

IN HOLLYWOOD

By ERSKINE JOHNSON

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 2—Those disgruntled Hollywood tourists who come to see the stars are easy to answer. "Where is everybody this summer?" are easy to answer.

The stars, whom tourists usually come to see, are back in the towns where the tourists came from. They're starting in summer stock, wanting to see a live audience for a change.

The list: Erik Rhodes, Jeffrey Lynn, Guy Kibbee, Sylvia Sydney, Michèle Auer, Richard Arlen, Sara Allgood, Edmund Lowe, Jackie Cooper, Roland Young, Buddy Ebsen, Grant Mitchell, Gale Sondergaard, Edward Everett Horton, Betty Field, Virginia Gilmore, Arthur Treacher and Blanche Yurka.

FOR THE FIRST time in his 18 years in Hollywood, John Wayne is headed for the top 10 box-office stars.

Look at his record: "Fort Apache" breaking records, "Red River" coming up and "Wake of the Red Witch" currently before the cameras.

MYRNA DELL, ex-girl friend of Jimmy Stewart, gets her first leading role in Republic's "Rose of the Yukon."

Quote of the week: "I want no top billing. Let me go along being one of those who hold up the stars and I'm content."—Charles Bickford.

Strange trio of Bill Robinson, Noel Coward and Toots Shor will be competing as painters when New York's Urban League exhibits celebrity paintings.

Shelley Winters, who was given last-minute co-star billing in "The Larceny," committed just that. Preview audiences, I hear, are agreeing that she steals the show.

Chicagoan Quotes 1787 Law to Force Wife to Return

CHICAGO, Sept. 2 (UP)—Vito

Billiberto, 27, today invoked the Northwest Territories law of 1787, which says "a man's wife is his chattel," in an attempt to force his wife to return to him.

Mr. Billiberto told the Superior Court that his wife, Mrs. Helen Gabrielle Billiberto, 32, deserted him in 1946 and has "masqueraded as an unmarried woman."

"I want her back," he said, asking the court to order her to return.

MR. BILLIBERTO'S attorney, Jay J. McCarthy, said Mrs. Billiberto was breaking the 1787 law under which a marriage contract "is similar in nature to a contract of slavery."

The territories law, he said, became the basic law of the state after Illinois was admitted into the Union in 1818. He said the part about marriages was never revoked.

Mr. McCarthy said the old law was very literal in its meaning of the words "love, honor and obey" and that it still applied when the Billibertos married in 1946.

"According to that old law, when Billiberto says 'come back,' his wife has to return," Mr. McCarthy said.

Colleges Seek to Drop Titles of Teachers

ST. PAUL, Sept. 2 (UP)—Representatives of Minnesota's five state teachers colleges announced today they will ask the legislature to drop the word "teachers" from their titles.

"It lacks appeal to students," said Ray Sorenson, member of the teachers college board.

Barber Runs a Fever

SKOWHEGAN, Me., Sept. 2 (UP)—Barber Robert Hall's shaggy customers found his shop closed today and a sign that read: "This shop closed for one week owing to a very serious attack of fishing fever."

FEHR

SCORNFUL — Jean Peters, who scorns Dana Andrews' career as lobster-fisherman in "Deep Waters," drama currently at the Lyric.

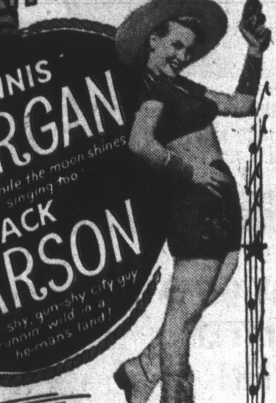

DISGUISED — Jack Carson, wearing whiskers for a gag in "Two Guys From Texas," comedy co-starring Dennis Morgan, which opens today at the Circle.

TRUMAN SPEECH SHORT WASHINGTON, Sept. 2 (UP)—President Truman's Labor Day speech in Detroit will be about 20 minutes long, the White House said today.

NOTE FROM a reader: "Why doesn't Hollywood do something about the type of entertainment on the screen?"

"My grandchildren go around imitating the groans of dying men and the screaming of frightened women." Sounds like they need a diet of Donald Duck.

Promised but I'm not sure about being hoped for: Joan Crawford as a carnival entertainer in "Flamingo Road" doing the hootchie-kootchie dance of "Little Egypt."

THE TERRITORIES law, he said, became the basic law of the state after Illinois was admitted into the Union in 1818. He said the part about marriages was never revoked.
