

Local Deaths
Allison Worker Dies at 59

Rites Tomorrow For Roy Martin Sr.
Services for Roy Martin Sr., 2310 W. Washington St., who died yesterday while working in the Allison Division, General Motors Corp., will be held at 2 p. m. tomorrow in the Royster & Askin Chapel.

Mr. Martin, who was 59, was a member of the Bridgeport Methodist Church and Monument Lodge, F&AM.

He is survived by his wife, Louise; three sons, Roy Jr. and James W. Martin, both of Indianapolis, and Robert G. Martin, U. S. Navy; four daughters, the Misses Marian, Geraldine and Betty Lou Martin, and Mrs. James Polgrave, all of Indianapolis, and one grandchild.

Miss Ruby Garrison

Services for Miss Ruby Fern Garrison, 608 E. 15th St., who died yesterday in St. Vincent's Hospital, will be held at 10 a. m. Saturday in Flanner and Buchanan mortuary. Burial will be in Crown Hill.

Miss Garrison, who was 33, was a native of Shelby County. She had been a machine operator in McQuay-Norris Manufacturing Co. She was a member of the Methodist Church. There are no immediate survivors.

July 1948

An Important Purpose

Of the many purposes of Shirley Services, none is more important than this: To remove ALL the burden from YOUR shoulders.

Included in a Shirley funeral are countless little courtesies, both personal and professional, which do so much to make things easier for you. You may count on receiving such attention to detail . . . regardless of price paid for the funeral.

Speaking of price, it is Shirley Brothers policy to let YOU determine funeral expenses. Your decision is made from costs displayed openly and submitted in writing. You are not influenced in making selections by any member of the Shirley staff.

☆
CENTRAL CHAPEL
☆

IRVING HILL CHAPEL
☆

WEST CHAPEL
☆

Truly A Remembered Service

WE'LL BE THERE!
WHERE?

AT THE STATE FAIR . . .
BOOTH A-11, SOUTH WING, AGRICULTURE BLDG.

Again this year, some lucky person will be given a new Lifetime model Microtone Hearing Aid and Micro-Mizer. If you are hard of hearing, and register your name at our booth, you may be that lucky person.

INDIANA HEARING AID CO.
532 Bankers Trust Bldg.
INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA
Telephone MA 3062

Dr. Charles Beard, Noted Hoosier Historian, Dies

Well-Known Author Graduate of DePauw

Dr. Charles A. Beard, native of Indiana, who became one of the nation's foremost historians and authors, died today at Grace Memorial Hospital in New Haven, Conn. He was 73.

Dr. Beard, who had written more than 30 books on American history, had been ill in the hospital two weeks.

Born in Knightstown, Dr. Beard was graduated from DePauw University in 1898 and later studied at Oxford University in England.

After leaving Oxford, he attended Columbia University and was a master of arts degree and doctor of philosophy degree. He joined the Columbia faculty in 1907.

Always ready for a good, hot controversy, his first one was in 1917 when he resigned as head of Columbia's political science department after denouncing trustees as "reactionary, visionless and narrow."

Wife Collaborated Dr. Beard, whose books are standard texts in many colleges today, was said to have known as much about government in the United States as any man during his time.

Never Sought Office Dr. Beard was a keen student of politics but never ran for public office. He was connected for many years with the Russell Sage Institute of Municipal Research in New York and made intensive studies of city planning, accounting and financing.

In 1933, after the disastrous earthquake in Japan, he became an adviser to the Japanese government on municipal affairs.

Besides his wife, Mary, Mr. Beard is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Alfred Vagts, of Gaylorville, Conn., and a son, William of Alameda, Calif.

Private funeral services will be held at the convenience of the family, it was announced.

Set Services in Oakland For Sgt. Summerfield

Services for S. Sgt. Irving Louis Summerfield, killed in France Nov. 12, 1944, will be held Friday in Oakland, Calif.

Sgt. Summerfield, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman L. Summerfield, 3450 N. Pennsylvania St., was born in Oakland and lived most of his life in Indianapolis. He was a graduate of Shortridge High School. He attended three years in Indiana University before he entered the Army May 12, 1942.

He was posthumously awarded the Bronze Star Medal with oak leaf cluster. His parents and a brother, Jack Stuart Summerfield, are attending services in Oakland.

Wreck Victim Rites Set

TIME STATE SERVICES CRAWFORDSVILLE, Sept. 1—Services are being arranged for Thomas Harris, Terre Haute, who died in Culver Union Hospital here yesterday of injuries suffered Aug. 15 in a train wreck near here. Mr. Harris, a railroad employee, was 58.

Mr. Quellhorst Services will be held at 10 a. m. Friday for Wilbur L. Quellhorst, 1923 Central Ave., in Flanner & Buchanan mortuary. He died yesterday in his home. Burial will be in Washington, Ind.

