Regular GOP Forces Adopt New Name

Lineup With Group Headed by H. C. Wolff

The regular Republican organization here will line up for the May 4 primary battles under the name of the Republican Candidates Committee, it was learned today.

Party leaders associated with Chairman James Ingles will not campaign as the Ingles group since the chairman has withdrawn his office from all factional conflicts for an "unbossed, open" primary.

Instead, the so-called GOP regulars will work through the candidates committee to be headed by Herman C. Wolff, insurance firm executive and once the party's nominee for mayor.

Mrs. John Paul Ragsdale, 50 N. Bolton Ave., has been named vice-chairman of the committee; Gerald C. Purdy, secretary and President, treasurer.

Open Headquarters The committee's campaign headquarters were opened today in Room 420, Ober Building, 38 N. Pennsylvania St.

Mr. Wolff said the committee was formed to "promote the best interests of the Republican Party in the primary campaign."

The group will support a list of candidates in the primary balloting. This list is expected to be made known a few days before the election.

Rival GOP forces that have been rallying around James L. Bradford, former county party chairman and supporter of U. S. Sen. William E. Jenner, have formed another group to back their own slate of candidates. This group will be known as the Marion County Republican Campaign Committee.

Management Group To Hear Firm President

At a dinner meeting Thursday in the Lincoln Hotel, members of the Indianapolis Society for the Advancement of Management will hear an address by H. M. Huffman Jr.

Mr. Huffman, who is president of the Huffman Manufacturing Co., Dayton, O., has chosen as his subject, "Work Simplification: A Good Top Management Philosophy."

Dr. G. M. King Heads Mercator Club

Dr. George M. King was installed as president of the Mercator Club.

Others installed were Cecil Bevis, vice president; Harold W. Bogan, treasurer, and Tom Carnegie, secretary, and Robert H. Orbison, Harry W. Dimick and Dr. Lester Bibler, directors.

The club's annual spring banquet will be held April 24 in the Highland Golf and Country Club.

Newlin Mills, Maplehurst general manager, has been advised that the program is one of the most comprehensive and intensive ever undertaken in the local dairy field. Drivers will be required to pass strict examinations after completing the instruction series.

Adjusters Elect Officers

Officers were elected by the Indiana Casualty Adjusters Association at a noon luncheon in the Indianapolis Athletic Club yesterday. New officers are Fred S. Smith, General Accident Insurance Co., president; William V. O'Neill, Lumberman's Mutual Casualty Co., first vice president; Paul E. Stubbs, U. S. Fidelity and Guaranty Co., second vice president; E. A. Straith-Miller, American Associated Insurance Co., secretary-treasurer.
