

Mayor Threatens Shake-Up Of Smoke Abatement Board

Wolf Asked For Record Of Past 2 Years

Feeney Denies 'Lax Enforcement'

Mayor Feeney today threatened to shake up the Board of Smoke Abatement, and No. 1 target may be $8000-a-year City Combustion Engineer Robert L. Wolf.

The Mayor, apparently unhappy over the enforcement of the current anti-smoke ordinance, had asked Mr. Wolf to present a list of his accomplishments during his two years in office.

"We've been lax on prosecution," the Mayor said, "and the whole board better get busy. There are some good men on it but they've been under the impression that Mr. Wolf is running the show. He's just the executive secretary."

Cites C. of C. Plan

The Mayor said Mr. Wolf brought in a new smoke ordinance and some of the board members said they had never seen it. He said the Chamber of Commerce has an ordinance, too, and someone ought to get them all together and work out the best one.

"Our trouble is that the one we've got isn't being enforced," he said, "and we're not going to fool around about it."

When asked if he had presented a proposed ordinance to the Mayor without having shown it to the board, Mr. Wolf said, "The Mayor knows better than that."

"Records Are Available"

"I received the Mayor's request for a list of my accomplishments in office only yesterday afternoon," Mr. Wolf said. "The records are all available. I make a thorough annual report which is widely distributed."

"This is a very complex job," he said, "and for me to tell how many bricks I have laid without explaining the importance of the individual brick would be unwise."

Asked for Investigation

Mr. Wolf said he had long wanted an impartial appraisal of the work of his office. "In fact," he said, "I asked for a full-scale investigation 10 months ago." He added that he wondered if such an investigation might prove or disprove any charges of lack of results of "diplomacy."

He said the restraint to enforcement has not been political either in this administration or the one before but has risen from the tradition that smoke abatement should be voluntary.

Assign Pfc. Sauer To Pershing Guard

A local soldier assigned to a ceremonial detachment of the Army will be a member of the honor guard at the casket of Gen. John J. Pershing as he lies in state tomorrow and Monday in the rotunda of the Capitol.

Pfc. Edward G. Sauer, 18, of 1115 Calhoun St., was assigned to the detachment after his basic training in March of this year, and has participated in several outstanding ceremonial functions.

Before he enlisted, Pfc. Sauer attended Indianapolis schools and was a member of Scout Troop 49. He took his basic training with a brother, Pfc. Benny L. Sauer, who is now stationed in Dayton, O.

Besides his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sauer, Edward Sauer has seven brothers and sisters living in Indianapolis.

State Demands Return Of Illegal MD Plates

Illegal users of license plates issued to medical doctors will be required to turn them over to the state, Director H. Bales Brown of the Indiana Motor Vehicle Registration Bureau said today.

Mr. Brown said some 42 alleged cases of illegal users of MD plates had been reported to him recently. He said the list of offenders included medical students, internes, osteopaths and chiropractors. Mr. Brown said unauthorized persons found using the MD plates would be asked to return them to the motor vehicle registration bureau immediately.

Boy, 4, Slightly Hurt When Struck by Car

A four-year-old boy was in fair condition at St. Vincent's Hospital today with minor injuries received when he was struck by a car near his home.

Steven Dailey, 564 N. Oxford St., was struck as he ran from between parked cars. Driver of the automobile was William F. Higgins, 63, of 936 N. Oxford.

The lower courts are laying it on to build up a record.

Also... the attorney situation in Municipal Court hasn't eased any since The Times discussed it in a series of articles a year ago. At that time, it was pointed out that the average citizen "in trouble" with the law got the book heaved at him unless he had an attorney. It was customary then, too, for a small clique of attorneys to dominate the court's business. It still is. Despite promised reforms, nothing has been done.

Watch for a shakeup in the Park Department. The Mayor isn't satisfied with some operations. At least one head is about to fall. For the last week, the Mayor has had an investigator, scouting the playgrounds to see how they're being operated.

Washington Calling—Odds Called 4-1 Against War but Threat Increases

Warren criticized Congress for not passing housing bill shortly before he went on ticket. Rep. Hugh Scott, new GOP national chairman, signed petition to bring T-E-W bill from committee—and petition is still alive when Congress reconvenes.