Mr. Quellhorst, who was 50, was engaged in auto sales and spent most of his life in Indianapolis. He was a native of Brookville. He was a member of the Christian Men Builders. Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Mone Quellhorst, Indianapolis; two sons, Henry, Chicago, and Carroll of New York City, and his mother, Mrs. Nelle Quellhorst, New York City.

Mr. Quellhorst To Talk to Board Here Ervin W. Luedtke, director of the Nebraska real estate commission, will speak before the Indianapolis Real Estate Board Sept. 9, on "License Law" at a dinner in the Riley Room of the Claypool Hotel.

Mr. Luedtke is also executive secretary of the Nebraska Real Estate Association.

Killed in Crash TIPTON, Sept. 1 (UPI)—Florence Marie Eckert, 40, Kokomo, was killed in a truck-car collision near here yesterday. Ben Bell, 60, Kokomo, driver of the truck in which the woman was riding, and Frank B. Russell, former Tipton Circuit Court judge, driver of the automobile, were injured.

Ship Movements

By United Press
New York Arrivals—Nieuw Amsterdam, Santa Clara, Maracaibo; Amsterdam, Cristobal.
New York Departures—American Scout, Port Said; San Roque, Rio Piedras, Cawit, Sulu; San Francisco, San Pedro; Agamemnon, Puerto Sucre; Copan, Liberia; Maria Cristina, Evangelista, Bermuda; Port Townsend, Bermuda; Veenam, Veenam, Bermuda.

Shoe Movements

By United Press
New York Arrivals—Nieuw Amsterdam, Santa Clara, Maracaibo; Amsterdam, Cristobal.
New York Departures—American Scout, Port Said; San Roque, Rio Piedras, Cawit, Sulu; San Francisco, San Pedro; Agamemnon, Puerto Sucre; Copan, Liberia; Maria Cristina, Evangelista, Bermuda; Port Townsend, Bermuda; Veenam, Veenam, Bermuda.

Telephone or Mail Orders Promptly Filled
PLEASE STATE SIZE

John Trulock, Musician, Dies

Played Saxophone In Local Bands

Services for John Russell Trulock, 1621 N. Alabama St., who died yesterday in General Hospital in New Haven, Conn. He was 73.

Dr. Beard, who had written more than 30 books on American history, had been ill in the hospital two weeks.

Born in Knightstown, Dr. Beard was graduated from DePauw University in 1898 and later studied at Oxford University in England.

After leaving Oxford, he attended Columbia University and was a master of arts degree and doctor of philosophy degree. He joined the Columbia faculty in 1907.

Always ready for a good, hot controversy, his first one was in 1917 when he resigned as head of Columbia's political science department after denouncing trustees as "reactionary, visionless and narrow."

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Oileen Peggy Trulock; a son, James Russell Trulock; a brother, William E. Trulock, and a sister, Mrs. Pearl Faust, all of Indianapolis.

Services for John Russell Trulock, 1621 N. Alabama St., who died yesterday in General Hospital in New Haven, Conn. He was 73.

Dr. Beard, who had written more than 30 books on American history, had been ill in the hospital two weeks.

Born in Knightstown, Dr. Beard was graduated from DePauw University in 1898 and later studied at Oxford University in England.

After leaving Oxford, he attended Columbia University and was a master of arts degree and doctor of philosophy degree. He joined the Columbia faculty in 1907.

Always ready for a good, hot controversy, his first one was in 1917 when he resigned as head of Columbia's political science department after denouncing trustees as "reactionary, visionless and narrow."

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Oileen Peggy Trulock; a son, James Russell Trulock; a brother, William E. Trulock, and a sister, Mrs. Pearl Faust, all of Indianapolis.

Services for John Russell Trulock, 1621 N. Alabama St., who died yesterday in General Hospital in New Haven, Conn. He was 73.

Dr. Beard, who had written more than 30 books on American history, had been ill in the hospital two weeks.

Born in Knightstown, Dr. Beard was graduated from DePauw University in 1898 and later studied at Oxford University in England.

After leaving Oxford, he attended Columbia University and was a master of arts degree and doctor of philosophy degree. He joined the Columbia faculty in 1907.

Always ready for a good, hot controversy, his first one was in 1917 when he resigned as head of Columbia's political science department after denouncing trustees as "reactionary, visionless and narrow."

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Oileen Peggy Trulock; a son, James Russell Trulock; a brother, William E. Trulock, and a sister, Mrs. Pearl Faust, all of Indianapolis.

Services for John Russell Trulock, 1621 N. Alabama St., who died yesterday in General Hospital in New Haven, Conn. He was 73.

Dr. Beard, who had written more than 30 books on American history, had been ill in the hospital two weeks.

Born in Knightstown, Dr. Beard was graduated from DePauw University in 1898 and later studied at Oxford University in England.

After leaving Oxford, he attended Columbia University and was a master of arts degree and doctor of philosophy degree. He joined the Columbia faculty in 1907.

