Vows to Be Exchanged In Sweeney Chapel

Sweeney Chapel at Butler University will be the scene, at 7:30 p. m. today, for the marriage of Miss Betty Jo Harms to George William Arnold. The Rev. D. Millard Church, pastor of the Edwin Ray Methodist Church, will read the double-ring ceremony.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Harms, 6209 Norvaldo Ave., will be given in marriage by her father. Mr. Arnold is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Arnold, 5702 Broadway Terrace.

Starred pink marquiset will be worn by the matron of honor, Mrs. Gale Rozelle. Her gown is fashioned with fitted basque, puffed sleeves and full skirt with corded design. Her costume will be completed with a lattice work Juliet cap and gloves to match, and she will carry a colonial bouquet of summer flowers tied with blue ribbon.

The bridesmaids, Mrs. Ralph Jordan and Miss Barbara Lea Webb, will wear dresses of pale blue made like the matron of honor's.

The bride's gown of white marquiset has a high round neckline, molded bodice with Valenciennes lace yoke and long, pointed sleeves.

The bouffant skirt has a lace panner and falls into a chapel-length train with deep lace edging. She will wear a two-tiered fingertip veil attached to a tiara of seed pearls.

Miss Harms will carry a bouquet of white roses and carnations centered with a white orchid.

Wendell Phillips will serve as best man and William K. Whittier and Kenneth Bayless will be the ushers. Jerry Harms, brother of the bride, will be the ringbearer.

Following the ceremony a reception will be held in the Hunt Room of the Marott Hotel. For her wedding trip, the bride has chosen a pearl gray fall suit with pink and black accessories.

After Tuesday the couple will live at 5720 Broadway Terrace. The bride is a graduate of the Methodist Hospital School of Nursing and Mr. Arnold, a graduate of the Kentucky Military Academy, is a student at Butler University. He is affiliated with Sigma Nu Fraternity.

Vows Pledged In Church

In a ceremony at 10 o'clock this morning, Miss Margaret Mary Murphy became the bride of James Malloy. The Rev. Fr. Alvin Schluback officiated at the double-ring rite in the Sacred Heart Catholic Church.

The bride entered with her father, Charles P. Murphy, 1816 Union St. Mr. Malloy is the son of Mrs. George A. Collins, 1629 N. Emerson Ave.

Miss Ruth Ohleyer was the maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Margaret Elizabeth Collins. They were dressed alike in gowns of deep plum blue marquiset over satin with insets of lace. The dresses had short puffed sleeves and bouffant skirts. They wore lace finger mitts and carried bouquets of pastel summer flowers.

The bride's gown was of starched white net fashioned with a fitted bodice, a high round neckline and a sheer shoulder yoke. The bouffant skirt was over taffeta and fell into a full train.

Her veil, fingertip length and of illusion, fell from a tiara of seed pearls. Her bouquet of white asters and stephanotis was centered with an orchid.

John J. Murphy was the best man and the ushers were Charles J. Murphy and Anthony Laker.

The wedding breakfast was held in the Lake Shore Country Club and a reception was held in the home of the bride this afternoon.

For her wedding trip the bride wore a two-piece suit of gray gabardine with black accessories and an orchid corsage.

On Wedding Trip
Mr. and Mrs. Donald D. Pritchard, 18 E. 37th St., have arrived at Sea Island, Ga., on their wedding trip. The bride, the former Miss Margo Sheerin, and Mr. Pritchard were married June 30 in the St. Joan of Arc Catholic Church.

Shull-Houze Ceremony To Be Read Tomorrow

Before an altar banked with seven-branch candelabra, palms, ferns and white summer flowers, Miss Beatrice Nell Houze and Clayton Shull will exchange vows tomorrow.

Dr. W. A. Shullenberger will read the ceremony at 4:30 p. m. in the Central Christian Church.

The bride, who will enter with her father, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Houze, 8235 Madison Ave. She will wear a gown of candlelight slipper satin. Its molded bodice has a sheer yoke accented with seed pearl embroidery. The long, buttoned sleeves taper to wrist points, and the full hooped skirt extends into a cathedral train.

The bride's full-length veil of imported candlelight illusion cascades from a handmade tiara of shimmering illusion and seed pearls. Her bouquet will be of white roses, babies'-breath and sweetheart roses with a white orchid center, and will have streamers knotted with stephanotis.

Mrs. Thomas A. Bunch, matron of honor, will wear a yellow taffeta dress with fitted bodice highlighted by an off-shoulder shawl collar. The full skirt is caught with a large bow bustle.

She will wear short, white nylon gloves and will carry a Colonial bouquet of yellow roses, pink and green carnations with stephanotis knotted in satin streamers of yellow, pink and green. In her hair she will wear a tiara of matching flowers.

The bridesmaids, Miss Ulah Shull, sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Wilfred Arthur, Charleston, W. Va.; Mrs. John Scott, Akron, O.; and Mrs. Charles Purdy, will wear gowns of blue pink and spring taffeta, fashioned like that of the matron of honor. They will carry colonial bouquets.

Mrs. Arthur's daughter, Marilyn Jean, will be the flower girl.

Reception to Follow
In Church Parlor
Mr. Bunch will serve as best man, and the ushers will be Donald A. Boyd, Guy Inman, Robert Dearmin and Bert T. Carson Jr.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception will be held in the church parlor. For her wedding trip the bride will wear a dress of linen with a full cocoa brown skirt, and fitted, green-striped, short-sleeved jacket. Matching green accessories, white gloves and a white orchid will complete her ensemble.

The bride is a graduate of the University of Illinois and has done graduate work at Indiana and Butler Universities. She is affiliated with Phi Mu Sorority and with Phi Beta, national professional and honorary sorority of music and speech.

The bridegroom attended Indiana University and is a graduate of the International Business Machines School.

After Aug. 1, the couple will live at 320 E. 28th St.

Schneider-Virt Service Read

A double-ring ceremony in the Irvington Methodist Church today united Miss Gloria G. Virt and Robert J. Schneider, Dr. Ralph D. Pearson officiated at 1 p. m. in his study.

Mrs. Robert L. Brown, 963 N. Layman Ave., is the mother of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. George S. Schneider, 81 N. Ewing St., are the parents of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Fred Sorrells, the matron of honor, wore a two-piece yellow shantung dress with white accessories and had a corsage of lavender sweetpeas and yellow roses. Dressed in a light blue shantung dress with white accessories, the maid of honor, Miss Margaret Rowe, had white sweetpeas and pink roses at her flowers.

The bride's dress was of white shantung with gold buttons and her white hat was trimmed in gold. She wore a corsage of white orchids.

Mr. Sorrells was the best man and Ben Aston, Danville, Ill., served as the usher.

A reception was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. Jack Hutton, 126 N. Sheridan Ave., and then the couple left for a short wedding trip. On their return to Indianapolis they will be at home at 6834 E. Washington St.

The bride was graduated from Butler University and is a Phi Beta Phi Sorority member.
