, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Hosea. Jane Stith will leave Wednesday for her freshman year at Purdue university. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stith. Another first-year student will be Shirley Hardin, daughter of the James T. Hardins. Joan Courtney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Courtney, and Jean Fuller, the Harry R. Fullers' daughter, also will go to West Lafayette. Sue and Isobel Griffith, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Griffith, will be sophomores at Purdue this year. Flo Ann McMullen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McMullen, and Mary Beth Rowan, the Gerald G. Rowans' daughter, also will be Purdue undergraduates.

Caroline Costin, the J. W. Costins' daughter, will go to DePauw as will Sally Mitchell, the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Edward L. Mitchell. Maryann Compton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don E. Compton, will be at the university for her final year. Another DePauw student will be Caroline Smith, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. David L. Smith.

Among the many who will return to Indiana university are Eileen Sidman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd H. Sidman; Sally Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Dwight Peterson; Priscilla Babbitt, the John H. Babbitts' daughter; Betty Wrege, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Wrege, and Charlotte Chrisney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Garland Chrisney.

IN THE BACK-TO-BOOKS PARADE—September spells the end of the summer vacation from textbook and campus. Here are some of the girls who are busy getting ready for the back-to-school movement... and "sandwiching in" their final taste of holiday leisure. Upper left: Joan Foltz (standing by car) and (left to right) Jody Thomas, Ann Huesmann, Harriet Margaret Fisher and Alex Thomson. Center above: Suzanne Bray (left) and Patia Anne Hosea. Upper right: Joan Minneman, Jane Stith and Ann Keeney (left to right). Lower left: Betsy Arensman, Nancy Judy and Peggy Short (left to right). Lower right: Juanita Trotter, Mary Caroline Goodwin and Shirley Hardin (left to right).

Nancy Young To Be Wed

The Rev. Roy B. Connor Jr. will read the ceremony uniting Miss Nancy Ann Young and Richard Sharp Thompson at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon. The ceremony will be in the Meridian Heights Presbyterian church.

Miss Young is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Young, 4471 College ave. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Glenn M. Thompson, 4726 Rockwood ave.

The maid of honor, Miss Ann Metzger, Cleveland, will wear a yellow marquiset dress. The bridesmaids will be Miss Lucy Rhoadarmer of Waterloo, Miss Mary Kathryn McIntyre and Miss Eleanor Mauch. They will wear blue moire taffeta frocks.

Robert L. Thompson, brother of the bridegroom, will be the best man. The ushers will be Werner Siems, Evansville; James Thompson, Niles, Mich., and Bruce Dotz.

The bride will wear a gown of candlelight satin with a full hoop skirt forming a train. Her fingertip illusion veil will fall from a lace halo, and she will carry gardenias.

After a reception at the Marriott hotel, the couple will leave for a trip to Cincinnati and through the Smoky mountains. They will be at home after Sept. 20 in Bloomington where the bridegroom is attending Indiana university.

Mrs. J. L. Cadick To Entertain Club

Members of the Indiana Vassar club will meet for luncheon at 1 p. m. Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Jeremiah L. Cadick, 3505 Washington Blvd.

Students attending Vassar college now will be guests at the meeting. Miss Nancy Judy will entertain with piano selections.

Founders' Dinner

The Lambda chapter of Delta Sigma Kappa sorority held its Founders' day dinner at McClary's restaurant recently. Mrs. Carl Puhmann and Miss Mary Lucas were in charge of the dinner arrangements.

The Bride's Cousin Officiates At Franklin-Freihage Rite

A high mass followed the ceremony uniting Miss Mary Joan Freihage and Earl James Franklin this morning at 10 o'clock in St. Joan of Arc Catholic church.

The Very Rev. Msgr. Romuald Mollaun, O. P. M., Cincinnati, a cousin of the bride, read the vows. Mrs. Franklin is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Freihage, 4102 Ruckle st. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Franklin, Belfast, N. Y.

The bride's sister, Miss Shirley Freihage, was the maid of honor. She wore a blue-green taffeta dress with matching hat. The bridesmaids, Miss Melrose Franklin, Rochester, N. Y., a sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Marjorie Cain, wore frocks of American Beauty taffeta and matching hats.

