'New Look' for Dollars Rejected by Snyder

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5 (UP)—Secretary of Treasury John W. Snyder takes a dim view of proposals to give the country's foreign money a new look. Reporters asked him about proposals to print currency in different colors and to call in all currency now printed in green, and exchange it for new money as a means of smoking out currency held by foreigners. Said Mr. Snyder: "It would be a costly process and not too effective."

Lie Builds Large Mountain Lodge

Hunting, Retreat Is In Norwegian Alps

OSLO, Norway, Feb. 5—Tryve Lie is having a hunting lodge built in the Norwegian Alps near Trondheim, on a site given him personally by the famous author Johan Falkberget, who lives nearby. Farmers in the valley are wondering why the small family of the United Nations Secretary General will need so many rooms in a mountain station. A smart hillbilly (you find them on this side of the Atlantic, too) supplied one answer the other day. Said he: "Mr. Lie has to give international hunting parties and have guests in his lodge. Well, Mr. Marshall and Mr. Molotov must be separated at least by a corridor, and Mr. Bevin and Mr. Marshall cannot share a bedroom. "The sportsmen's rifles and other weapons will make the party kind of tense and dangerous, so each guest will need a bodyguard, and each bodyguard will need a room. So what will be left? Just kitchen, dining room and bedroom for host and hostess."

Another rustic opines that the day may come when the Lies will be glad to find a cozy home for permanent residence up here in the Norwegian Mountains. Copyright Indianapolis Times and Chicago Daily News.

German Dragnet Laid for Kuhn

MUNICH, Feb. 5 (UP)—German police threw a dragnet throughout the state of Bavaria today to re-capture Fritz Kuhn, onetime leader of the German American Bund in New York who escaped from Dachau prison Tuesday under mysterious circumstances. Police were placed on the alert last night after a 36-hour search failed to uncover any clues that might lead to Kuhn's hiding place. The police said they were making a concentrated search in the Dachau area and that the Dachau camp had been placed on an alert to prevent additional escapes. American authorities maintained a hands-off policy since Kuhn was held for denazification trial by Germans in a German court.

FUR GOSH SAKES—You've heard of the fur-lined bathtub. Well, here's a matching ermine bathing suit and umbrella, modeled recently at a Miami Beach, Fla., fur fashion show. Since ermine costs what it does, the suit is strictly for show, just what Patsy Simmons, of Washington, D. C., is doing.
