

IN HOLLYWOOD

By ERSKINE JOHNSON

HOLLYWOOD, July 30—Larry Parks has won "A Free Hand." That's the title of the play he's doing in summer stock, and that's the way he feels about his Columbia contract, since the studio failed to demand an injunction stopping him from appearing in the play.

The fact that Columbia's legal battery has taken no action since his opening July 12 is consistent with Larry's contention that he's a free agent, following a federal judge's decision in his contract fight with the studio.

The studio still has "no comment." But whether the studio will demand an injunction if Larry signs to do a movie is another question.

Suggested cocktail for M-G-M employees, now that Dore Schary is in charge of production and responsible only to Louis B. Mayer: "One finger of Schary and Two Headache Tablets."

OPERATIC HOOSIER—David Aiken of Bloomington, who will sing the role of Morales in the Fabien Sevitzky production of "Carmen" Aug. 4 and 8 at Butler Bowl.

Post Gets Buzz Bomb—Times State Service GREENCASTLE, July 30—A Nazi buzz bomb sent to Gen. Jesse M. Lee Post 1550 Veterans of Foreign Wars will be dedicated on the court house lawn Armistice Day, Nov. 11. The bomb is being reconditioned and will be placed on it for one of them after she completes "June Bride."

ALAN YOUNG'S bride, Ginny, has formed a new vocal quintet that will be featured on Alan's new air show. She once warbled with "Four Chicks and a Chuck." The Johnson office decided Robert Riskin's Washington sequences in "The Girl From Bogaardus" were too hot to film. They revealed the political maneuvering behind capital social events.

THE RITZ BROTHERS "anything for a laugh" routine has reached the breaking point—literally. Harry took a swing at Jimmy and broke his tooth. . . . Orchestra leader Will Osborne's ex-wife, Jeannie, and Monogram producer Joe E. Kaufman are an item.

MARTHA RAYE is burning. Uncle Sam refused to pay the expenses of her hair stylist, Ralph Wallace, on a GI tour of Germany.

NATALIE SCHAFER is back in town after a three-month tour of Europe. Rome, she says, has made a terrific comeback. "It seems like the most luxurious city in the world. You get huge bowls of whipped cream served with breakfast, all the butter you want and delicious food is in abundance." The same, she said, goes for Paris and Brussels, but life remains grim in London.

COULD THAT gleam in Howard Hughes' eye be for Barbara Lawrence's beauty, or is he only interested in her career?

VELOZ AND YOLANDA'S racing stable has cost them plenty of moils, but it must be worth it from the publicity standpoint. Their horses are named Veyo, Veyolanda, Yolanda, Nicky Veyo, Miss Veyo and Veyosity!
