Miss Mary Anne Marks

Joyce Smith To Be Wed Tonight

Butler University's Sweeney Chapel will be the scene tonight of Miss Joyce Smith's marriage to Max E. Wildman. Dr. Clyde E. Wildman, president of DePauw University, will officiate at 7:30 o'clock.

The bride will wear a sleeveless white tulle gown made with an Empire waistline and a chapel train. Her matching tulle hat will hold her long veil in place and she will carry a Bible topped with stephanotis.

Miss Joan Smith, the bride's twin sister, and Miss Suzanne Costigan, Bloomington, Ill., will be the attendants. Their white tulle frocks have Peter Pan collars, short sleeves and bouffant skirts. They will wear white tulle halo hats and carry long-stemmed red roses.

Dr. Dean E. Wildman will be his brother's best man. The ushers will include Noel E. Wildman, another brother of the bride, groom, and Kenneth B. Johnson, Jackson, Mich.

A reception in the Indianapolis Athletic Club will follow the ceremony. The couple will leave for a motor trip to the Smoky Mountains, the bride wearing a honey beige wool dress with matching cloche, a fur scarf and black accessories.

They will be at home after Oct. 10 in Chicago. The bride was graduated from Stephens College and Northwestern University where she was a Kappa Kappa Gamma Sorority member. Mr. Wildman is a graduate of Butler University and the University of Michigan School of Law.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray E. Smith, 1111 Pomander Place, are the bride's parents, and Dr. and Mrs. Roscoe E. Wildman, Peru, are the parents of the bridegroom.

Green-Walsh Vows Pledged

Miss Patricia Anne Walsh became the bride of Herschel Green at 9 o'clock this morning. The rite was read in Holy Angels Catholic Church by the Rev. Fr. Paul A. Dooley.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Walsh, 2854 N. Capitol Ave., are the parents of the bride, and Oscar W. Green, 614 E. Ninth St., is the bridegroom's father.

A candlelight satin gown, made with a hoop skirt and cathedral train, was worn by the bride. Her orange blossom tiara held her illusion veil. She carried white roses and baby breath.

Mrs. Alan Weinkauff, the matron of honor, was dressed in a blue tulle frock. The bridesmaid, Miss Charlotte Walsh, and Miss Mary Kehl, the junior bridesmaid, wore aqua and yellow or-gandy dresses.

Joseph Snyder was the best man, and Thomas and Joseph Walsh and Mr. Weinkauff were the ushers.

A reception was held this afternoon in the church and at 11 o'clock this morning the bridal party had breakfast at Buckley's in Cumberland.

After a week's trip to Lake Tippecanoe, the couple's at-home address will be 1124 College Ave.

Oct. 17 Is Date Set For Nuptial Rite

Miss Marian Poynter and Mer-lin Rusher will be married at 2:30 p. m. Oct. 17 in the Pleasant Run Boulevard Evangelical and Reformed Church. The Rev. R. C. Windhorst will officiate.

Miss Poynter is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Poynter, 2849 E. Meridian St. Mr. and Mrs. Shannon Rusher, Bloomfield, are the prospective bridegroom's parents.

SOCIETY EVENTS OF THE early fall season include resumption of organization activities. Sharing the limelight are announcements of engagements and approaching marriages.

The Indianapolis Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club (upper left) will be the sponsor, Thursday night, for the first performance of the Civic Theater's opening play, "State of the Union." On the arrangements committee are Mesdames Eugene M. Fife Jr., Raymond S. Davis and Jack E. Harris. Proceeds will be used in the society's national philanthropic projects, including the Settlement School in Gatlinburg, Tenn.

Members of the Junior Assembly's managing committee (center, above) were announced this week. They will serve during the 1948-49 season which is to include eight parties, the first a dinner-dance Oct. 15 in the Indianapolis Athletic Club. Committee members are Miss Betsy Blanton, Danville; Miss Barbara Bremerman, Miss Barbara Lemons, James Etzkorn, (Riviera photo).

The annual dinner meeting of the Golden Wheel Committee (lower left), Caroline Scott Harrison D.A.R. Chapter, will be held at 6:30 p. m. Thursday in the Chapter House. The event will be given for the entire chapter. H. J. Pierson will be the speaker.

