

New Rent Law Controls Are Due Tomorrow

Truman to Fight Illegal Evictions

WASHINGTON, Mar. 31 (UP)—The new rent control law goes into effect tomorrow, backed by a government pledge to do everything possible to hold rents at "reasonable levels" until Mar. 31, 1949.

President Truman signed the bill into law late yesterday, less than 36 hours before existing controls were due to expire. He promised that the housing expediter would use fully his new power to protect tenants against illegal evictions.

The new law permits landlords and tenants to agree on "voluntary" 15 per cent rent increases, in return for leases running at least through 1949. However, those tenants who signed up for one 15 per cent boost under the old law cannot be forced to accept another.

Helps Losers
The rent law also:

ONE: Lifts ceilings from non-housekeeping rooms in private homes having not more than two bedrooms.

TWO: Removes restrictions on use of scarce building materials for recreation and amusement facilities.

THREE: Requires 65 per cent of all "owners" in co-operative apartment developments to be "stockholders, tenants and occupants."

FOUR: Directs the expediter to grant "hardship" rent increases on proof of landlord that he is losing money.

FIVE: Authorizes the expediter to seek injunctions against landlords who charge above-ceiling rents, or evict tenants illegally.

Boys Club to Present Minstrel Apr. 22-23

The show will be sponsored by the older boys' Top-A-Win-Go Club and will have a cast of 40. C. W. Anderson, volunteer leader, will direct the show.

Woman Bows to Noise In 6-Year Eviction Fight

WASHINGTON, Mar. 31 (UP)—After a successful six-year legal fight against eviction, Mrs. V. Valta Parma told her landlord today that she's getting out of her penthouse apartment voluntarily.

She explained that she can't stand the noise of pile-drivers and sledgehammers on a nearby construction job.
