J. Harry Sargeant Dies In Methodist Hospital

J. Harry Sargeant, 2422 E. Northgate St., died today in Methodist Hospital. He was 37.

Born in New York city, Mr. Sargeant spent most of his life in Indianapolis, and was a broker here for three years. He attended Rose Polytechnic Institute, and was a member of Sigma Nu Fraternity there.

He is survived by his wife, Marian Power Sargeant, Indianapolis; a son, Thomas, Indianapolis; his mother, Mrs. Mary F. Sargeant, Glendale, Cal.; a brother, Charles L. Indianapolis, and a sister, Mrs. Robert L. Baler, Glendale, Cal.

Funeral services in the Flanner & Buchanan mortuary have not been arranged.

William John Hurley

Services for William John Hurley, who died yesterday after a brief illness, will be held tomorrow at 1 p. m. in the G. H. Herrmann funeral home. Burial will be in New Crown. He was 56.

Mr. Hurley was a night watchman. A Minnesota native, he had been a local resident since 1942. He and Mrs. Hurley lived at 1924 E. Troy Ave.

Survivors in addition to his wife include his mother, Mrs. Frances Hurley; his sister, Mrs. Frances Schenck; a brother, Daniel Hurley, all of Atkinson, Neb.; and another brother in Arkansas. The Rev. W. L. Totty, pastor of the Garfield Heights Church of Christ, will conduct the services.

Arthur J. Lines

Services for Arthur J. Lines, who died today in his home, 2110 E. 75th St., will be held Thursday in the Bratton Brothers funeral home in Lebanon, Ind.

Mr. Lines, who was 80, was born in Boone county, and had lived in Indianapolis since 1932.

He was a member of the Covenant Masonic Lodge 758 in Brooklyn, N. Y., and was a member of Irving Square Presbyterian Church there.

Survivors include two brothers, William H. Lines, Lebanon, Ind.; Charles G. Lines, Indianapolis, and several nieces and nephews.

William C. Hubbard

Services for William C. Hubbard, who died yesterday in the Masonic Home in Franklin, will be at 2:30 p. m. tomorrow in the G. H. Herrmann funeral home. Burial will be in Washington Park.

Mr. Hubbard, who was 71, was reported to be sleeping soundly last member of Prospect Lodge, Inc., and A. M., and had been a resident at the Masonic Home for about 10 years. He was employed for 30 years at Langenkamp-Wheeler Brass Works until his retirement downtown.

Doctors said that this week's operation would be the first of two—both delicate, but necessary to save him from death within two years.

Evan John Roberts Rites Here Today

Services for Evan John Roberts, who died Saturday in General Hospital, were to be held today in Voigt funeral home. Burial was to be in Glen Haven.

Mr. Roberts, who was 74, was a native of St. Clair, Pa. He was formerly employed as a coal miner in Siedala, Ill. He had lived in Indianapolis 10 years.

Fred Prifogle

Mr. Prifogle, who died Sunday after a short illness, was a native of Franklin County, and had lived in Indianapolis since 1915. He was 92.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Essie Prifogle; a daughter, Mrs. Christine Limpus, and several nieces and nephews, all of Indianapolis.

Mrs. Jennie D. Bevis

Services for Mrs. Jennie D. Bevis, who died yesterday at her home, 1123 N. King Ave., will be 1:30 tomorrow in Shirley Brothers West Side Chapel. Burial will be in Floral Park. She was 64.

A life-long resident of Indianapolis, she had been a stenographer for the H. H. Woodsmall Co. 32 years.

Survivors are two sisters, Mrs. Jessie E. Dinkut, Indianapolis, and Mrs. Leah Brackett, Brownsburg.

Nubbins Faces 1000 to 1 Odds

DENVER, Oct. 7 (U. P.)—Forrest (Nubbins) Hoffman was in a Denver hospital today for a diagnosis and checkup in preparation for a serious kidney operation.

The odds are about 1000-to-1 against him.

The 6-year-old, whose home is in Cheyenne, Wyo., won out over similar odds in 1944, when it was thought he would not live for Christmas.

He celebrated the day—with toys from well-wishers throughout the nation—in November.

Attendants, who said he was not scheduled for surgery today, reported for surgery today, reported he was sleeping soundly last member of Prospect Lodge, Inc., and A. M., and had been a resident at the Masonic Home for about 10 years. He was employed for 30 years at Langenkamp-Wheeler Brass Works until his retirement downtown.

Doctors said that this week's operation would be the first of two—both delicate, but necessary to save him from death within two years.