Mrs. Edgar D. Randolph Jr., Golden Wheel chairman, announces the chairman for the meeting. They are Mrs. Marion H. Miller, dinner; Miss Helen Clever, program; Mrs. Benton

Jack Lanagan and Richard Lugar.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Marks, 1232 E. Kessler Blvd., announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Anne, (upper right) to Thomas C. Christenberry, nephew of Zach Catron, 6145 Haverford Ave. The couple will exchange vows Oct. 16 in Christ the King Catholic Church. The bride-to-be is a graduate of Butler University and a member of Alpha Chi Omega Sorority. (Riviera photo).

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur N. Bayless, 321 Lesley Ave., announce the engagement of their daughter, Mildred (lower right), to Paul H. Childers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bossemeyer, 5347 Winthrop Ave. No date has been set for the wedding. Both Miss Bayless and Mr. Childers attended Butler University, and he is a student in the University of New Mexico Law School. (Tarples photo.)

Mr. Anderson kept the dog in his office at the Brownsburg Record until his masters, sons of Mr. and Mrs. James V. Kittle, could be located.

And the night before that when Red, lonesome for Jimmie and Johnny, began to cry, Mr. Anderson sat up with him through the night.

The famed Mexican cliff divers of Acapulco, who flutter red capes as they drop into the Pacific, are captured on the movie vacation record of Misses Florence and Carleen Becker. They are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Becker, 215 E. 50th St.

In Mexico they found a reminder of the Hoosier state. After birthday celebrations for Florence in Acapulco, the girls left for a bus trip over the mountains to Taxco. The bus in which they climbed was filled with Indians, live chickens, fish, flowers and an improvised shrine to the Virgin of Guadalupe... but it was a bus made in Richmond, Ind.

Jimmie and Johnny Kittle, aged 5 and 3, were overjoyed recently to welcome their Irish setter, Red, home after he took an impromptu vacation from his home on W. 56th St.

Red may now have an idea about a career in journalism. On his "leave" he encountered L. P. Anderson of Brownsburg.

Couple to Take Trip East

A trip through Virginia and the East will follow the marriage of Miss Helen Maxine Katterhenry and Richard L. Tewksbury at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon. The Rev. Harold W. Mohler officiated in the Washington Street Methodist Church.

A Chantilly lace bertha accented the bride's candlelight satin gown. The skirt had pailers and extended into a cathedral train. A poke bonnet of matching lace held her two-tiered fingertip illusion veil. Her flowers were roses, gardenias and stephanotis with an orchid center.

Mrs. Richard L. Pottenger, her sister's matron of honor, wore a green faille tulle frock and matching mits. The bridesmaid, Mrs. Frank K. Daugherty, Cincinnati; Mrs. Robert C. Patrick, Dayton, and Mrs. John Masarju, were dressed alike in matching gold frocks and mits. Rickey Pottenger was the ringbearer.

Robert Tewksbury, West Lafayette, was his brother's best man, and Robert Stock, Ft. Wayne, Russell Williams and Mr. Pottenger were the ushers.

A reception was held in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy K. Katterhenry, 21 S. Warman Ave. Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Tewksbury, Wabash, are the bridegroom's parents.

The couple will be at home in Philadelphia. Both were graduated from Indiana University and the bridegroom also attended Purdue University.

The bride is a member of Pi Beta Phi Sorority and Mr. Tewksbury belongs to Delta Upsilon Fraternity.

Miss Spiegel Married

St. Paul's Episcopal Church was the scene this afternoon for the marriage of Miss Virginia Jean Spiegel to Charles M. Har-rison Jr. The Rev. William Burrows read the single-ring service at 2:30 o'clock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rollin W. Spiegel, 128 W. 73d St. The bridegroom's parents are of Ft. Wayne.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore gray satin with a gray hat. She carried orchids.

Her only attendant, Mrs. Edwin P. McCarty Jr., wore a navy suit and hat. Her flowers were purple orchids.

Victor C. Moeller, Ft. Wayne, was the best man. After a wedding trip east, the couple will live in Ft. Wayne.

The bride attended Tudor Hall School, Finch Junior College and the Graham-Eckes School in Palm Beach, Fla. The bridegroom attended Purdue University and is a member of Sigma Nu Fraternity.