Taft earlier said Dewey should fix party policy on all issues. But House leaders don't agree. They'll roll their own. And they are men who left Philadelphia bitter at Dewey.

House leaders have one idea only: How best to elect Truman. They say announcing session at party convention makes it "purely political" and they'll play it that way.

One suggestion that's taken seriously: Meet and adjourn at once. Crisis abroad may prevent this, and some Republican rank and file already have objected.

Another plan: Pass strict rationing and price control law at once. Fix date for expiration, say Nov. 15, right after election. Sponsors of this idea would call Truman inefficient if he failed to get laws operating before then. (He probably couldn't because of time needed for printing ration books, organization.)

This idea is to call up civil rights bills at once, rely on Southern filibuster to block everything else, keep Democrats off balance. But, as Truman said, closure could end that if Republicans really want to. And Minority Leader Barkley's there to push civil rights edict of platform on which he's running.

The recommendation cut Mr. Wolf's $8000 salary to $6000. It also cut proposed pay of his assistants. Mayor Feeney thinks Mr. Wolf should have complained to him first, before releasing the squawk to the press.

Viaduct Slayer Held for Murder

Warrant Filed By Victim's Father

CINCINNATI, O., July 17 (UP)—A murder warrant was filed today against a 33-year-old man who yesterday threw 8-year-old Patricia Jackson to her death from a viaduct and then blamed "radioactivity" for his act.

The warrant against the man, who gave the name of Harry Robertson, Richmond, Va., was filed by Jack Jackson, Patricia's father.

Robertson, captured by passers-by after he had tossed Patricia to her death 125 feet below, muttered incoherently when taken to police headquarters.

"Radioactivity did it," the big six-foot-four-inch slayer mumbled.

"They kept calling me yellow. When I go to sleep at night they call me yellow, and when I get up in the morning they call me yellow."

"I just grabbed a girl. I threw her over. The radio waves said nothing about that."

Officials at the Downey Veterans' administration hospital said they had had a Herbert Robertson, 33, of Richmond, as a patient in 1945. He had been suffering from "psychotic personality and alcoholism," but was discharged as "cured of his psychotic difficulties" in October, 1945.

George Connor, 500-Mile Race driver, was married yesterday to Vanelia Dell Eakin, 5121 W. 18th St. The ceremony was read in the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Reta Watson, 5030 W. 12th St.

The Connors, who managed to keep the impending marriage a total secret from gasoline alley friends, are honeymooning in Milwaukee before visiting Mr. Connor's parents in California. They will return to Indianapolis next month. He has been working for Cotton Henning since early spring.

Plenty to Fire At

LOOKS AS IF FIRE indices will give Truman plenty to talk about when he opens up on inflation, high prices.

Most of Eastern United States reported this week that consumer prices, wholesale prices, stock exchange prices, installment buying, national income and employment all have hit new highs.

Report says steel and meat prices still hurt most. And "Iron Age," trade journal of steel industry, forecasts U. S. Steel may raise prices $10 a ton. New prices will be much greater than before and more animals can't be brought ready for slaughtering this fall or winter.

Admiral's fleet Sen. Eastland's Washington office with flowers after he'd walked out of Democratic convention with rest of his state delegation.

On other hand, two Arkansas alternates still hunkered with Missouri delegation when it came through Washington, so they could shake hands with Truman. Arkansas is home state of Gov. Laney and may head ticket of Birmingham bolters.

PENNSYLVANIA, often a key state, may be barometer of Democratic campaign. Party leaders were glum until convention. Now they figure strong civil rights plank will help greatly in keeping vote of strategically placed Negro urban groups in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh. Palestine plank will help, too.

Democrats usually have been second-runners in Pennsylvania. But Roosevelt carried state last three out of four times, and state organization carried it once on their own. Main reliance now is on heavy labor vote which they hope to corral by demand for Taft-Hartley repeal.

Martin Can't Qualify

SEN. ED MARTIN of Pennsylvania—who delivered most of his state's votes for Dewey—won't get that secretary of defense job he's been mentioned for.

