

Butler Honor Roll Lists 27

All but One of Them Are Hoosier Students

Butler University's honor rolls, announced today by deans of the respective colleges, included 26 Hoosiers in a list of 27 honor students.

Students in the college of liberal arts and sciences who received a grade of "A" in all their academic work during last term's second semester are Miss Jeanne Maiott, Miss Frances I. Scott, Jack B. Secor, Frank Siupesky, Miss Viola Woodard, William T. Edwards, all of Indianapolis; Miss Phyllis Mosh and Miss Patricia Rose, both of Frankfort; Quentin L. West, Clayton, and Samuel Pitman, Monett, Mo.

The college of education honor roll included the Misses Georgia Pitcher, Clara Rose Holmes, and Patricia Jordan, all of Indianapolis.

Honor students in the college of pharmacy are Carl E. Freije, Indianapolis; James R. Turek, Gwynnville; John W. Toole, Evansville; Miss Gloria M. Beckmann, Jasper; Cecil G. Benson, Lafontaine; Gerald E. Conway, Worthington, and Ronald R. Snyder, Kokomo.

The university college honor roll included the Misses Eleanor Joan Bryant, Margaret Joyce Whited, and Viola Frances Woodward, and David Bernard Kenney, all of Indianapolis; David F. Hamp, Kokomo; Miss Barbara Sue Helney, Anderson, and Russell Junior Zenit, Goshen.

New Exhibit Depicts Kingan & Co. Services

A new exhibit, depicting the operation and services of Kingan & Co., has been placed in the Indianapolis Industrial Exposition at the Union Station.

Two tiny scale-model freight trains operate over rail lines which connect country, city and packing plant. The trains, electronically controlled, can be operated by means of push buttons.

Named to Staff Of J. D. Adams Co.

T. A. McMahon, 4023 Park Ave., and J. G. Worthington, 4068 Guilford Ave., have received appointments on the staff of J. D. Adams Manufacturing Co.

Mr. McMahon was appointed factory manager, while Mr. Worthington was named manager of purchases. Mr. McMahon, district manager, there will be sufficient space to handle all entrants but early applications will simplify program planning and counseling of students.

Counseling is available to students at the branch throughout the day, Mondays through Fridays, and by special appointment. Classes Sept. 20.

Registration for the technical institute will be held Sept. 16, 17 and 18. Orientation tests will be held Sept. 9, and classes will begin Sept. 20.

Registration for freshman and other bachelor degree courses will be held Sept. 20, 21 and 22. Freshman orientation tests will be held Sept. 15 and classes will begin Sept. 23.

Four Appointments Made by Governor

Gov. Gates yesterday re-appointed Marion T. Ayres, Shelbyville Democrat, to a new term of four years on the board of trustees of Central State Hospital.

Other appointments the Governor renamed Walter C. Atkinson of Morocco to a new term of four years on the Logansport State Hospital board of trustees.

Reappointed Albert J. Newmar of Milton as trustee of Richmond State Hospital, and named Mrs. Catharine M. Northam of Indianapolis to replace Mrs. Louise Barnhart of Goshen on the board of the Indiana Girls School.

Wholesale Prices Down .4 Per Cent

WASHINGTON, July 30 (UPI)—The Labor department reported average wholesale prices dropped .4 per cent last week "as a result of lower prices for some grains and most livestock."

The department said average wholesale prices last Saturday were 11 per cent above a year ago and .4 per cent below the all-time high point reached two weeks ago.

Early Purdue Entries Urged

Applications Ready At Branch Here

Applications for admission to Purdue University's branch here should be filed now by students planning to attend the school this fall.

According to A. W. Collins, Purdue district manager, there will be sufficient space to handle all entrants but early applications will simplify program planning and counseling of students.

Counseling is available to students at the branch throughout the day, Mondays through Fridays, and by special appointment. Classes Sept. 20.

Registration for the technical institute will be held Sept. 16, 17 and 18. Orientation tests will be held Sept. 9, and classes will begin Sept. 20.

Registration for freshman and other bachelor degree courses will be held Sept. 20, 21 and 22. Freshman orientation tests will be held Sept. 15 and classes will begin Sept. 23.

Named Committeeman Of Life Underwriters

Claude C. Jones, general agent for the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Co., here, has been elected national committeeman of the Indianapolis Association of Life Underwriters.

The election was announced by Easley R. Blackwood, association president, following a meeting of the board of directors.

Mr. Jones has been in the life insurance business here for the past 27 years. He has served as president of the Indianapolis and Indiana State Associations of Life Underwriters, and as president of the Indianapolis General Agents and Managers Association.