Always ready for a good, hot controversy, his first one was in 1917 when he resigned as head of Columbia's political science department after denouncing trustees as "reactionary, visionless and narrow."

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Oileen Peggy Trulock; a son, James Russell Trulock; a brother, William E. Trulock, and a sister, Mrs. Pearl Faust, all of Indianapolis.

Services for John Russell Trulock, 1621 N. Alabama St., who died yesterday in General Hospital in New Haven, Conn. He was 73.

Dr. Beard, who had written more than 30 books on American history, had been ill in the hospital two weeks.

Born in Knightstown, Dr. Beard was graduated from DePauw University in 1898 and later studied at Oxford University in England.

After leaving Oxford, he attended Columbia University and was a master of arts degree and doctor of philosophy degree. He joined the Columbia faculty in 1907.

Always ready for a good, hot controversy, his first one was in 1917 when he resigned as head of Columbia's political science department after denouncing trustees as "reactionary, visionless and narrow."

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Oileen Peggy Trulock; a son, James Russell Trulock; a brother, William E. Trulock, and a sister, Mrs. Pearl Faust, all of Indianapolis.

Services for John Russell Trulock, 1621 N. Alabama St., who died yesterday in General Hospital in New Haven, Conn. He was 73.

Dr. Beard, who had written more than 30 books on American history, had been ill in the hospital two weeks.

Born in Knightstown, Dr. Beard was graduated from DePauw University in 1898 and later studied at Oxford University in England.

After leaving Oxford, he attended Columbia University and was a master of arts degree and doctor of philosophy degree. He joined the Columbia faculty in 1907.

Always ready for a good, hot controversy, his first one was in 1917 when he resigned as head of Columbia's political science department after denouncing trustees as "reactionary, visionless and narrow."

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Oileen Peggy Trulock; a son, James Russell Trulock; a brother, William E. Trulock, and a sister, Mrs. Pearl Faust, all of Indianapolis.

Services for John Russell Trulock, 1621 N. Alabama St., who died yesterday in General Hospital in New Haven, Conn. He was 73.

Dr. Beard, who had written more than 30 books on American history, had been ill in the hospital two weeks.

Born in Knightstown, Dr. Beard was graduated from DePauw University in 1898 and later studied at Oxford University in England.

After leaving Oxford, he attended Columbia University and was a master of arts degree and doctor of philosophy degree. He joined the Columbia faculty in 1907.

Always ready for a good, hot controversy, his first one was in 1917 when he resigned as head of Columbia's political science department after denouncing trustees as "reactionary, visionless and narrow."

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Oileen Peggy Trulock; a son, James Russell Trulock; a brother, William E. Trulock, and a sister, Mrs. Pearl Faust, all of Indianapolis.

Services for John Russell Trulock, 1621 N. Alabama St., who died yesterday in General Hospital in New Haven, Conn. He was 73.

Dr. Beard, who had written more than 30 books on American history, had been ill in the hospital two weeks.

Born in Knightstown, Dr. Beard was graduated from DePauw University in 1898 and later studied at Oxford University in England.

After leaving Oxford, he attended Columbia University and was a master of arts degree and doctor of philosophy degree. He joined the Columbia faculty in 1907.

Always ready for a good, hot controversy, his first one was in 1917 when he resigned as head of Columbia's political science department after denouncing trustees as "reactionary, visionless and narrow."

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Oileen Peggy Trulock; a son, James Russell Trulock; a brother, William E. Trulock, and a sister, Mrs. Pearl Faust, all of Indianapolis.

Services for John Russell Trulock, 1621 N. Alabama St., who died yesterday in General Hospital in New Haven, Conn. He was 73.

Dr. Beard, who had written more than 30 books on American history, had been ill in the hospital two weeks.

Born in Knightstown, Dr. Beard was graduated from DePauw University in 1898 and later studied at Oxford University in England.

After leaving Oxford, he attended Columbia University and was a master of arts degree and doctor of philosophy degree. He joined the Columbia faculty in 1907.

Always ready for a good, hot controversy, his first one was in 1917 when he resigned as head of Columbia's political science department after denouncing trustees as "reactionary, visionless and narrow."

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Oileen Peggy Trulock; a son, James Russell Trulock; a brother, William E. Trulock, and a sister, Mrs. Pearl Faust, all of Indianapolis.

Services for John Russell Trulock, 1621 N. Alabama St., who died yesterday in General Hospital in New Haven, Conn. He was 73.

Dr. Beard, who had written more than 30 books on American history, had been ill in the hospital two weeks.

Born in Knightstown, Dr. Beard was graduated from DePauw University in 1898 and later studied at Oxford University in England.

After leaving Oxford, he attended Columbia University and was a master of arts degree and doctor of philosophy degree. He joined the Columbia faculty in 1907.

Always ready for a good, hot controversy, his first one was in 1917 when he resigned as head of Columbia's political science department after denouncing trustees as "reactionary, visionless and narrow."</