Judge Eichhorn Dies at Bluffton

Prosecuted Newberry Election Fraud Case

Time State Service
BLUFFTON, May 28—William Henry Eichhorn, judge of the Wells County Circuit Court for many years and former member of the Indiana Legislature, died at his home here yesterday. He was 81.

Judge Eichhorn attracted nationwide attention more than 20 years ago when he was special prosecutor in the famous Michigan election fraud case involving Sen. Truman H. Newberry.

He served several terms as Circuit Court judge here, the first one beginning in 1912. He was re-elected to the bench for another six-year term in 1942.

Served in House
He was a member of the House of Representatives before the turn of the century and served as a trustee of the Indiana Reformatory and was a member of the State Board of Charities for 13 years.

More recently, Judge Eichhorn served on Gov. Gates' commission for recodification of the state's criminal laws.

He is survived by two sons, Frederick Eichhorn, Gary attorney, former state senator and chairman of the Public Service Commission, and Joseph Eichhorn, present Wells County prosecutor; a sister, Mrs. Emma Katherine Ellick, Markle.

Funeral services will be held here at 2 p. m. tomorrow. Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery.

Extension Classes Begin June 14

Summer classes at the Indiana University extension center here are to begin June 14, continuing through Aug. 21.

Old students will enroll June 8; new students, June 9-10. Orientation tests for new students working toward degrees will be given from 1-6 p. m. next Thursday at the center. English exemption examinations will be given from 6-9 p. m. June 4.

Forty courses will be offered in business, chemistry, economics, English, French, German, geography, government, history, mathematics, psychology, Spanish and zoology.

Memorial Rites Sunday For Martin Hedegard

Memorial services will be held at 10:30 a. m. Sunday for Martin Hedegard, formerly of Indianapolis, in the First Trinity Lutheran Church. Mr. Hedegard died recently on a visit to Denmark. He was 75.

Born in Denmark, he had lived here about 25 years and was employed as a bricklayer.

Survivors are two daughters, Mrs. Soren Miller, Chicago, Ill., and Mrs. Agnes Rasmussen, Indianapolis; four sons, Svend and Harold, both of Indianapolis; Holger of Chicago, and Magnus of Denmark; his sister, Mrs. John Siersbeck, Indianapolis, and three brothers and one sister of Denmark.

Draft Hits New Delays In Both House, Senate

WASHINGTON, May 28 (UP)—The draft ran into new delays today in both House and Senate. The House Rules Committee, overriding a protest by Democratic members, called a third week of hearings. And the Senate put off debate on the draft until late next week.

American Legion Commander James F. O'Neil said Congress has been "inexcusably negligent" in this and other defense legislation. He said Rules Committee Chairman Leo E. Allen (R. Ill.) is staging a "back-stage filibuster" against selective service.