The bride, a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority, was graduated from Butler university. Mr. Franklin is Carl Henn and Ross Richards. The bride wore a gown of candlelight satin.

Motor Trip to Northern Indiana Follows Holmes-Cook Marriage

Walter Laney Holmes will wed Miss Janet Rose Cook this afternoon. The 4:30 o'clock ceremony will be read by the bride's father, Dr. Gaines M. Cook, in Dr. and Mrs. Cook's home at 5321 N. Pennsylvania st. Mr. Holmes is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Holmes of Greenville, Miss.

The maid of honor, Miss Charlotte Holmes, and the bridesmaid, Miss Margaret Holmes, are sisters of the bridegroom. Both are of Greenville. They will wear dresses of gold and turquoise taffeta.

Robert F. Neu, Plainfield, N. J., will be the best man. A brother of the bride, Gaines M. Cook Jr., Cleveland, will be the usher.

The bride will wear a candlelight satin gown. A lace tiara will hold her fingertip illusion veil. She will carry a shower arrangement of stephanotis with a white orchid on a white Bible.

After a reception in the home, the couple will leave for a motor trip to a northern Indiana resort. They will be at home in Ithaca, N. Y., after Sept. 15.

The bride was graduated from Cornell university and is a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority. The bridegroom is attending Cornell.

List Workers In Symphony Sales Drive

Mrs. Walter P. Morton, chairman of the Indianapolis symphony orchestra's season ticket campaign, has named her staff for the opening week, Sept. 15 through Sept. 19.

The volunteer workers for this period include Mesdames Earl B. Barnes, R. C. Becherer, Easley R. Blackwood, George W. Bowman, Hortense Rauh Burpee, Marvin E. Curle, Stewart A. Greene, William Herbert Gibbs, Susan Shedd Hemingway.

Mesdames T. Victor Keene, William MacGregor Morris, Burke Nicholas, Garland F. Retherford, Everett N. Schofield, Charles F. Voyles, Harry V. Wade and Elias B. Wells, Miss Grace Greene and Miss Josephine Madden.

The evening staff for the first week of the campaign will be volunteer workers from Ayres'. Miss Helen Hollingsworth is their chairman.

Following the same campaign organization plan as last year, all volunteer workers will operate from the orchestra headquarters in the Murat temple, where definite seat locations can be assigned immediately to subscribers.

For preferential seat locations, prospective season ticket subscribers are asked to call the orchestra's headquarters either before or during the campaign rather than wait to be called by the workers.

Vows Pledged In Chapel

John Marvin Marshall took Miss Mary Jo Beazell as his bride at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon in McKee chapel of the Tabernacle Presbyterian church. The Rev. Joseph W. Johnston read the marriage service.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Harry L. Beazell, 3311 Broadway. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John J. Marshall, Jeffersonville.

The maid of honor was Miss Betty Graves. She wore an American Beauty taffeta frock.

Bruce J. Stout, Peoria, Ill., was the best man. Robert Marshall, Jeffersonville, and John Beazell were ushers.

The bride's gown of candlelight satin had a full skirt ending in a chapel train. Her two-tiered illusion veil was attached to a headband of stephanotis.

After a reception at the home of the bride's mother, the couple will leave for a wedding trip. They will make their home with the bride's mother after Sept. 15.

The bride, a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority, was graduated from Indiana university. Mr. Marshall attended the university for two years and will enter Butler university this fall.

Athenaeum Auxiliary Will Have Dinner

The Women's auxiliary of the Athenaeum Turners will open their fall and winter season with a 6 p. m. dinner Monday at the Athenaeum.

The dinner will be followed by a "get acquainted" party. Mrs. George J. Burns is the program chairman.

Meeting Monday

The Catherine Merrill tent 9. Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War, will meet at 1:30 p. m. Monday in the Odd Fellows hall, 2615 E. 10th st. Mrs. Francis Buis, president, will conduct the meeting.

50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Willett, 2702 Manker st., will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary with an open house tomorrow afternoon.