

L. S. Ayres & Co. presents ...

The Men's Store Complete on one floor!

STREET FLOOR, SOUTH BUILDING

Dedicated to the men of Indianapolis . . . busy men who have to shop in a hurry . . .

men who don't like to go through women's departments to find their own . . .

men who have been wanting a modern . . . complete . . . centrally located store for themselves. This is it . . . Ayres' new Men's Store . . . the first of its kind in Indianapolis . . . one of the finest of its kind, anywhere.

★ So convenient! A street floor location in the heart of Indianapolis, with two convenient entrances on Pearl street and Meridian.

★ So complete! Whether it's a hat or shoes, a pipe or a suit, a handkerchief or a topcoat . . . it's here . . . in a wide range of sizes and the correct styles.

★ So comfortable! You shop in spacious, streamlined surroundings with a masculine atmosphere that puts you at ease. If you are tired, just stop on the new mezzanine to rest a while, where you can look out over the men's store . . . Your Store of Tomorrow!

Ayres' Men's Store will be open tomorrow . . . ready to serve you!

MONDAY, MARCH 1, 1948
GOP Sheri George As Lates To Al M

Otto Gasper, Still in Runn

Regular Republican to abandon their "hands" for the sheriff nomination.

Maneuvers during forming behind a heretofore

Al Marenheimer for the

He is George L. Wink et al. alcoholic tax office was Marion county sheriff in 1930.

Several party leaders with the regular org held a series of conferen

Mr. Winkler during the Support Gasper

Also some strong par

tions were pumping org work to support Otto Gas mer chief jailer, for the Others regarded still

GOP sheriff picture

Clifford Beeker, forme

chief and William (Bud)

STRAUSS
SAYS:

SPORTS AND BOAT
SHOW

By BOB (Romeo) L

MEMO TO LONG . . . view Pauline Betz. We s Chicago at the Edgewa Hotel in a tennis exhibi is a wonderful tennis pl and lovely. Wear a bo get rid of your 4 o'clock

Those were orders f boss man. This sports was beginning to sound ing. I put on my snappi sweat shirt and head confab with Pauline, wh ing table tennis exhibi Sandor Glanz at the Sp Boat Show. What do yo a pretty girl with athleti anyway? The same thi say to a pretty girl muscles—except you ha left a little higher.

Pauline was leaning a a girder in a far-off of the cattle barn. She far purtier than any cattle I had ever se there. Her hazel eyes be a technicolor addi any pasture. She was n informal chat-chit with former world's doubles who is handler with a than a whack happy ternity. They were g out of the same box c corn.

When I finally cut into their box of crackerjack. I began questions. My first ap was nest, I thought. I seen her somewhere fore? Nope, she seldom bar.

Well then maybe she'd why she enjoyed tennis?
Because tennis is health develops the legs and ch said. I studied that st It's obvious Pauline has lot of tennis.

Why, then the rea switching to table tennis? she said. That's a lot of
And they all made her lo lovelier. I felt like car initials together all over barn—everywhere, except Strauss exhibit, that is.

That's when I popped question. I figured she eat just so much pe
She practices her golf Yessir, has a rubber rigged up in her dressing room. Also reads. Her rent book is "The Big man." I thumbed th the pages. That's where line . . . Miss Betz, that lost out on what could been a great romance, I dy. That book had n picture. That did, it—ob ly an intellectual.

HODGE-PODGE: At records were cracked du first two days. Count w on Saturday, and over 20 terday. First persons th door were Mr. and Mrs.
McNamara and their t from Fountaintown. Schalk was the sharp c won the Strauss Liars He carried home a live Schalk, incidentally, is a cousin to Ray Schalk, ex manager, and has nev fishing in his life.

When you amble b Conservation United—stop in for a gander picture of a local fish named Herbert Farr who is the perfect st for Harry Truman. photo even shows a st his latest catch. Has thing on his line. I close. Couldn't bind Wallace there, though.

Published by the Stra
SPORTSMAN'S FLO
(The SIXTH)—for a
behalf of the SPORT nd BOAT Show—no featuring at the State Fairgrounds.