Howe Prepares For 'Senior Swirl'

Apr. 15 Date Set For Annual Party

Howe High School's "Senior Swirl," annual senior spring party, will be held Apr. 15 in the school gymnasium.

Bob DeNenon is general chairman for the dance. Program attractions will be a barber shop quartet, a solo by Phil Edgington, a "Mystery Tune" and a special surprise feature. Masters-of-ceremonies will be Jim Thomas and Tom Endsley.

Chairmen and their committees for the party as announced by Bill Mayer, Class of '48 president, are:

Program—Jim Thomas, chairman; Irma Jess, Wheeling, Virginia Eubank, Ted Guthrie, Martha Schumaker and Bill Harvey, Danco—Earl Scott, chairman; Judy Miller, Carl Spies and Dora Pieron, Pastors—Bob DeNenon, chairman; Jackie Allen, Carol Schneider and Bill Ribble, Refreshments—Marilyn Dougherty, chairman; Roy Minard, Virginia Masadows, Hubert Powell and Bob Pickel, Publicity—Alice McClelland, chairman, and Carole Davis, Posters—Marie Ochs, chairman; Marie Keller, Tim Hunter and Mary Ambush.

Faculty sponsors are Virgil Henlar, head of the science department, and E. Franklin Fisher, instructor of commerce. Queen for the Howe High School track meet with Technical and Crispus Attucks High Schools will be crowned today.

Freshmen include Janet Callen, Nina Ferguson, Betty Lukens and Sara Spradling.

Also selected as nominees are Jackie Allen, Beverly Crossley, Donna Ortel, Briene Snyder and Gloria Wood.

Six Howe High School students have received awards in the poster contest sponsored by the Marion County Cancer Control Society.

Virginia Eubank won a cash award of $25 as first prize.

Other winners include Paul Taylor, second prize of $15; Joan Brickham, third prize of $10, and Lois Loudon, fourth prize of $5.

Joyce Guleson and David Booram received honorable mention and cash prizes of $1 each.

Mrs. Loreen DeWard is the art instructor for the prize-winning contestants.

Decorative Dinner To Be Feted Monday

Faculty members, bus drivers and maintenance workers will be entertained Monday in the Decorative Central School by Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Adams and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Edwards. Mr. Adams is principal and Mr. Edwards, trustee.

The school band and choir, winner of first-division awards in the district contest, will attend

May 1 in Danville.

A S'Prize party will be given at 8 p. m. Wednesday in the school by the Booster Club. Wally Nehring will be master of ceremonies.

SCIENTECH CLUB TO MEET

The Sciencetech Club will meet at noon Monday in Hotel Antlers. Jack G. Messmer, local contractor, will speak on "Observations in Europe and the Occupied Zones."

Schedule Banquet

A graduation banquet will be held for students in the McCammon course in effective speaking, salesmanship and human relations at 6:30 p. m. Tuesday in the Gold Room of the Washington Hotel.

The class president, Richard H. Englehart, will serve as toastmaster. Other class officers are Jack L. Naylor, vice president; and editor of the class paper, and Walter J. Rusch, treasurer.
