FPC Sets Hearing On Power Plants

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9 (UP)—The Federal Power Commission yesterday set Feb. 2 to hear oral argument involving the licensing of seven hydroelectric projects on the Missouri River in Montana. The Montana Power Co., owner of the projects, and counsel for Cascade, Lewis and Clark, and Gallatin counties asked to present the oral argument against an initial decision requiring the licensing. The commission's examiner in the case held that since the seven projects were located on navigable waters, they were under the jurisdiction of the Federal Power Commission.

Dr. Ross Addresses Optimist Club

Dr. M. O. Ross, president of Butler University, was to address the noon luncheon of the Indianapolis Optimist Club today in the Severin Hotel. Dr. Ross will speak on "Prospects for 1948."
