Graebner to Join Butler's Faculty

Prof. H. C. Graebner, former Valparaiso University faculty member, has been appointed head of the insurance division in the College of Business Administration at Butler University.

Prof. Graebner succeeds Dr. Robert I. Mehr, who has accepted a position with the University of Illinois faculty.

Mr. Graebner holds a Huebner Foundation Fellowship in the Graduate School of Arts and Letters, University of Pennsylvania. He is a graduate from Valparaiso University and Northwestern University.

Besides the post on the Valparaiso faculty, Prof. Graebner was with the Westminster College faculty, American Institute of Banking, and has served as supervisor of Chartered Life Underwriters' Study groups in Youngstown, O.

Mr. Graebner is a member of the American Association of University Professors, American Marketing Association, American Association of University Teachers of Insurance, American Society of Chartered Life Underwriters, and the Philadelphia Society of Chartered Life Underwriters.

Wants $1 Million—$1 at a Time

NEW YORK, Jan. 7 (UP)—May be Richard A. Douglas of Pasadena, Cal., has $999,999 and just wants another $1 to make it a million, postal authorities said today.

Or again, they said, he might be trying to start a new form of chain letter.

At any rate they were much interested in a letter Mr. Douglas wrote to Casimir P. Palmer of New York.

"All my life I have wanted to know what it was like to have $1 million," the letter said. "Won't you let me have $1, so that I may realize this so great a wish."

Mr. Douglas, who promised to remember Mr. Palmer sincerely, enclosed a stamped, self-addressed envelope. Mr. Palmer, who never heard of Mr. Douglas, sent the letter to the New York World-Telegram, which in turn called postal officials about it.

They suggested the letter be submitted for study. One official said the letter had a familiar ring.

"But it doesn't sound legitimate," he said.

Fifty Years
and What They Mean
To You

Shirley Brothers' reputation over the past fifty years has been built by understanding that sorrow cannot be measured by dollars . . . by recognizing that destiny plays no favorites among the rich and poor.

Price—never has had a bearing on the beauty and dignity of a Shirley funeral service. The attention to detail, the countless little personal and professional courtesies you receive are always there. Costs are influenced entirely by your voluntary selection—and submitted to you—in writing.

It is this attitude that has earned the respect of you and your family—for fifty years—from 1898 to 1948.