Army lawyers say he can't qualify. Constitution decrees that no member of Congress may assume an office created during his term. Secretary of defense was created in recent unification act.

Martin, however, could qualify for secretary of Army or Navy. Air Force would be barred because it's just created as separate service.

Same thing holds for two other Republican Senators sometimes mentioned, Lodge of Massachusetts, Baldwin of Connecticut.

Note: Defense Secretary Forrestal took cue from Secretary of State Marshall and stayed away from Philadelphia convention. He was once likely vice presidential candidate; now hopes military policy can be put on same non-partisan status as foreign policy.

106th Division Plans Convention

Famed Golden Lions To Meet at Claypool

The 106th Infantry Division will have its two-day national convention here beginning July 31.

This is a return engagement for the Camp Atterbury-trained outfit which adopted Indianapolis as its home during a reunion in July, 1947.

Nearly 1000 members of the famed Golden Lions are expected to attend the meeting, which will be in the Claypool Hotel.

Kenneth Perry, vice president of the association, said the program will start with a luncheon. A business session and a big dinner-dance are also on the agenda.

The event this year is a convention and not a reunion because the members of the division have organized themselves into an association.

Hoosier Editors Invite Barkley

Democratic State Chairman Ira Haymaker said today that vice presidential nominee Sen. Alben Barkley would be invited to address the Indiana Democratic Editorial Association at French Lick, Aug. 28.

Mr. Haymaker also said Sen. Barkley would be invited to make the principal speech at an Indiana-Kentucky rally at Evansville in October.

Upon his return from the national Democratic convention in Philadelphia, Mr. Haymaker said he would confer with IDEA President Curtis Hostetter, Lafayette, and that they would extend a joint invitation to Mr. Barkley to address the French Lick meeting.

Hitler Alive or Dead? Judge Gets Proof of Fuehrer's Fate

To capture him would need to go on until he was brought to justice.

THE NAVY OFFICER, had long served as a judge in private life. He occupied high military position and later he was appointed by the President as a member of the Nuremberg International Court for the trial of war crimes.

This superb combination of long legal training and high military opportunity to run down the question of Hitler's fate. This officer, Capt. Michael A. Musmanno, USNR, began his investigation at once.

He flew to Berlin to inspect the bunker in which Hitler spent his last days before he disappeared. He cross-examined surviving witnesses of the bunker.

As a military officer, and, in addition, president of the United States-Soviet Commission passing upon forcible repatriation of Soviet citizens, he had access to prison's detention, internment and prisoner of war camps.

He could visit displaced families and talk to all those familiar with the inner workings of the Nazi machine.

LATER THE Pittsburgh jurist was an observer for the Navy at the trials of Adm. Doenitz, Hitler's successor, and Goering, Ribbentrop and the other Nazi bigwigs. He personally interrogated Hitler's first-line lieutenants.

Still later Capt. Musmanno was appointed judge at the Nuremberg International War Crimes Courts.

Capt. Musmanno sat as judge in the trial of Field Marshal Milich, the German Luftwaffe, and in the trial of the SS chiefs responsible for the operation of concentration camps of Europe.

He also presided at the Einsatzgruppen trial, the biggest murder trial in world history in which 14 defendants were sentenced to hang for a million murders.

DURING ALL these services Judge Musmanno pursued his quest for information concerning Hitler's disappearance. He traveled throughout Germany to question survivors of the bunker. He interviewed more than 200 of Hitler's immediate associates. He talked with Hitler's generals, ministers, secretaries, dentists, confidants, adjutants, physicians, butler, housekeeper, barber, chauffeur and personal bodyguards.

Now after three years, Judge Musmanno has concluded his investigation. He has written the first complete and authentic account of what happened in the Berlin bunker on those fateful days at the close of World War II.

The highly exciting and hair-raising narrative of life in the underground bunker of Berlin during the days of the war will be told by Judge Musmanno in six installments, the first one appearing in The Times Monday.

Don't miss this clear-cut description of the most dramatic event in contemporary history.

CHECKING FACTS—20 Volumes of testimony on Hitler's fate is being studied by Judge Musmanno. The Pittsburgh jurist traveled throughout Germany and interviewed more than 200 of Hitler's associates to get the true story on Hitler.
