

Washington High Juniors Elect

Glenn Hawkins Heads School Class

Washington High School's junior class has elected officers for the year. The new officers are Glenn Hawkins, president; Dale Powell, vice president; Kathryn Hendrickson, secretary; Winfield Dittmore, treasurer, and Lowell Thomas and Richard Crittenden, sergeant at arms.

Six girls and six boys have been chosen as the varsity and reserve yell leading squads at Washington. The students are Barbara Carter, Shirley Fulton, Doris Inkoff, Dorothy Nicloff, Patricia Whitmore, Sue Wilson, Clarke Brown, William Harrell, Norman Jones, Philip Riffey, Gordon Shedd and Tommy Walls.

Fourteen students from the Washington senior class have been chosen to compete for the Pepsi-Cola scholarship awards.

Practical Floral Designs Demonstrated by Artist

Alfred deMero, design artist for Florist Telegraph Delivery Association, demonstrated unusual practical floral designs, during an afternoon and evening session for members of the Allied Florists Association of Indianapolis and the State Florists Association last Wednesday. The program was under the direction of the Central Indiana FTD Association headed by Kenneth Eltel of Greencastle.

Mr. deMero is conducting design schools for the FTD throughout the nation. More than 8000 members of the association will learn new floral arranging through this clinic system.

Dentist Reopens Office Here

Dr. Cecil C. Cohen, Indianapolis dentist who practiced here eight years before entering the army, announces the reopening of his office at 1129 S. Meridian St.

Dr. Cohen entered the armed services in April 1942 and spent 28 months in North Africa and Italy as a regimental dental surgeon with the 88th Infantry Division.

Following his discharge he served as assistant chief of dental service at the U. S. Veterans Hospital, Lexington, Ky., and later at the regional office in Louisville, Ky. Dr. Cohen is a graduate of Butler University and Indiana University School of Dentistry.

Hereford Men To Meet Nov. 2-3

Times State Service

LAFAYETTE, Oct. 24.—The annual Indiana Hereford "get-together" will be held here Nov. 2 and 3, according to an announcement from Henry Mayo of the Purdue University animal husbandry department.

Eleven bulls and 47 females will be on display at the Purdue judging pavilion, on both days of the meeting, and on Monday morning, Nov. 3, the cattle will be judged by Allen Rush, Hi Point Farms, Romeo, Mich. The cattle will be sold at auction at 1 p. m. Monday. The annual banquet will be held Sunday evening, Nov. 2 at 6 p. m. in the Fowler hotel.

Mr. deMero is conducting design schools for the FTD throughout the nation. More than 8000 members of the association will learn new floral arranging through this clinic system.
