

Pakistan Balks at UN Action on Kashmir

KARACHI, Pakistan, Jan. 2 (UP)—The Muslim state of Pakistan has refused to submit the Kashmir issue to the United Nations as requested by India, Pakistan Foreign Minister Sir Humid Zafulla Khan said today.

welcome United Nations intervention to settle outstanding issues between the two new dominions, but would reject submission of the isolated issue of Kashmir.

WORLD, VENUS LIKE TWINS

The planet Venus and the earth are almost identical twins in size, the earth having a diameter only 327 miles greater.

Percy Finally Gets 'Tied' By Congressman's Yule Gift

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2 (UP)—Percy De Grange, who has made a career out of relieving Congressmen of their gift headaches, confessed today that he is stumped.

"Yes sir," he confided, "I finally got a tie that I can't wear. And the worst part of it is that I can't give it to my sister to put in that quilt she's making."

Percy, an elevator operator at the Capitol, pulled from his pocket a long yellow strip of silk adorned with an unadorned pin-up girl.

"I'd really stop the show with that one," he said. "But it's no go. Some of the page boys' mothers might complain."

Percy became a hero several years ago when he gleefully accepted a purple and orange striped crayon from a Congressman who had been stuck with the creation for a Christmas present.

Other Congressmen caught on quickly and within a week Percy shops.

'The Moan' Traced To a Radio Groan

"The Moan," which has been plaguing certain East Side residents lately, took a police squad to English Ave. and Pleasant Run Blvd. last night.

After cocking his ear to the mysterious noise, the origin of which is unknown, Sgt. Albert Beck sent in a radio report that the noise sounded like "static from a radio."

He said he thought it "might be" coming from the Hawthorne railroad yards or the Beech Grove Big 4 shops.

IN DRAMA — Virginia Patton and Hank Daniels, who are starred in "The Burning Cross," current feature at the Ambassador-Alamo.

Magazine Editor Dies Here at 57

GREENFIELD, Jan. 2.—Alva Julian Chubb, managing editor of the National Engineers, a professional magazine published in Chicago, died at Methodist Hospital in Indianapolis last night. He was 57.

Mr. Chubb, an engineer and World War I veteran, was a world traveler and moved to Greenfield from Kewanee, Ill., recently.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Marcia Hough Chubb; two daughters, Rosemary and Delores Chubb, both of Wilmette; a son, Alva, Angola, and a granddaughter.

Services will be held at 2 p. m. Saturday at Pasco Funeral Home, with burial in Park Cemetery.

Astronomers Name Hazel Brooks '47 Star

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 2 (UP)—Hazel Brooks was notified today the Student Astronomers League had named her 1947's outstanding star discovery.

The astronomers said they chose Miss Brooks because of her debut in "Body and Soul" and because her contract with Enterprise Studios was signed at 12:12 a. m. Jan. 1, 1947, the first of that year.

OPEN DAILY 9 P. M.

THE GREATEST SALE ON EARTH? ...

Perhaps that's stretching it a bit because we don't know what's going on behind Joe Stalin's "Iron Curtain" ... but we do know that we are taking the rap for a lot of mistakes our buyer made and our LOSS is your GAIN!

HURRY! HURRY! ... OPEN EVES 'TIL 9

ARMY SURPLUS BUNK BEDS

"We have done our hitch for our country, why can't we retire on a pension like the big brass," so wall these bunk beds ... Confidentially, they never got out of the country. You G. I.'s certainly know all about us. How about it, buddy, aren't we really a buy—upper and lower—bunk beds and 2 springs $9.95 All for

EASIEST TERMS IN MANY YEARS

"All I know is what I read in the papers" ... but you don't have to be as smart as the late Will Rogers to know that Uncle Sam is going to make you pay more money down and bigger payments very soon. Buy now on easiest terms.

ALL BURNER DOOR MATS

If they didn't track snow or mud into your house last week, just slip this item. Of course you can take off your shoes at the door. It's easier to wipe them on these 33 values 79c

WALNUT OR MAHOGANY VENEER 5-TUBE RADIOS

If these sets came from a well-known family like the Philips, the Admirals or others of the upper crust, we would have sold them long ago. Just like a kid born on the other side of the tracks we got left out in the Christmas rush. Worth $39.95 of any one's dough. Out we go. $24.95

3-Pc. Modern Bedroom Suites

"Have you gone crazy? Those suites have gone up at the manufacturer's price to where they should sell for $149.95." That's what our buyer said to the ad man. While 5 Suites last $99

WOODEN BEDS

Some of these beds are members of the "old guard." Frankly, we have too big a selection of odd beds, and more folks want metal ones.

Did You Say $19.95 $12.95 Take 'Em Away!

2-PC. MOHAIR LIVING ROOM SUITE

There ain't no mo' hair on our floor manager's head after the way we scalped the price on this suite $159.95 from $214.50 to

2-PC. VELOUR LIVING ROOM SUITE

Too little ... and too late. Too little response to the ad; our copy writer wrote a dud. Too late for us to do anything about $1299.50 It but slash the price. $169.50 Values. SLASH

ALUMINUM GRIDDLES

So you old man likes a stack of what-cakes. Let him cook 'em himself. These $2.25 upon aluminum griddles are selling like hotcakes at 95c

LINOLEUM HALL RUNNERS

We are long on runners and short on customers for them. Can't find anything wrong with 'em. Shucks, not 'em. 39c

Table Lamps

We hered all our eye-sores and lamps which are soiled or where one of the pair was broken into one group. Serve us and more. $1.95

Metal Smokers

Odds and ends—we will end it all if we can't get people to buy these regular $2.95 sellers at $1.49

Waste Baskets

Why waste time telling you about them if you don't need one. 49c
