Rex Barney Hurls 2-0 No-Hitter for Bums

Only 4 Giant Batters Reach 1st,
Two on Walks, Two on Errors

By MILTON RICHMAN, United Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—Right-hander Rex Barney of Brooklyn, once regarded as "just a thrower," joined the most prominent pitchers in the National League today after fashioning a brilliant no-hit, no-run game against the hard-hitting New York Giants.

The 23-year-old fast-baller from Omaha, Neb., faced only 29 men as he defeated the Giants, 2 to 0, last night in a game punctuated by intermittent rain and witnessed by 36,224 fans. Only four Giant batters reached base, two on errors and two on walks.

Barney, hampered by wildness earlier in the season, retired the last 20 men to face him and pitched the last three innings in a steady rain. Brooklyn garnered its first run off Monte Rex Barney Kennedy in the second on Carl Furillo's single, Pee Wee Reese's double and Gil Hodges' groundout to deep short. The Dodgers scored their second run in the third when Furillo, who collected three of his team's six hits, singled home Billy Cox. The victory was Barney's 13th of the season.

The second-place Pittsburgh Pirates, continuing their march toward the top, won their fifth in a row by beating the Cincinnati Reds, 6 to 1. Veteran Elmer Riddle scattered five hits and breezed to his 12th victory. Cincinnati manager-pitcher Bucky Walters sought the 199th victory of his career but yielded to Harry Gumbert in the sixth when the Pirates pushed across three runs. Clyde Klutts homered for the Bucs in the eighth with none on.

First Bulldog Test in Bowl

It will be pigskin veterans against newcomers tomorrow in the Butler Bowl as Coach Tony Hinkle matches his returning varsity men against his reserves and sophomores.

Hinkle expects to learn much from the intra-squad meeting, the first game test for the Bulldogs this season. Twenty-one returning lettermen will be battling for starting berths as the game progresses.

"A" Team Starters

Two One-Hitters Pitched in Tourney

The Sweet 16 softball tourney at Municipal Stadium saw two one-hitters pitched last night. Calto defeated Lux Laundry, 5 to 1, as Jewell Sherman allowed the Laundrymen but one bingle, and Bethel A. C. dropped Checker Flag Tavern, 3 to 1, with C. W. Goliath hurling a one-hitter. In the third game, Shelbyville defeated J. D. Adams, 7 to 6.

2 thriller from Detroit when Ed Robinson's single scored Ken Keltner. Hal Newhouse of the Tigers and Bob Feller of Cleveland hooked up in a stirring pitching duel for seven innings but both yielded to pinch hitters.

Southpaw Sam Zoladak, who came into the game in the ninth, allowed only two hits in four and a third inning, gained his ninth victory of the season and his second in as many days.

The St. Louis Browns swept a doubleheader from the last-place White Sox, 5 to 2 and 4 to 2. Bill Kennedy outpitched Marino (Chick) Pieretti in the opener while Rookie Joe Ostrowski bested Bill Wight in the second game. Outfielder Dick Kokos of the Browns homered in the fourth inning of the first game with the bases empty.

Philadelphia at Washington was postponed because of rain.

Stag Picnic to Launch IU Grid Season

The kickoff of the 1948 football season for Indiana University will not occur on the gridiron. It will be on a farm near Indianapolis on Saturday, Sept. 18, exactly one week before the Crimson eleven rolls against the Badgers at the University of Wisconsin in its initial tussle.

Final details of the big occasion—a stag picnic—were worked out yesterday afternoon at a luncheon in the Naval Armory by an industrious group of local ex-IU men.

The outing will be held on Paul DeVault's farm, about four miles east of the Noblesville Rd. on E. 96th St. DeVault, a local attorney and IU graduate, provided the setting for a similar affair last year.

Sponsoring this second annual Indiana University stag picnic is the Indiana University Club of Indianapolis. It is the same club that holds Monday noon football luncheons here during the football season and the gala IU Foundation dinner in the spring.

Indianapolis planning to attend the clambake may expect to meet the entire coaching staff of this year's gridiron squad, including Clyde Smith, head coach; James Freeman, line coach; Chilly Cochran, backfield coach; Don Edmunds, end coach, and Ted Whereatt, freshman coach.

Among the other university luminaries invited are President Herman B. Wells and staff and Claude Rich, alumni secretary.

An invitation also has been extended to Alfred C. Kinsey, of Kinsey Report fame, but members of the picnic committee said it has not been learned whether he intends to accept.

Those responsible for the event besides DeVault are: John Scott, chairman; Kevin D. Brennan, Noble Biddinger, Rudolph Stempfel, Vincent I. Ryde, William Schooley, Sherwood Blue, Mendel McCarty, Kenneth Mohler, Lawrence Crosbie, Russell Campbell and Robert MacGill.

Ex-IU students and alumni alike have been advised that they may obtain their $2 tickets from one of the above committeemen or by writing or phoning Mendel O. McCarty, Treasurer, Indiana University Club, Union Title Building, 155 E. Market St., Indianapolis.
